J. B. Clements, the son of R. W. Clements and Una Whiddon, was born at Irwinville, Ga., November 17, 1869. He graduated at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., June 26th, 1890. He received a medal for excellence in music.

In 1892, he was elected a member of school board for Irwin County. In 1892, he was elected and appointed Judge of the County Court of Irwin County, which position he held for sixteen years. In the fall of 1912 he was elected to the lower House of the General Assembly of Georgia, sessions 1913-1914. He was re-elected in the fall of 1914 and served during the sessions 1915-1916. He was re-elected in the fall of 1916 and served during the sessions of 1917 and 1918. He also served at two extra sessions.

In the spring of 1919, he was elected to the State Senate to represent the 45th Senatorial District, this being a new district created the year previous, he being the first Senator to represent this district, serving during sessions 1919 and 1920. In the fall of 1924, he was elected to the State Senate to represent the 45th district in the State Senate, sessions 1925 and 1926. He was again elected to the State Senate in 1930 and served during the sessions of 1931 and 1932.

He joined Irwinville Lodge No. 315 F. & A. M. April 1893 and was elected Worshipful Master in 1894 and has held this position from that time until the present. In 1919 he was presented with a jewel by the Grand Lodge of Georgia for 25 consecutive years of service. In 1910 he was elected by the Grand Lodge a member of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home. In 1920 he was elected secretary and treasurer of this board which position he held to 1930. At session of the Grand Lodge held in the fall of 1923 he was given by the Grand Lodge a jewel for unusual merit and distinguished service to masonry which is considered one of the highest honors bestowed by the Grand Lodge upon one of its members. He was the first native of Irwin County to take a full collegiate course and receive a diploma.

WHY THIS HISTORY IS UNDERTAKEN TO BE WRITTEN.

The General Assembly of the State of Georgia at its regular session in the year of 1929 passed by both houses the following resolution:

No. 36.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Georgia both houses thereof concurring herein, that the Judges of the Superior Courts of the State are hereby earnestly requested to give in charge to the Grand Jury of each county in their several circuits at the next term of the court therein, the urgent request of this General Assembly that they will secure the consent of some competent person in their county to prepare between now and February 12, 1933, being Georgia Day, as nearly a complete history of the formation, development and progress of said county from its creation up to that date, together with accounts of such persons, families and public events as have given character and fame to the county, the state, and the nation. And said county histories be deposited on Georgia Day in 1933 in the State Department of Archives and History there to be preserved for the information of future citizens of the state and prospective biographers and historians. And this action is recommended to the Judges, Grand Juries and the people of all the counties of the state, for early procedure, because delay will leave action in this behalf too short a time for the necessary research and accumulation of data to make the county histories as full and accurate as they should be for full historic value.

By authority of the foregoing act of the Legislature, Hon. R. Eve, Judge of Superior Court of Tifton Circuit, presiding at Ocilla in Irwin County, Georgia, at the November term, 1929, in his charge to the Grand Jury called their attention to said resolution and requested their compliance with the same. Accordingly in their General Presentments at the close of their labors submitted the following: "The General Assembly of the State of Georgia by resolution having made it the duty of the courts of the several counties of the state to lay before the Grand Juries the necessity of historical data pertaining to our state, and his honor, Judge Eve, having so charged our body, and we deeming it of high importance that such valuable data should be gotten up and permanently preserved, we therefore recommend that Hon. J. B. Clements be appointed as County Historian, for the purpose of getting up such data and to do such other duties as is required in supplying such data. We wish to especially thank Judge J. B. Clements for the tendering of his services for this purpose, as we feel that he is the proper person to have this position, and as there is no compensation attached, we feel that it is loyalty upon his part to show such willingness to aid in the matter. We wish also to urge upon every citizen the necessity and the importance of such historical data, and we trust Judge Clements will receive the full co-operation of all that can be of assistance.” (Extract from general presentments, November term, 1929.) Signed by Joe H. Little, Foreman.

CHAPTER 1.

When Oglethorpe landed at Yamacraw Bluff in February, 1733, he and the Trustees held a Grant from the British Crown to a very large tract of land, or territory, extending from the mouth of the Savannah River to the head of the northernmost branch of the same, which happened to strike the 35th parallel of north latitude, and thence on a straight line to the Mississippi River. The southern boundary was to follow the Altamaha River from its southerly branch to its source, and thence on a straight line to the Mississippi River.

The Trustees pursued a very wise course in dealing with the Indians, who were the actual owners of the land and in actual possession of the same. In October, 1733, the chiefs of the Lower Creek Nation all assembled at Savannah, Georgia, and there entered into a treaty with Oglethorpe the most interesting part of which is as follows: "Fourthly, we, the head men of the Coweta and Cusseta towns in behalf of all the Lower Creek Nation being firmly persuaded that he who lives in Heaven and is the occasion of all good things, has moved the hearts of the Trustees to send their beloved men among us, for the good of our wives and children, and to instruct us and them in what is straight to do, therefore, declare that we are glad that their people are come here; and though this land belongs to us, the Lower Creeks, yet we, that we may be instructed by them, do consent and agree, that they shall make use of and possess all those lands, which our nation hath not occasion to use; and we make over unto them, their successors and assigns, all such lands and territories as we shall have no occasion to use; provided always that they upon settling every town, shall set out for the use of ourselves, and the people of our nation, such lands as shall be agreed upon between their beloved men, and the head of our nation and that those lands shall remain to us forever.

"Lastly, we promise, with stout hearts and love of our brothers, the English, to give no encouragement to any other white people, but themselves to settle among us, and that we will not have any correspondence with the Spaniards or French and to show that we both for the good of ourselves, our wives and children, do firmly promise to keep the talk in our hearts, as long as the sun shall shine or the waters run in the rivers."

The treaty made in 1733 with Oglethorpe was ratified at Coweta Town in 1739 by the deputies of the Creeks, Cherokees and Chehaws.

Georgia was 102 years in a process of territorial expansion. It was interesting to know that under this territorial expansion Georgia grew from river to river. Originally from the Savannah to the Ogeechee, the Altamaha to the St. Marys, thence from Ogeechee to the Oconee and from Oconee to Ocmulgee, from Ocmulgee to Flint, from Flint to Chattahoochee and later from Chattahoochee to the Tennessee. Following each cession of land by the Indians or immediately preceding it, the Georgia General Assembly would create large counties, and after the treaty of 1804 these counties were immediately laid off in land districts and land lots.

On August 9, 1814, under the treaty at Fort Jackson, the Creek Indians ceded to Georgia, or to the United States for Georgia by virtue of the agreement of 1802, the lands between the Chattahoochee River and the western line of Wayne County bounded on the south by the Florida line, and on the north by lines starting from the Chattahoochee River near Fort Gaines and running due east to a point northeast of Isabella, and thence forty-five degrees northeast to the Ocmulgee River, and thence following the Ocmulgee to the Altamaha River near Jesup where it intersected the western boundary line of Wayne County.

The treaty above referred to entered into August 9, 1814, between Andrew Jackson and the Creek nation which included the territory embracing originally Irwin County, reads as follows:

Treaty of 1814.

Whereas an unprovoked, inhuman and sanguinary war waged by the hostile Creeks against the United States hath been repelled, prosecuted and determined successfully on the part of the said states in conformity with principles of national justice and honorable warfare, and whereas consideration is due to the rectitude of proceeding directed by instructions relating to the re-establishments of peace; Be it remembered that prior to the conquest of that part of the Creek nation hostile to the United States, numberless aggressions had been committed against the peace, the property and lives of citizens of the United States and those of the Creek nation in amity with her at the mouth of Duck River, Fort Mims and elsewhere contrary to national faith and the regard due to an article of the treaty concluded at New York in the year 1790 between the two nations. That the United States, previously to the perpetration of such outrages, did in order to insure future amity and concord between the Creek nation and the said states in conformity with stipulations of former treaties fulfill with punctuality and good faith her engagements to the said nations.

That more than two-thirds of the whole number of chiefs and warriors of the Creek nation, disregarding the genuine spirit of existing treaties, suffered themselves to be instigated to violations of their national honor, and the respect due to a part of their own nation faithful to the United States and the principles of humanity by imposters denominating themselves Prophets, and by the duplicity and misrepresentations of foreign emissaries whose governments are at war, open, or understood with the United States. Wherefore,

1. The United States demands an equivalent for all expenses incurred in prosecuting the war to its termination by a cession of all the territories belonging to the Creek nation within the territory of the United States lying west, south and southeasterly of a line to be run and described by persons duly authorized and appointed by the President of the United States. Beginning at a point on the eastern bank of the Coosa River where the south boundary line of the Cherokee nation crosses the same; running from thence down the said Coosa River with its eastern bank according to various meanders to a point one mile above the mouth of Cedar Creek at Fort Williams, thence east two miles, thence south two miles, thence west to the eastern bank of the said Coosa River, thence down the eastern bank thereof according to its various meanders to a point opposite the upper end of the great falls called by the natives Woetumpka, thence east from a true meridian line to a point due north of the mouth of Ofucshee, thence south by like meridian line to the mouth of Ofucshee on the south side of the Tallapoosa River, thence up the same according to its various meanders to a point where a direct course will cross the same at the distance of ten miles from the mouth thereof, thence a direct line to the mouth of Summochice Creek, which empties into the Chatahoochee River on the east side thereof below the Eufaula town, thence east from a true meridian line to a point which shall intersect the line now dividing the lands claimed by the said Creek nation from those claimed and owned by the State of Georgia, provided nevertheless that where any possessions of any chief or warrior of the Creek nation who shall have been friendly to the United States during the war and taken an active part therein, shall be within the territory deeded by these articles to the United States, every such person shall be entitled to a reservation of land within the said territory of one mile square to include his improvements as near the center thereof as may be, which shall inure to the said chief or warrior and his descendants so long as he or they shall continue to occupy the same, who shall be protected by and subject to the laws of the United States, upon the voluntary abandonment thereof by such possessor or his descendants the right of occupancy or possession of said lands shall devolve to the United States and be identified with the right of property ceded hereby.

2. The United States will guarantee to the Creek nation the integrity of all their territories easterly and northerly of the said line to be run and described as mentioned in first article.

3. The United States demands that the Creek nation abandon all communications and cease to hold any intercourse with any British or Spanish post, garrison or town; and that they shall not admit among them any agent or trader who shall derive authority to hold commercial or other intercourse with them by license from the President or authorized agent of the United States.

4. The United States demands an acknowledgment of the right to establish military posts and trading houses, to open roads within the territory guaranteed to the Creek nation by the second article and a right to the free navigation of all its waters.

5. The United States demands that a surrender be immediately made of all the persons and property taken from the citizens of the United States, the friendly part of the Creek nation, the Cherokee, the Chickasaw and Choctaw to the respective owners; and the United States will cause to be immediately restored to the formerly hostile Creeks all the property taken from them since their submission, either by the United States, or by any Indian nation in amity with the United States, together with all the prisoners taken from them during the war.

6. The United States demands the capture and surrender of all the prophets and instigators of the war, whether foreigners or natives, who have not submitted to the arms of the United States and become parties to these articles of capitulation, if ever they shall be found within the territory guaranteed to the Creek nation by the second article.

7. The Creek nation being reduced to extreme want and not at present having the means of subsistence, the United States from motives of humanity will continue to furnish graciously the necessaries of life, until the crops of corn can be considered competent to yield the nation a supply and will establish trading houses in the nation at the direction of the President of the United States and at such places as he shall direct to enable the nation by industry and economy to procure clothing.

8. A permanent peace shall insue from the date of these presents forever between the Creek nation and the United States and between the Creek nation and Cherokee, Chickasaw and Choctaw nations.

9. If in running east from the mouth of Summochoico Creek it shall so happen that the settlement of the Kennards fall within the lines of the territory hereby ceded, then in that case the line shall be run east on a true meridian line to Kitchofoonee Creek, thence down the middle of said creek to its junction with Flint River immediately below the Ocmulgee town, thence up the middle of Flint River to a point east of that at which the above struck Kitchofoonee Creek, thence east to the old line hereinbefore mentioned, to wit: the line dividing the land claimed by the Creek nation from those claimed and owned by the State of Georgia.

The parties to these presents after due consideration for themselves and their constituents agreed to ratify and confirm the preceding article and constitute them the basis of a permanent peace between the nations; and they do hereby solemnly bind themselves and all the parties concerned therein. In testimony whereof, they hereunto interchangeably set their hands and affixed their seals the day and date above written. Done at Fort Jackson in presence of Charles Casedy, Acting Secretary; Benjamin Hawkins, Agent for Indians' affairs; Return J. Heigs, A. C. Nation; Robert Butler Adjutant General, United States Army; J. C. Warren, Assistant Agent Indian affairs; George Mayfield, Alex Curnells, George Lovett, Public Interpreters.

Before any new counties could be made in south Georgia it was necessary to have an additional treaty with the Indians as they still own some of the territory in the southern part of the state, therefore the following treaty was made with the Creek Indians at the Creek Agency on Flint River, January 22, 1818.

“James Monroe, President of the United States of America, by David Birdie Mitchell, of the State of Georgia, Agent of Indian affairs for the Creek nation and sole Commissioner, especially appointed for that purpose on the one part, and the undersigned kings, chiefs, headmen and warriors of the Creek nation in council assembled on behalf of the said nation of the other part, have entered into the following articles and conditions:

Article 1. The said kings, chiefs, headmen and warriors do hereby agree in consideration of certain sums of money to be paid to the said Creek nation by the government of the United States as hereinafter stated, to cede and forever quitclaim to them and do in behalf of their said nation hereby cede, relinquish and forever quitclaim unto the United States all rights, titles and interest which the said nation have or claim in or unto the following tracts of land situated, lying and being within the following bounds, that is to say:

(a) Beginning at the mouth of Goose Creek on the Altamaha River, thence along the line leading to the mounts at the head of St. Marys River to the point where it is intersected by the line run by the Commissioners of the United States under the treaty of Fort Jackson, thence along the said last mentioned line to a point where a line leaving the same shall run the nearest and a direct course by the head of a creek called by the Indians, Alcassalekie, to the Ocmulgee; thence down the said Ocmulgee River to its junction with the Oconee, the two rivers there forming the Altamaha, thence down the Altamaha to the first mentioned bounds at the mouth of Goose Creek.

(b) Beginning at the high shoals of the Appalachee River and from thence along the line designated by the treaty made at the City of Washington on the fourteenth day of November, 1805 (fifteen) to the Ulcofouhatchie it being the first large branch or fork of the Ocmulgee above the seven Islands, thence up the eastern bank of the Ulcofouhatchi by the waters edge to where the path leading from the high shoals of the Appalachee to the shallow ford on the Chattahoochee crosses the same, and from thence along the said path to the shallow ford on the Chattahoochee River; thence up the Chattahoochee River by the water's edge on the eastern side to Swanee old town, thence by a direct line to the head of Appalachee and thence down the same to the mentioned bounds at the high shoals of Appalachee.

Art. 2. It is hereby stipulated and agreed on the part of the United States as a full consideration for the two tracts of land ceded by the Creek nation in the preceding article that there shall be paid to the Creek nation by the United States within the present year the sum of $20,000 and $10,000 shall be paid annually for the term of ten succeeding years without interest, making in the whole eleven payments in the course of eleven years, the present year included, and the whole sum to be paid $120,000.

Art. 3. And it is hereby further agreed on the part of the United States that in lieu of all former stipulations relating to blacksmiths, they will furnish the Creek nation for three years with two blacksmiths and strickers.

Art. 4. The President may cause any line to be run which may be necessary to designate the boundary of any part of both or either of the tracts of land ceded by this treaty at such time and in such manner as he may deem proper. And this treaty shall be obligatory on the contracting parties as soon as the same shall be ratified by the government of the United States.

Done at the place and on the day before written, signed: D. B. Mitchell; Tustnungee Thlucco, his mark; Tustnungee Hopoie, his mark; William McIntosh; Tuskeenchaw, his mark; Hopoie Hanjo, his mark; Cothan Hanjo, his mark; Inthlansis Hanjo, his mark; Coewtan Micco, his mark; Cusslecan Micco, his mark; Eufaulau Micco; Hopoethee Hanja, his mark; Hoopoie Hatkee, his mark; Yoholo Micco, his mark; Tustunungee, his mark; Fatuake Hehehan, his mark; Yanhan Hanjo, his mark; Tustkeegee Emantla, his mark; Tustunnungee Hoithleloleo, his mark; Present D. Bearly, Commander Seventh Infantry; William S. Mitchell, Assistant Agent; I. A. C. N.; M. Johnson, Lieutenant Corps of Artillery; S. L. Hawkins; George (G. L.) Lovett, Interpreters.

The signing of the two foregoing Treaties with the Creek Indians settled the most serious adverse claim to this territory as the Indians were in actual possession of the entire south Georgia country. During the war of 1812 many of these Indians allied themselves with Great Britain and in the resulting campaign General Andrew Jackson's victory on the Tallapoosa in the summer of 1814 crushed the power of the Creeks and the terms of peace demanded by General Jackson were hard beyond expectation. This south Georgia territory was called by the Indians the Tallassee country and extended from the Chattahoochee River on the west to Wayne County on the east, taking in the Okefenokee and skirting the big bend of the Ocmulgee as well as the upper Altamaha. It was the favorite hunting grounds of the Creek Indians and a territory they liked very much.

The lower half of this territory was held once by Spain as a part of Florida and was not included in the grant to Oglethorpe and the Trustees for Georgia as said grant extended no farther south than did the Altamaha River.

The Spanish title to this territory was extinguished by the peace of 1763, and soon thereafter the Governor of South Carolina, acting under an ancient grant, assumed jurisdiction over the territory and it was not until about five years after the Revolutionary war had ended and after a court had been created by Congress to pass upon the question that the two states by a compact entered into at Beauford amicably adjusted their differences.

All adverse claims to this south Georgia country being now amicably adjusted, this territory was now in shape to be made into new counties for settlement and development. Accordingly an act was introduced in the legislature to create out of this vast territory three large counties named Early, on the west; Irwin, in the center; and Appling, on the east. The act of the legislature creating these new counties was approved in December, 1818, and is as follows:

AN ACT.

To dispose of and distribute the late cession of land obtained from the Creek and Cherokee nations of Indians by the United States in the several treaties, one concluded at Fort Jackson on the ninth day of August, 1814, and one concluded at the Cherokee Agency on the eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1817, and one concluded at the Creek Agency on the Flint River, January 22, 1818.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and Representatives of the State of Georgia in General Assembly meeting and by the authority of the same, that the territory lying south of and southwest of the Ocmulgee and Altamaha Rivers and bounding on the counties of Wayne, Camden and East Florida line, the Chattahoochee River and the Creek temporary line forms three counties, to wit: All of that part of said territory which lies west of a line to commence on the above temporary line and two and three-quarter miles on the east side of Flint River and running south to the southern boundary of this state shall form one county to be called Early. And all the balance of said territory which lies west of the line to commence at the ford of the Ocmulgee, commonly called the Blackshear ford, and running south to the same boundary shall form a county called Irwin County. And all the balance of said territory shall form one other county called Appling County. The county of Early shall be laid off into districts of twelve miles and forty chains square as near as convenience will admit by running lines parallel with the dividing lines between said county and the county of Irwin and others crossing them at right angles and numbers from one to twenty-three. The districts shall be divided into squares of fifty chains containing 250 acres by lines parallel with the district lines and others crossing them at right angles, and the number of tracts bounded on Flint River and on all other water courses within the territory, to be disposed by this act, containing 160 acres and under, shall be considered as fractions, and disposed of accordingly; that fractions not lying on water courses containing less than a full section or square shall be considered fractions and be disposed of by the state as other fractions not drawn for. The counties of Irwin and Appling shall be laid off into districts of twenty miles and ten chains square as near as can conveniently be, by lines running parallel with the line dividing said counties and others crossing them at right angles, and those of Irwin County numbering from one to sixteen, exclusively, and those in the county of Appling from thirty-six to fifty, inclusively, and divided into lots of seventy chains each way containing 490 acres each. And the Surveyor-General shall give each District Surveyor necessary instructions for surveying, marking and numbering in a clear and perspicuous manner the squares and fractions in his district in conformity with the spirit of this act.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, that the Surveyor-General shall be and he is hereby authorized and required to appoint fit and proper persons, neither of whom shall be a District Surveyor, to run and plainly mark the several county and district lines in the above counties, except the districts numbers ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen in Appling County.

Sec. 4. That fractional numbers of surveys which may be created by the natural or artificial boundary of said territory, except as is herein accepted by the proviso of this act shall be sold and the proceeds thereof placed in the treasury of the state.

Sec. 5. That a number of surveyors equal to the number of districts shall be appointed by joint ballot of the legislature on one general ticket, and the person having the highest number of votes shall be entitled to first choice of districts and in that order accordingly to the number of votes each surveyor was appointed may receive.

Sec. 6. That if two or more persons shall have an equal number of votes, then in that case, it shall be determined by lot, under the supervision of the Surveyor-General, which person or persons shall be entitled to choice of districts.

Sec. 7. That any ticket shall be counted unless it be filled with the number of names from among the candidates equal to the number of districts.

Sec. 8. That if any person shall offer and be elected a surveyor who shall hereafter be found deficient in the qualifications necessary to a due execution of the duties required by this act, it shall be deemed a forfeiture of his bond, and himself and security immediately liable thereafter.

Sec. 9. That the respective surveyors shall give bond in the penalty of ten thousand dollars to the Governor and his successors in office with such securities as he or the majority of the Justices of the Inferior Courts of the respective counties where the said surveyors may reside shall approve of for the faithful discharge of the trust reposed in them and duties required of them by this act, which bond shall be taken by the Governor or aforesaid Justices and deposited in the executive office.

Sec. 10. That it shall be the duty of the surveyor appointed in pursuance of this act, to make the surveys of the district to which they may be appointed in their own proper persons to mark or cause to be marked plain and distinct upon trees if practical, otherwise stakes may suffice all lines which may be required to be run for the purpose of making the surveys in their respective districts. Immediately after the boundary and district lines shall have been run by the proper authorities; to cause all such lines to be measured with all possible exactness, with a half chain containing two perches of sixteen and one-half feet each consisting of fifty equal lengths, which shall be adjusted by a standard to be kept for that purpose in the Surveyor-General's office; to take as accurate as possible the meanders of all water courses which shall form natural boundary of the surveys; to note in field book; to be kept by them respectively the names of the manor and other station trees which shall be marked and numbered in such manner as the Surveyor-General shall direct; also all rivers, creeks and all other water courses which may be touched upon or crossed in running or measuring any of the lands aforesaid; transcripts of such field books after being examined with the originals by the Surveyor-General and certified and signed on other page by the District Surveyor returning the same shall be deposited in the Surveyor-General's office, there to be preserved as a record; to make a return within five months after the running boundary and district line as aforesaid of a map of the district to which they may respectfully be appointed in which shall be correctly delineated, represented and numbered in such way as the Surveyor-General shall prescribe of surveyors in such districts; and also return at the same time a detached plat of the several such surveys of land, certified and signed by them, each plat shall be filed among the records in the Surveyor-General's office and over which a copy shall be made to be annexed to grants; and to conform to such instructions as they may receive from the Surveyor-General from time to time during their continuance in office and progress in the duties thereof not militating with this act.

Sec. 11. That the surveyor shall receive four dollars for every mile that shall be accurately run or surveyed as a full compensation for all duties required of them by this act, out of which sum they shall defray the expenses of chain men, ax men and other expenses, incidental to the said fees; and the Governor is hereby authorized and required to issue his warrant on the treasury, in favor of each and several surveyors immediately after the boundary and district lines are completed to the amount of four hundred dollars, which to enable them to proceed without delay to the execution of their duties; the balance of which by this rule they may be entitled, they shall receive a warrant in like manner on producing to the Governor a certificate from the Surveyor-General, setting forth that said survey is completed, the duties assigned him and also the number of miles was run and marked, and make his return conformably to this act.

Sec. 12. That the surveyor or surveyors who may be employed in dividing the said territory into counties and districts shall receive five dollars for each mile run and surveyed and shall be allowed an advance of $150 in manner aforesaid out of which all expenses incidental thereto must be paid, without any additional charge on the state; and the Governor is required to grant his warrant on the treasury for the balance of that service so soon as he shall be advised by the surveyor of its completion.

Sec. 13. That the said land shall be distributed by lot in the manner following, to wit: After the surveying is completed and the return made to the Surveyor-General, the Governor shall cause tickets to be made out whereby all the numbers of surveys in the different districts shall be represented by tickets shall be put into a box to constitute prizes with others to be denominated blanks of which blanks the number or amount shall be determined by subtracting the number of prizes from the whole numbers of draws to which the said lottery shall be subject upon the following principles that is to say: Every male white person of eighteen years and upwards, being a citizen of the United States and an inhabitant of this state three years immediately preceding the passage of this act including such as have been absent on lawful business and all who served as drafted men or volunteers in the late Indian war, whose residence has not been three years in this state and are now citizens of the state; provided they have resided and continue to reside in this state since the time of said service or services being performed, shall be entitled to one draw; that all officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary war who are indigent or invalid and who were found as such on behalf of the United States in said Revolutionary war, shall be and they are hereby authorized to have two draws in addition to those heretofore authorized by law. And should any such officer or soldier aforesaid have been a fortunate drawer in either of the land lotteries heretofore drawn in the state, he shall be and he is hereby entitled to one draw in this lottery and shall be accepted by the general provisions of the oath prescribed by this act so far as records that part of said oath which requires to swear that they have not been fortunate drawers in previous lotteries in this state provided the said officer or soldier shall swear that he is indigent or invalid and that he was as such officer or soldier engaged in the service in behalf of the United States in said Revolutionary war, and that all widows or orphans whose husbands or fathers were killed in the late war with Great Britain and the Indians shall be entitled to one draw in addition to those already allowed by this act to widows and orphans. Every male person of like description leaving a wife or legitimate male child or children under the age of eighteen years or unmarried female child or children shall be entitled to two draws; all widows with like residence shall be entitled to ten draws, all families of orphans consisting of more than two who have neither father nor mother living, shall have two draws; but have not exceeding two, then such orphan or orphans shall be entitled to one draw which shall be given in the county and district where the eldest of said orphan or orphans or guardian resides; provided that the person or persons who draw a prize or prizes in the late land lotteries shall be excepted from any participation in the present lottery except families of orphans consisting of more than one person and such other persons as are herein accepted; provided also that the citizens of this state who come under the provision of this act as above contemplated and who were legally drafted in the late war against Great Britain or the Indians and refused to serve a tour of duties either in person or by substitute, shall not be entitled to the provision of this act as above contemplated; nor any of those who evaded a draft by leaving the state or county in which they resided for that purpose; and if any minor or minors should draw land, the guardian of said minor or minors shall have the right or privilege of applying to the Governor and obtaining the ground or grounds therefore upon the payment of lawful fees; but said guardian shall not be permitted to sell said land during the minority of said minor or minors.

Sec. 14. That list of persons entitled to draw in conformity to the provision of this act shall be taken and laid out within three months from the passing of this act by such fit and proper person or persons as the Inferior Court of each county in this state shall or may appoint for that purpose. In extending two to each battalion district and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the said Inferior Courts respectfully to make such appointments for the purpose aforesaid to attend at the place of holding Justice Courts in which captain districts in as many days as the said Inferior Courts may deem necessary and appoint for that purpose; and it shall be the duty of each person or persons so appointed to take and make out such lists and to give at least ten days' notice of such in the aforesaid captain districts; and the names of persons so entitled, with the numbers of draws to which they may be entitled, shall be under an alphabetical order in a book to be provided for that purpose, which list of books shall immediately the same shall be completed and transcripts thereof deposited in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court to be transmitted by the said person or persons to the Governor; and the said person or persons then appointed by the Inferior Court, each of them upon entering upon the execution of the duties required of them by this act shall take and subscribe to an oath, to wit: I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will not receive or register any name except that the person, the number given in, shall first take the oath prescribed by this act, so help me God: which oath any Justice of the Inferior Court is hereby required to administer and the said person or persons appointed to take the lists of the aforesaid shall administer to all applicants for draws other than widows. Guardians or next of friends of officers and Revolutionary officers and soldiers who were indigent or invalid and those who have served a campaign in the late Indian war and whose residence has not been three years in this state, the following oath, to wit: I solemnly swear that I am a citizen of the United States and have resided in this state three years immediately preceding the passing of this act and have not during any part of that time resided upon the Cherokee or Creek lands or beyond the jurisdictional circuits of this state and are now an inhabitant of this district, that I was eighteen years of age at the time of the passing of this act, that I have or have not a wife, child or children, as the case may be, that I have not given in my name for any draw or draws

in the present contemplated lottery in any other part of this state, that I have not drawn a tract of land in the former lotteries in my individual capacity or an individual orphan and that either directly or indirectly evade the service of this state nor of the United States in any of the late wars carried on against Britain or the Indians; and of guardian or next of friends to any family of orphans shall take the following oath; and that the orphan or family of orphans whom I now return is entitled to draw, or draws, under this act to the best of my knowledge, so help me God. And Revolutionary officers or soldiers shall take the following additional oath to the one prescribed, to wit: I further swear that I was an officer or soldier during the Revolutionary war, that I was engaged in the services of the Revolutionary war as the case may be; and to those entitled to draw by this act by services rendered in the late Indian war whose residence in this state have not been three years previous to the passing of this act the following oath: I do solemnly swear that I am a citizen of the United States and that I performed a tour of duties in the late Indian war and as volunteer or drafted militiaman of this state as the case may be, that I have been a resident of the same since that time and that I am now an inhabitant of this district, that I have not given in my name for any draw or draws in the present contemplated lottery in any other part of this state, that I have not drawn a tract of land in any of the former lotteries in this state, so help me God; and to all widows the following oath: I do solemnly swear that I am a widow, that I have resided the last three years in this state and am now a resident in this district, that I have not put in my name for a draw in the present lottery in any other part of this state and that I have not drawn land in the former lotteries of this state, to the best of my knowledge and belief, so help me God.

Sec. 15. That the person or persons appointed by the Superior Court to receive and enter the names of applicants entitled to draws in the present lottery shall receive for each draw twenty-five cents to be paid by the applicants for said draw, or draws and the Governor is authorized and required forthwith to issue his proclamation and cause the same to be published in one of the gazettes of Milledgeville, Savannah and Augusta, setting above the outline of this act and requiring all persons interested therein to exhibit their claims in the courts of their respective residence.

Sec. 16. That as soon as the list of persons entitled to draw in the lottery in the aforesaid shall have been received in the Executive Department, the Governor shall cause tickets to be made out for carrying the said lottery into effect in the following manner. That is to say, blank pieces of paper equal in number to the whole number of draws to which the lottery may be subject and as equal in size as possible, shall be prepared and on them shall be written separately the names of several persons entitled to draws as aforesaid and the designatory remarks which may appear against each name, and the pieces of paper so written on shall be deposited in one wheel; and the blanks and prizes on pieces of paper, also equal in size as possible, shall be deposited at another wheel which prize to be drawn for shall be composed of each whole square or tract of land and also of fractions on Flint River and other water courses containing 160 acres or upward according to the return of surveyor or surveyors: provided that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to form fractions on any water courses except the Flint River and such other streams as formed the boundary of the territory above disposed of by this act; and from each wheel as equal as can be one ticket shall be taken and delivered to the managers appointed to superintend the drawing of said lottery whose duty it shall be to have the same if the prize should be drawn against it either in a book to be provided for that purpose and opposite thereto the number of the lot so drawn and the number of the district and the name of the county in which the same may be and that the Government shall cause one month's notice of the date of the drawing of the lottery to commence to be drawn, in the several gazettes, as aforesaid.

Sec. 18. That the surveyor be appointed in pursuance of this act shall before they proceed to the duties of their appointments take the following oath: I do solemnly swear that I will, well and faithfully, to the utmost of my skill and ability discharge the duties of surveyor for district number ....., agreeably to the requisition of this act, so help me God; which oath the Surveyor-General is authorized and required to administer; and all chain men to be employed in pursuance of this act shall before they enter severally upon their duties take the following oath: I do solemnly swear that I will to the utmost of my skill and judgment measure all lines which I shall or may be employed on as chain carrier as accurately and with as little deviation from the courses pointed out by the surveyor as possible and give a true account of the same to the said surveyor, so help me God: and to every ax man or marker an oath similar to the above so as to affect the objects of his duty which oath the district surveyors are hereby empowered and required to administer.

Sec. 19. And as soon as it may happen that persons have surveyed land in the aforesaid cessions contrary to law and on which grants may have been issued: Be it enacted that all such surveys or grants are hereby declared to be null and void to all intents and purposes as though the same had never been made or issued; nor shall any survey or grants in the aforesaid cessions be admitted to a jury as evidence to title to the lands in this act described except those by virtue of this act and not under the authority of this act any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 20. That all persons against whose names lands may be drawn in pursuance of this act shall be entitled to receive grants for the same vesting in them fee simple titles and paying into the treasury of this state the sum of eighteen dollars for each tract so drawn and granted in lieu of office and other charges for survey not granting the lands, provided any person or persons entitled to such grant or grants shall fail to pay the aforesaid sum and take out such grant or grants within two years from the completion of the lottery except as hereinbefore accepting the same shall revert to and be vested in this state.

Sec. 21. That all returns made contrary to the true intent and manner of this act are declared to be fraudulent and all grants to be issued in consequence of any draws made in the contemplated lottery on such fraudulent returns are hereby declared to be null and void and the land so granted shall revert to and become the property of this state and the question of fraudulence may be tried on a scire facias in favor of the state against the tenant in possession or the drawer setting forth circumstances specially: and the land so condemned shall belong one-half to the state and the other half to the informer.

Sec. 22. That lots numbers ten and one hundred shall be reserved and set apart in each surveyor's district for the attention of poor children.

Sec. 23. That the proceeds arising from the sale, or fractions, if there be no fee defraying the necessary expenses, be set apart as a permanent fund for the purpose mentioned in the preceding section.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
Mathew Tolbot,
President of the Senate.

HEADRIGHT COUNTIES.

All counties lying east of the Oconee River are headright counties and have never been surveyed except for the purpose of determining the boundary lines of each county. Under the law at that time every citizen of the United States who should come with the intent to settle and form an actual residence in this state should be entitled to a warrant of survey for any quantity of unlocated lands within the counties if the same should not exceed one thousand acres to any one person. In spite of the law during the administrations of Governors Walton, Telfair, Mathews and Irwin, tracts of land containing in some instances more than one hundred thousand acres were granted by individuals. The actual number of acres of land in Franklin County is 499,200 acres. According to maps and records in the Surveyor-General's office surveys purport to have been made and grants issued for 5,126,548 acres. The actual number of acres in Montgomery County is 407,680. Surveys purport to have been made and grants issued to 7,436,995.

acres. In Washington County actual number of acres is 416,720 acres. Surveys claimed to have been made and grants issued for 5,018,048 acres.

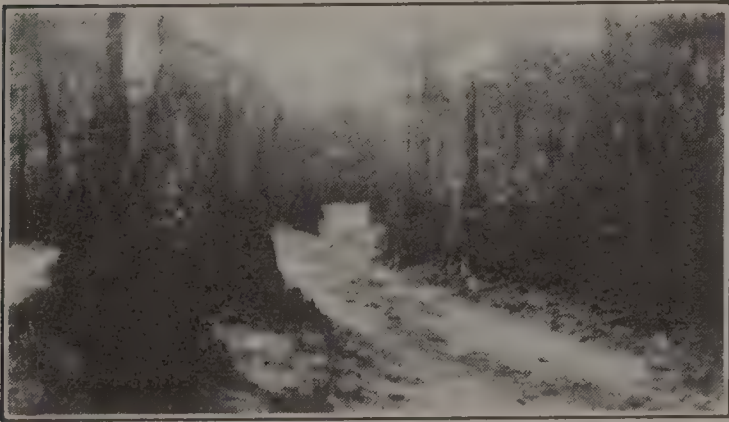

This is a frightful record and a matter of reproach to our state that during the administration of four Governors that land was granted to single persons in such large quantities without the slightest authority under the law and contrary to all laws on the subject of headright grants.

In order to prevent its recurrence the state adopted a radical change of policy in the matter of disposing of her newly acquired public lands. The headright principle in the headright counties was in no way changed, but it was changed as to the territory embraced in Wayne County and the territory west of the Oconee River. And the lottery system was substituted for the headright system. In other words, before parting with any part of this land, it was all to be surveyed into land districts and land lots and these were to be disposed of by lottery to citizens of Georgia only. Every free male white person over twenty-one years of age living in Georgia twelve months previous was entitled to one draw; every free white male person having a wife, child or children under twenty-one years of age was entitled to two draws; all widows having a child or children were entitled to two draws; all families of orphans having no parents living were entitled to one draw. The price charged for said draws was for all pine land fifty cents per acre, however, this law was changed before drawing of 1818. The grant fee till November, 1823, was eighteen dollars; till December, 1826, was twelve dollars; till November, 1830, was eight dollars; till November, 1831, was six dollars; till December, 1837, was five dollars.

The county of Irwin was surveyed into land districts and land lots in 1818. There were sixteen land districts in the county numbering from one to sixteen inclusive. In the first district there were 224 lots of land containing 490 acres each and forty-two fractional lots. In the second district there were 260 lots 490 acres each and thirty-five fractional lots. In the third district 272 whole lots. In fourth district 310 whole lots and six fractional lots. In fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth and thirteenth districts there were 531 lots in each district containing 490 acres more or less. In the ninth district there were two fractional lots. In the tenth district, three; and the twelfth, one fractional lot. In the fourteenth district there were 164 lots containing 490 acres and twenty-two fractional lots. In the fifteenth district there were 180 lots 490 acres and twenty-four fractional lots. In sixteenth district there were 232 lots and twenty-six fractional lots. Irwin County was named after Governor Jarried Irwin, a native of North Carolina. He came to Georgia when he was seven years old, represented Washington County in the legislature many years, was president of the Senate, and Governor 1806 to 1809. Helped to revise the Constitution in 1789 and 1798. Was buried in the northern part of Washington County in 1815. He will always be revered for his uncompromising opposition to the Yazoo fraud. It was while he was Governor at Louisville that the records of this colossal iniquity was by his order committed to the flames using a sun glass to draw fire from the sun to ignite the records.

An Old Log Cabin.

His son Dr. Jarried was in the first graduating class at Athens. His decendants are numerous and respected.

Irwin County originally embraced part or all of the following counties: Worth, Wilcox, Turner, Ben Hill, Tift, Colquitt, Thomas, Cook, Brooks, Berrien, Lowndes, Echols, Clinch, Lanier, Atkinson, Coffee, Ware, Charlton, Jeff Davis, Bacon, Pierce and Brantly.

The county was organized in 1820. Within the boundary of originally Irwin County were quite a few pioneer settlers before the county was created coming from different sections, some from North Carolina, others from South Carolina and Virginia and quite a few from the older settlements in Georgia. The Indians were here, so when they came they were obliged to build block houses and fortified places called stands as oftentimes hostility with the Indians occurred. Wolves howled about the cabin doors at night, bear was plentiful, deer, turkey, fish and all other game were to be had almost for the taking. When these sturdy pioneers first laid eyes upon Irwin County it was a goodly land to look upon. An unbroken pine forest of original trees stately and majestic which would be a most beautiful sight to the people of this time and generation. In the forest could be seen wild deer and turkeys in droves, it being no unusual sight to see a dozen wild deer in a drove or as many as twenty wild turkeys in one flock. Vicious animals such as bear, tiger or catamount were numerous.

In that day living was easy in a way, but crude. To place the present generation in similar circumstances I fear that they would make an absolute failure. The necessities of life were few, markets were at a distance and luxuries of life such as we have in this day were unknown. The loom and the spinning wheel constituted the dry goods store. The mother of the family with other females of the family, if any, did the dying of the thread, the spinning and weaving of every bit of cloth to make the clothing for the entire family. The socks and stockings were home knit. Today a spinning wheel to spin the thread would be a novelty, and a loom to weave the cloth would be a curiosity. To go to the woods as our mothers used to do and gather herbs to dye the thread the cloth was made of would be a task the present generation could not perform as they would not know how to begin or what to gather to start the process. And if they had the material they would not know how to begin operations.

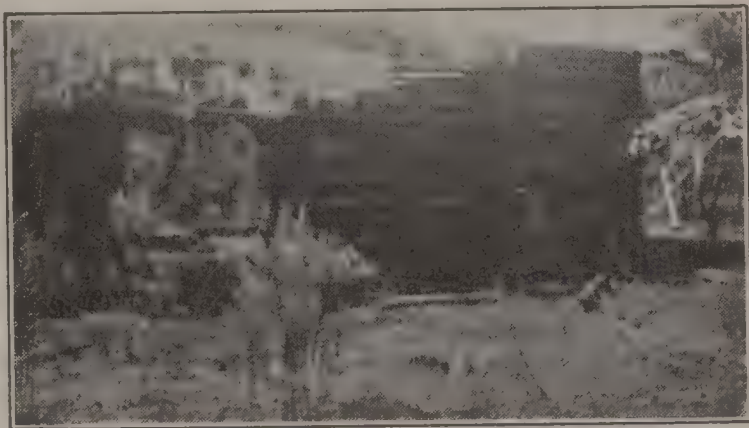

Stock raising was engaged in largely by the pioneer settlers of the county, the range for cattle was excellent, they thriving and increasing rapidly and many settlers having large herds. Sheep at first did not do so well until the country was rid of the ferocious animals which preyed upon them necessitating their being penned at night near the home for protection. In later years it was an ideal place for them and almost every one engaged in raising them. Many owned large herds which were very profitable.

I have not been able to learn the date of the first election held in the county for county officers; however, William Sloan was the first Clerk of the Superior Court serving from the organization of the county in 1820 until April term of Superior Court, 1837.

INDIANS.

When the first settlers came to Irwin County, they found the Indians here who for a great portion of the time were friendly. I have heard Mrs. Judy Whiddon, my grandmother, say they would often come to their house to procure milk or roasting ears or potatoes and if friendly before reaching the place they would conceal their arms, such as bow and arrows, muskets, etc., would appear unarmed, hold their hands up in token of their friendliness, state their wants and soon as provided for would quietly leave the place. Their wants were quickly appeased and no questions asked because the folks were glad to see them leave. If they were unfriendly they would appear with their weapons and upon being discovered, the family concealed themselves at once. The Indians were peculiar in many ways. If a white person did them an injury they would invariably seek revenge, oftentimes taking revenge on some white settler or family, twenty miles away who knew nothing of what had been done to them and was entirely innocent in thought or deed. As an illustration, in what is now Wilcox County, but originally Irwin, lived a man by the name of James Brown. He caught an Indian stealing a hog and shot him. The Indians did not molest Brown but went from there about five miles west of Ashburn, now Turner County, at least thirty miles away where lived a family by the name of Willis. The husband was away from home at the time and they killed his wife, mutilating the body severely and took a small baby by the feet and smashed its brains out on a stump. The settlers came together and gave chase, following them south out of the country. From that time until his death Mr. Brown went by the name of (Indian Jim Brown). The lady's name who was killed was Peggy Willis. The company following these Indians came up with them south of Ashburn on what is known as Hat Creek at a point not far from where the road crosses said creek leading from Irwinville to Inaha. In the company following the Indians was a man named Hobby who was riding a spirited young horse. The Indians were concealed in the swamps of this creek and a battle was fought. Mr. Hobby's horse became frightened and threw him in the creek where he lost his hat. The horse followed after the horses of the whites and when he appeared among them the whites thought Hobby had been killed but later on he appeared on foot bare headed and upon relating his experience the creek was then named Hat Creek, by which name it is known to the present time. The settlers followed the Indians from this point on, finally coming up with them at a point on the Albany road at a place now in Worth County, formerly Irwin, at a pond called the Wavering Pond, where a battle was fought and a majority of the Indians were killed or captured.

One of the old settlers, a Mr. Arnold, relates a story of the Switchie Indians coming from Louisiana when he was a small lad, camping some three or four miles southwest of Abbeville at a place called Breakfast Branch. After a short time the Indians became warlike and engaged the settlers in a skirmish in which Mr. Mark Wilcox was wounded and was carried out or back by Mr. Natt Statham. The Indians were routed and moved towards Abbeville crossing what is now the Dixie Highway at the Stubbs place in the city and thence east the old river ferry which is now replaced by a new river bridge on what is now known as the Jefferson Davis Highway. The Indians crossed the river in their birch bark canoes and continued on towards Eastman. This continues to bear the name of the Switchie Trail crossing of the Ocmulgee River. The Mark Wilcox referred to was one of the old settlers of originally Irwin County.

The last fight of note between the Indians and whites occurred March 9, 1810 on the south side of the Ocmulgee River about twenty-five miles south of Hartford and a few miles northeast of Bowens Mill, originally Irwin County but now Ben Hill County. On March 3, 1810, Joseph Burch and his sons were at work building a house on south side of the Ocmulgee River near Bowens Mill when the Indians appeared and began firing upon them, killing the father and severely wounded a son and thinking him dead they scalped him and left him for dead. The son revived and was able in two days' time to cross the river and reach the home of Mr. John Wilcox near where Temperance P. O. in Telfair County is located and was cared for by Mr. Wilcox and his family. On March 9th, thirty-six citizens of the community, mostly living in Telfair County, crossed the river to seek redress. Some distance from the river they discovered a band of Indians advancing within gun shot. Firing began by both parties and continued for sometime. A part of the detachment effected a retreat bringing off one badly wounded and four were killed. Major Cathorn was in command and was among the missing, four Indians were killed. Mitchell Griffin, State Senator from Telfair County, was among the killed and Mark Wilcox was wounded. During the year 1930 the chapter of D. A. R. at Fitzgerald, Georgia, erected a marker on the highway from Fitzgerald to Abbeville commemorating this fight. The encounter with the Indians took place northeast of the monument site but it was placed upon the highway where it was easy of access while to have placed it upon the exact spot it would have been inaccessible on account of gullies and underbrush.

From investigations I have made, I am assured that the Indians, in originally Irwin County, which sometimes were called the Switchie Indians were the Oswichee tribe and while at one time they had a settlement in Florida they migrated to Georgia setting up upon lands which later became Irwin County and that they later removed to Arkansas.

A tribe of Oswichee Indians once lived near the Ocmulgee River on land known in 1818 as Irwin County. There, towns were called Oswitchee and Ocilla and sometimes Ocichi. The trail that led out from these towns was called the Oswitchee Trail.

The French census shows that a town named Osochi existed there in 1750. A later census in 1832 gives Oswichee as the name of another Indian settlement close to Osochi. This town's name was changed seven times, first it was called by the Indians, Assile, next Aglie, Axilla, Agulil, Ochile and lastly Ocilla. On a very old map there was shown a creek which emptied into the Ocmulgee River which was called Ocilla River. Benjamin Hawkins called the towns Osochi, Ooseoche and sometimes both of the towns were known as Oswichee.

This town and Chiaha on the Flint River were the first to give of their old square grounds and to adopt the manners and customs of the white settlers. A trail was blazed by the Oswichee Indians to Ocmulgee fields, now Macon, on to the trading post at Augusta between the dates 1750 and 1832.

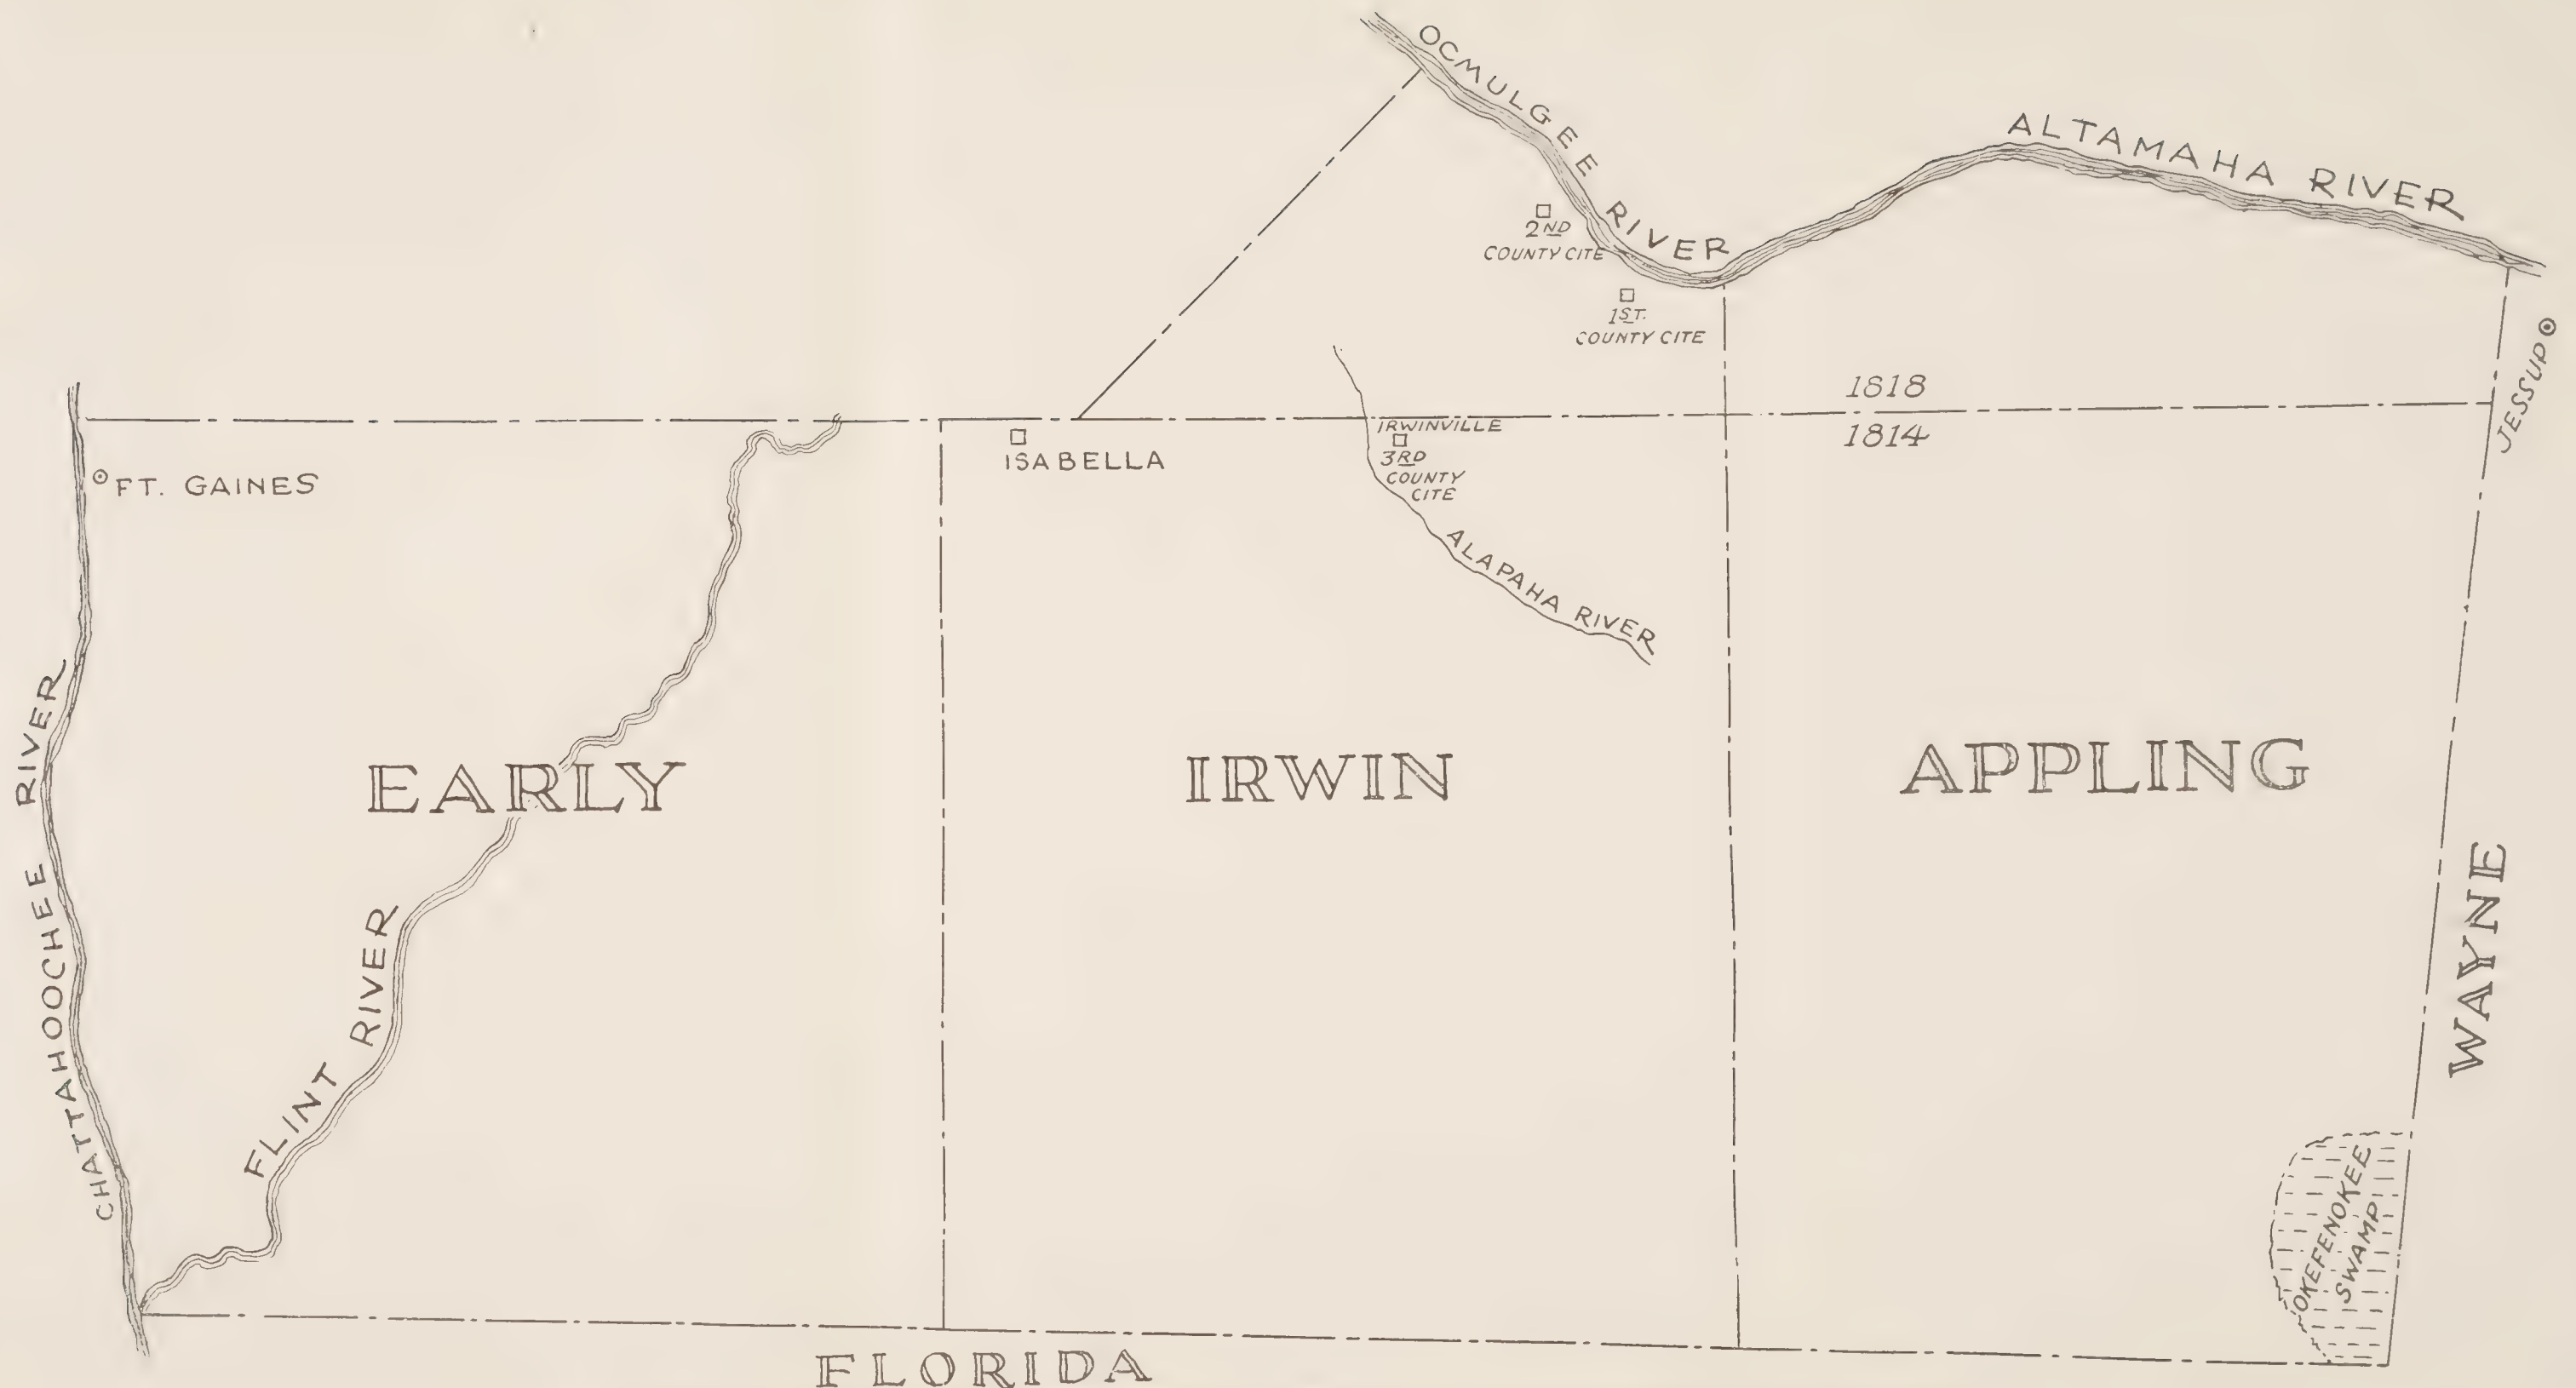

Desoto in his famous march through the United States in his search for riches in 1540 came through originally Irwin County stopping at the Indian village south of Abbeville and also at the village near Abbeville and was entertained by the Indians despite the fact of his arbitrary and dictatorial manner toward them.

In 1802 Georgia ceded to the United States all land between the Chattahoochee River and Mississippi, the United States binding itself to remove the Indians from Georgia reserved territory as soon as it could be done peaceable and on reasonable terms.

COURTS.

JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Hon. T. W. Harris of Twiggs County was the first judge of the Superior Court which was held at the house of David Williams who lived upon lot of land No. 147 of fourth district of said county in September, 1820. Irwin County was at that time a portion of the Southern Circuit. The Superior Courts of the county were supposed to be held twice each year and under the law the terms were on Thursday after the fourth Monday in March and September and the term of office of the judges of the Superior Courts was for a term of three years and were elected by the General Assembly and served until their successors were elected and qualified. When Irwin County was created there were only six Judicial Circuits in Georgia, to wit: The Southern composed of Twiggs, Laurens, Pulaski, Montgomery, Telfair, Appling, Irwin and Early. The Eastern composed of Wayne, Camden, Glynn, McIntosh, Liberty, Bryan, Chatham and Effingham. The Middle Circuit composed of Burke, Jefferson, Washington, Emanuel, Tattnall,

At the April term, 1828, the following was the presentments: "We the Grand Jury present Edward Pettes and Mary Leavens for living in a state of adultery. We recommend our commissioners to convene as quick as convenient and pick on our public site. We also recommend our Inferior Court to have roads cut for the convenience of our county. We also give our thanks to his honor, Judge Fort, for his sincere attention to the county, not forgetting our Solicitor-General for his good attention."

John S. Gilder, Foreman; William Bradford, Daniel Luke, Thomas Burnett, William Hall, Redding Hunter, David Calaway, Frederick Williams, Macaja Paulk, Daniel Drawdy, Jacob Paulk, Arnold B. Fussell, Robert L. Dixon, Elijah Hunter, James Stephens, John McInnis, James Burnett, V. Hollingsworth.

At the April term, 1828, the Grand Jury returned a True Bill against Isham B. Riggins for horse stealing which was the first bill for this offense. There being no jail in Irwin County he was confined in Pulaski County jail for safe keeping. The jail fees were forty-six and one-half cents per day. The defendant was tried, convicted, and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. The horse stolen was the property of David Williams.

At the October term, 1832, this order of the court appeared: "William Roberts having been intoxicated in the court yard and having disturbed the order of the court, it is ordered that he pay a fine of five dollars. Murdick Gillis having come into court and disturbed the order of the court and being fined five dollars for this disturbance and having acted in contempt of the officers and authority of the court in relation of the fine, it is ordered that he pay a fine of fifteen dollars in addition for said contempt."

At October adjourned term, 1835, the following order was taken: "John Benton, a Petit Juror, appearing on the jury in a state of intoxication, it is ordered that he pay a fine of five dollars."

At January term, 1836, John J. Underwood petitioned the Superior Court to be admitted to the bar to practice law. The court appointed Thomas C. Sullivan and William W. Wiggins, they being the only attorneys present, as a committee to examine him as soon as the business of the court would permit. He was admitted to practice law.

The Grand Jury at October term, 1831, recommended that the Inferior Court appoint Commissioners to lay out roads, the nearest route from Ocmulgee River to Lowndes County line, the road known as Coffee Road.

October term, 1830, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We have the pleasure to state to your honor that we have nothing to make presentments of at this term of court. His honor, Judge Holt, will please accept of our wishes for his prompt attention to the business of this court. We tender our thanks to the gentlemen of the bar for their polite behavior and strict attention to business during the present court."

Jacob Young, Foreman, Burrell Merritt, Lott Whiddon, Allen Pierce, James Paulk, Joseph Fletcher, Joseph Miller, Jacob Barrentine, John Paulk, Andrew McClelland, Samual Brown, Macaja Paulk, Sr., Jehu McCall, John Henderson, Redding Hunter, Daniel Drawdy, Ellenby Beasley, John McInnis.

At the Spring term, 1830, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "Having nothing of importance to make presentment, we congratulate our fellow citizens on the general good order, peace and harmony which prevailed in their community. The jury returns thanks to Hon. T. G. Holt, Judge, and Thomas Porter, Solicitor-General, for their faithful and prompt discharge of the duties of their offices during present term."

Ludd Mobley, Foreman; John Paulk, William Hall, William Bradford, John Dunham, Jehu McCall, Noah Griffin, V. Hollingsworth, John Henderson, Lott Whiddon, Miles Adams, Jacob Young, John Grantham, Emmanuel Knowles, Jacob Paulk, Robert L. Dixon, James Paulk, Joseph Fletcher, Silas McLendon, Alex McDaniel, Daniel McMillan.

At the April term, 1832, the Grand Jury after returning nine True Bills submitted following presentments: "We have not time to present our views upon the different subjects to which our attention was directed by the court at this term without an opportunity of considering matters of general interest. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Warren, we tender him our sincere thanks for the faithful and diligent performance of his duties at the present term."

Jacob Young, Foreman; Miles Adams, Silas McClelland, Burrell Merritt, Macaja Paulk, John McInnis, John Henderson, Joseph Fletcher, John Paulk, John Grantham, Lott Whiddon, John Dorminy, Elijah Hunter, Randall McDaniel, Daniel Drawdy, James Paulk, John McCall, George R. Ried, Daniel McMillan, John Tomberlin, V. Hollingsworth.

At the October term, 1832, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "The Grand Jury are happy that they have it in their power to state that they have no criminal offenses to make presentments at the present term. We cannot take leave of his honor, Judge Warren, without expression of our certain approbation of the impartiality and ability with which he discharges the responsible station with which he is assigned on the bench. To the Solicitor-General pro tem and the bar general we tender our good wishes for their courtesy to this jury."

James L. Wilcox, Foreman; Duncan B. Graham, Daniel Luke, Andrew McClelland, George Wilson, Reubon Gay, David J. Kersey, Elsy Beasley, James McClelland, Robert L. Dixon, Daniel Drawdy, Thomas Young, Macaja Paulk, Jr., James

Walker, John Willis, Joseph Fletcher, Ludd Mobley, Robert H. Dixon, Jonathan Smith, William Bradford.

At the October term, 1833, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "Having no special presentments to make and having gone through with the business intrusted to them during the present service in taking leave of his honor, Judge Warren, take the opportunity of tendering our thanks to him for the prompt discharge of his duties at all times since his election to the office he now fills. We also present our acknowledgment to the Solicitor-General, pro tem, for his courtesy to our body during the term."

Jacob Young, Foreman; Elijah Hunter, Samuel Brown, Thomas Wilcox, Joseph Miller, John Tomberlin, Lott Whiddon, David Branch, Charles Thigpen, William Sumner, Redding Hunter, Jehu McCall, Miles Fitzgerald, Jonathan Smith, V. Hollingsworth, David Collins, John McDaniel, Thompson N. Statum.

At the April adjourned term, 1835, the following presentments were submitted: "Having attended according to law for the present, take satisfaction in saying we have no presentments to make of a private nature. Owing to the absence of the County Treasurer at this term of court we have not been able to give any examination of his book accounts, etc. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Poulhill, we congratulate ourselves on the good order of the community and present our best regards for his impartial administration of the law and attention to the jury. We present our respect to the Solicitor-General, pro tem, Col. Franklin, for his attention to the Grand Jury during the present term. We cannot conclude these presentments without recommending to the Inferior Court the apportionment of a tax of twenty-five per cent. on the general tax for the purpose of building a courthouse and other buildings necessary to the administration of justice."

Jonathan Smith, Foreman; John Paulk, Jacob Paulk, Thomas Hunter, Thomas Young, Hezekiah Walker, Seaborn Bradford, John Henderson, William Bradford, Jacob Barentine, Frederick Griffin, Benjamin Willis, Elsy Beasley, Daniel Drawdy, John Dorminy, Jr., William Bowen, Joseph Fletcher, Andrew McClland, Cilaway McCall, Miles Adams.

There were no presentments from the Grand Jury from April, 1835, until April, 1838, when the following was submitted: "The Grand Jurors selected for the present term are happy to state that nothing comes within our recollection worthy of presentment. In taking leave of his honor, Carlton B. Cole, we tender him our thanks for his prompt attention to the discharge of the duties of his office during the present term. We also tender our thanks to the Solicitor-General, pro tem, for his polite attention to our body during this term."

April term, 1840, the Grand Jury presentments were as follows: "We have examined the books of several officers of the county and find they are kept in good order and reflect great credit to our clerk. We recommend that the Inferior Court levy an extra tax of 150 per cent. on general state tax for the purpose of defraying county expenses and relieving the county of debt. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Cole, we tender him our thanks for his prompt and efficient administration of justice and to the Solicitor-General for his attention to this body.”

Jacob Young, Foreman; Gabriel McClelland, Thomas Drawdy, Jehu McCall, Hezekiah Walker, David Turner, Absolum Baker, Lott Whiddon, Jonathan Smith, William Bowen, Solomon H. Kinyon, Macaja Paulk, James McGee, William Fletcher, Miles Fitzgerald, Wright Parker, Joseph Fletcher, Jacob Paulk, Thomas Smith.

The first bill of indictment for murder returned in Irwin County was against William Garrett, which bill was nol prossed. The record does not disclose who he was accused of killing.

Presentment of the Grand Jury, October term, 1840: “We present William Fussell for the offense of keeping open a Tippling House on the Sabbath on the twenty-sixth day of July, 1840, it being the Sabbath in the county aforesaid. Witness, Alex Mobley. We present William Fussell with the offense of keeping open a Tippling shop on the Sabbath on twentieth of September, 1840, in county aforesaid. Witness, Alex Mobley. We present William Fussell for the offense of retailing spiritous liquors without license in said county on twenty-sixth of July, 1840. We present Thomas Young, Mathew Merritt, Luke Merritt, Daniel Cary, William Akins and James Hall for the offense of riot committed in said county on fifth day of October, at the storehouse of William Fussell, by fighting together with sticks, knives and guns. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Cole, we tender him our thanks for the prompt and efficient manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office during present term and to the Solicitor-General, pro tem, John J. Underwood.”

tion and we recommend to the Road Commissioners a strict enforcement of the road laws against all delinquent overseers and defaulters. We recommend an enforcement of the patrol laws as they have been hitherto entirely neglected. In taking leave of his honor, C. B. Cole, we beg leave to say he has our entire approbation for the impartial and able manner he has discharged the duties of his office, also the Solicitor-General has our thanks for his attention to his business.”

William Bowen, Foreman; George Mobley, David J. Jenkins, Daniel M. Luke, Thomas Smith, Daniel Henderson, Benjamin Griffin, David Fitzgerald, William Fletcher, Lennard Stone, David I. Kersey, Henry Paulk, Joseph Fletcher, Thomas L. Wilcox, John Crawford, James Brown, James W. Smith, Joseph Sumner, Jacob Barrentine, Hezekiah Walker.

October term, 1841, the Grand Jury submitted the following: “In closing our duties, we beg to say that we are happy to say that no crime of importance has presented itself to us. We recommend to the commissioners of our public roads to see that overseers do their duties faithfully. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Cole, we tender him our thanks for the impartial manner he has and always does officiate in our county. The Solicitor-General has our thanks for his attention to this body.”

James L. Willcox, Foreman; Joel L. Durham, Allen Gibbs, Frederick Land, John Dorminy, David Troup, Elijah Hunter, Jesse J. Luke, Robert Newberry, Joseph A. Turner, John McCall, James Hodges, Henry W. Chestnut, Samual Brown, David Turner, James McGee, Jesse C. Sumner, John Willis, Miles Adams, George Spring, Abraham Mauldin.

April term, 1842, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We present as a great grievance and want of morality on the part of certain citizens of our county in violation to the Sabbath, but for want of sufficient proof to insure conviction of any individual we defer making any special presentment in this behalf and at the same time ask all good citizens to be vigilant in detecting violation of the law and make presentments at the next term of the court. On a slight examination into our county matters and particularly our treasury, we find it and them in bad condition. We therefore have appointed the following individuals to make a strict examination into the same and make full, fair and complete report to the next Grand Jury and we recommend the Inferior Court to allow them one dollar per day while they are in the discharge of that duty. Committee named, W. S. Moore, Jonathan Smith and James Paulk. We present to his honor, Judge Cole, our thanks for the impartiality and ability with which he discharged his duties. Also the Solicitor-General."

John Henderson, Foreman; Jacob Barrentine, Lott Whiddon, James W. Smith, James Hall, Jr., Miles Fitzgerald, Thomas W. Johnson, John W. Luke, David Branch, Henry Paulk, G. A. Sumner, Wells Matchett, Daniel Grantham, William Fletcher, John McMillan, Duncan McDermit, Joseph Sumner, David McAnnaly, A. P. Clements, Joseph C. Clements, Wiley Whitley, Daniel Henderson.

April term, 1844, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: "We have had under consideration the charge of his honor, Judge Cole, upon the subject of recommending the Inferior Court an extra tax for the purpose of raising a fund to educate the poor children of our county. We concur with his honor in the opinion that the education of the poor is among the first objects of a wise legislation and we confidently hope that the Inferior Court will not hesitate to assess a reasonable tax and that our fellow citizens will not murmur to pay it for an object so essential for the welfare of the community. We therefore recommend the Inferior Court to assess an extra tax of twenty per cent. for the above purpose. We have not been able to discharge the usual duty of examining the books of the different county officers as they are kept at Bowens Mill and have not been in the reach of jury. We therefore recommend the Inferior Court to discharge that duty at the next term of this court. We also recommend the Inferior Court to assess an extra tax of twenty-five per cent. for county purposes. We render to Judge C. B. Cole our thanks for the able and faithful manner in which he discharged his duty during present term and to Peter E. Love, Solicitor-General, we tender our thanks for his courteous attention to our body.

John Henderson, Foreman; Duncan McDermit, Benjamin Griffin, William Matchett, Abraham L. McCall, James Y. McDuffie, Daniel M. Luke, Robert Dewberry, Henry Paulk, A. P. Clements, Jeremiah Baker, Miles Fitzgerald, Joseph E. Clements, Lott Whiddon, Thomas Drawdy, David McAnaly, James Brown.

October term, 1844, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We earnestly recommend to the Inferior Court that such tax may be assessed as will enable the county to build a jail. We feel that this is absolutely necessary to the effectual administration of justice and we hope that no citizen will be found who will not readily assent to the propriety to this matter being immediately attended to. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Cole, we tender him our thanks for his prompt and impartial administration of the laws and also to P. E. Love, Solicitor-General, for his attention to this body."

At April term, 1845, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: "We find our public roads in bad order and understand on some there are no acting Commissioners. We recommend Inferior Court appoint some as soon as may be convenient and see that they perform their respective duties. We recommend also to the Inferior Court the propriety of considering the expediency of building a jail for the county. We allow Joseph M. Miller, Tax Collector, the sum of twenty-eight dollars and fifty-three cents on his insolvent list for the preceding two years on his general state tax. We also find he has overcharged nineteen dollars and twenty cents to Jerry Waggon. In conclusion, we tender our thanks to Judge Cole for his prompt and impartial administration of the laws and also to the Solicitor-General for his attention to this body."

George R. Ried, Foreman; James Brown, Thomas Young, Robert Newberry, Frederick Brown, Benjamin Griffin, George Spring, Wells Matchett, Daniel Henderson, William Fletcher, James L. Wilcox, John Willis, Jacob Young, James Hall, Thomas Drawdy, Jesse C. Sumner, Daniel Grantham, Lott Whiddon, Joseph Sumner, John Paulk, Frederick Land, Henry Paulk.

At this term of court the Grand Jury returned an indictment against Irwin Fitzgerald for the offense of selling spiritous liquors to a negro slave named Toney and other slaves. They also presented James Hall, Jr., with the offense of gambling with a slave named Joe, the property of Mark Mobley, at a game called seven-up or Negro Whisp.

At the April term, 1846, the Grand Jury found a bill of indictment against James Hall for murder. He was charged with having killed Thomas Young, who was the father of Rev. Jacob Young, a Primitive Baptist minister; the grandfather of Thomas B. Young and Mrs. Rebecca Henderson and the great-grandfather of Hon. Joe H. Young, D. J. and M. T. Henderson, and the children of D. J. Henderson, Sr., as well as being related to many of the prominent people of the county. Mr. Hall also has many relatives in this and surrounding counties. On account of this being the first murder case in the county as well as the prominence of the parties involved, I shall give as complete history as possible.

The following gentlemen composed the Grand Jury at the term of court the bill of indictment was returned, to wit:

David Branch, Foreman; Thomas Tucker, Macaja Tucker, Issac Powell, William Tomberlin, Redding G. Durham, Allen Gibbs, David McCall, David Fitzgerald, Jehu Fletcher, Daniel M. Luke, Joseph Clements, Henry Paulk, L. Moore Henley, James Boykin, William Ratherford, Archible McMillan, John G. Roberts, James W. Smith, J. L. Durham, A. P. Clements, Thomas L. Wilcox, Jehu McCall.

At December term, 1846, the following order was taken in said case: "It appearing to the court that there is no substantial jail in the Southern Circuit to which to commit the defendant and that the sheriff of Bibb County has refused to receive him into the jail of said county, it is ordered that said defendant be admitted to bail on his entering into recognizance with good and sufficient security in the sum of ten thousand dollars. This bond was later fixed at twelve thousand dollars. James J. Scarborough was Judge at the time the above order was granted." C. B. Cole and Hershell V. Johnson were attorneys for Hall. George Wilcox, Thomas L. Wilcox and Mark Wilcox were Hall's bondsmen.

At September term, 1848, the defendant, James Hall, failed to appear at court and his bond was forfeited. He appeared in court at March term, 1849, and moved to continue his case on the following grounds: "That James Hall, Sr., is a material witness and is absent, that he expects to prove by said witness that he was present at the time Thomas Young was killed and that Young came to the house of defendant on the morning of the alleged murder and commenced abusing the defendant and his wife and said that defendant's wife had been kept by her father. Witness told Young to go away for he did not wish to have any difficulty with him and told him he understood he had come there to kill him. Young said he would not go away until he pleased and that he would abuse the defendant and his wife as much as he pleased. Young had his rifle with him and when defendant went into the house, Young took up his rifle and had it in a shooting position and that the rifle was loaded and primed and he in the act of shooting, having his gun pointed at the door and cocked. That Seaborn Hall is also an absent witness and that he expects to prove by him that he heard Young swear before the difficulty that he intended to kill defendant, that witness informed defendant of this threat and advised him to be on his guard. That John Larkey is an absent witness and that he expects to prove by him that he heard Young say he intended to kill defendant a short while before the difficulty. That Hershell B. Johnson, one of his attorneys, is absent on account of sickness and that he is not able to employ other counsel. The case was continued and the defendant appeared at March term, 1849, and relieved bond of its forfeiture.

At this term of court he was committed to Bibb County jail for safe keeping, there being no safe jail nearer to commit him. This order was signed by James J. Scarborough, Judge.

At April term, 1850, the following order was taken: "The defendant, James Hall, having been confined in common jail of Bibb County in consequence of there being no safe jail in this county and it appearing there is now a safe jail in the county of Irwin, it is ordered that he be committed to common jail of said county to await his trial for the crime for which he stands charged." This order was signed by Augustus G. Hansel, Judge, April, 1850.

From this record it appears that the first jail in Irwin County was built in the year 1850 or thirty years after the county was organized, which speaks well for the early settlers as being law abiding, peace-loving citizens.

At April term, 1850, the defendant moved to continue his case for the reason he had just learned that Washington stayed all night at the home of Young the night prior to the killing, that Young told him he intended to go to the house of Hall next day and that he would kill Hall or Hall should kill him.

The next order in said case was taken at April term, 1855, which was a rule against James Hall, Sr., Emily Hall and John Larkey, as absent witnesses, requiring them to show cause at next term of court why they should not be attached for contempt. Signed, T. E. Love, Judge.

The defendant Hall was finally tried at October term, 1855. The following gentlemen were selected as a jury to pass upon said case:

Thomas Brantley, Richard Gibbs, Edward B. Mixon, John Mixon, Allen Gibbs, David S. Tripp, John Gibbs, Franklin Dixon, Henry W. Bedgood, George Williamson, Ben G. Glover, Henry A. B. Harvey.

After the case had been open, part of the witnesses sworn, the following order was taken: "Benjamin G. Glover, one of the jurors, having been taken very sick since he was sworn and being wholly unable to proceed with the trial, the defendant counsel proposed to counsel for prosecution to accept some one of the persons who had been rejected by the state. It was agreed to by both sides to take Irwin Davis instead of said Glover as a juror in said case." The evidence of William Pridgen and Joseph Hesters had already been taken and both of said witnesses being gone from the court that the written statement of their testimony be read and said case proceed regularly to trial.

C. B. Cole, A. E. Cochran, John S. Winn, Solicitor-General, Iverson S. Harris, Sewerd & Hansel, state's attorneys; H. V. Johnson, defendant's attorney.

The following was the verdict of the jury: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of voluntary manslaughter."

George Williamson, Foreman.

The sentence of the court was that defendant be remanded to common jail of Irwin County to be kept until demanded by guard from penitentiary and that he be confined in said penitentiary for a term of four years and that he pay all costs of prosecution. G. E. Love, Judge.

An order was granted at same term of court directing that a watch belonging to defendant in hands of jailer be sold to pay costs of said case. Dated October 31, 1856. The watch was sold and brought sixteen dollars and seventy-five cents, which was turned over to County Treasurer, Asa Rooks, Sheriff.

At April term, 1846, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: "We have not been able to examine the books of the county officers for the reason that they could not be obtained. We hope that the several officers will produce them to the next Grand Jury so that they may be looked into. The road between this and Jacksonville is in bad condition and we recommend the Inferior Court look into this and see that it is put in better condition. We have considered the subject of building a jail and on being desirous that one should be erected, but we think the best and surest plan to get one will be to have it done by private subscription which we will set about as citizens today and we hope that every man will subscribe. We recommend the Inferior Court appoint Commissioners and do whatever else may be necessary to secure the fund appropriated by the legislature in the education of the poor. We return thanks to the court and Solicitor-General for manners in which they have discharged their several duties.” David Branch, Foreman.

At September adjourned term, 1848, the Grand Jury had no presentments, accept the usual thanks to his honor, Judge Scarborough, and Solicitor-General, A. H. Hansell.

John Henderson, Foreman; David Herndan, Jesse Hobby, John Willis, Daniel M. Luke, James A. Turner, Wright Tomberlin, James Hollingsworth, T. N. Statum, George Wilcox, Thomas Paulk, George Paulk, Jeremiah Baker, William Fussell, David Troup, John B. Dorminy, John W. Wilcox, William D. Ross, David Fitzgerald, Henry Paulk, John A. Sutton, Abraham McCall, James Brown, Sr.

At the March term, 1849, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: “We recommend to the Inferior Court to have particular attention paid to our road laws and see that they are enforced. We also recommend the Inferior Court to levy a sufficient tax to raise money to pay for the erection and completion of a safe and good jail. We are happy to find that there has been no business of a criminal nature before us. And we see many evidences of an improving state of society in our county. The usual thanks to Judge Scarborough and Solicitor A. H. Hansell were returned. We recommend that these presentments be published in the Federal Union.”

Jonathan Smith, Foreman; Alfred Dixon, Jacob Young, Jesse C. Sumner, James Sumner, Abraham Mauldin, Jesse J. Luke, Elijah Hunter, David Branch, A. P. Clements, Thomas Tucker, David McCall, David Smith, Thos. L. Wilcox, Samuel Brown, Jacob Paulk, James C. Clements, George Spring, Allen

Gibbs, Henry Roe, Daniel Grantham, George Mobley, Wiley Whitley.

At September term, 1849, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "The contract for building a jail has already been taken and the jail is expected to be completed by the next term of this court. We have omitted to examine the books of our county officers in consequence of the action of the previous Grand Jury. We presume from the competency of the officers, they continue to be properly kept. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Scarborough, we beg leave to tender our congratulations for the faithful and impartial manner during his term of office which is about to expire and desire to express the wish that he may be returned to us again in the same capacity he now occupies. To Solicitor-General, pro tem, we tender our thanks for his courtesy and attention."

Jacob Young, Foreman; John Buchannon, David P. Luke, Isaac Smith, Jonathan Fountain, Elwen Handley, David Henderson, Elias Whiddon, Lewis Ball, Franklin Dixon, Benjamin Griffin, William Young, Benjamin Baker, William Curry, Stephen Bowen, Samuel Young, David Baker, Thomas Baker, Samuel B. Clanton, Micajah Paulk, Mans W. Smith.

April term, 1850, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: "We have examined the books of Clerk of Inferior and Ordinary Courts and find them correctly kept. We have examined the books of County Treasurer and find them neatly kept and a balance of $50.33 in his hands unexpended. We recommend to the Inferior Court to levy sufficient extra tax to repair the courthouse, to buy and procure good benches for the court room and a good table and benches for the Grand Jury room. We wish this to be attended to by the next term of this court. We recommend the Inferior Court to compel the magistrates in the different districts of our county to make a true return of the number of children in the several districts who are entitled to the benefit of the poor school law and to ascertain from the proper source the amount due this county from this state for the poor school purposes and that they make up the deficit if there be any, by taxation. We recommend that our Inferior Court enforce rigidly the road laws of the state. The usual thanks were returned to Judge and Solicitor-General."

John Henderson, Foreman; John Williams, Joshua Luke, Luke Merritt, Samuel Brown, Jeremiah Spring, William Akins, George Young, Solomon Tucker, Thomas Baker, Needham Bass, James Fletcher, Jesse Luke, Jonathan Walker, T. N. Statum, Joel C. Philips, Thomas Tucker, George R. Ried, Philip Gibbs, Asa Rooks, C. Phillips.

The following gentlemen served on Petit Jury at same term of court:

Isaac Young, John B. Dorminy, John Sumner, David Smith, Benjamin Willis, David Hunter, Abram Mauldin, Daniel B. Griffin, David Troup, Godfrey Purvis, James C. Luke, James R. Land, George Warren, Richard J. Young, John Walker, John Curry, George Paulk, Byrd Mobley, Jehu Fletcher, John Henderson, Jr., Joseph Covington, Isaac Young, Jacob Tucker, Isaac Rooks.

At October term, 1850, the Grand Jury recommended that Inferior Court furnish good seats in the lobby of the courthouse. We tender to his honor, Judge Hansell, our thanks for the able manner for which he discharges the duties of his office. We tender to the Solicitor-General, M. Sturges, for his attention to this body, our thanks.

Mickel J. Horn, Foreman; Stephen Bowen, David McCall, James Tomberlin, James Murray, David Bass, James Stone, George S. Spring, Joseph Roberts, George W. Giddens, John McInnis, Calvin Land, William Brown, Allen Gibbs, Abner Brown, L. M. Colberth, David McAnally, Benjamin Philips, Moses McCall, William Rogers, William Winderweedle, William Monk, Wright Tomberlin.

At October term, 1852, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We recommend to the Inferior Court to compel the various road commissioners in the county to discharge their duty by enforcing the road laws as the roads are generally in bad condition, especially the road leading from Irwinville to Jacksonville. Upon examination into our county funds we find the county indebted and but $45.00 in the hands of the Treasurer, these circumstances notwithstanding our county is in need of a more comfortable courthouse at this time. In taking leave of his honor, Judge Hansell, we present him our thanks for the ability with which he has discharged his official duty. We also tender our thanks to Frank Scarborough, Solicitor-General, for his attention to this body."

Smith Turner, Foreman; Jacob Paulk, George Mobley, Daniel Henderson, Jr., John McMillan, J. V. Hollingsworth, Isaac Young, Gabriel McCelland, James Tison, David Smith, Abner Brown, David Henderson, James Turner, Abram Mauldin, Archibald McMillan, Allen Gibbs, George Williamson, Solomon Watson, D. M. Hunter, Lyman Dixon.

At April term, 1853, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: "We find the records of the several offices kept in good style and in good order. The jail is in as good order as the character of the building will admit having been furnished with good new locks. Some of our public roads are in good order, others are not so good as they should be and we recommend the Inferior Court to strictly enforce the road laws. We find the county funds secured in good hands. We recommend the Ordinary of this county to look well to the subject of education of the poor and especially to the proper distribution to each district of the county so far as he can consistently by the law. This body from the short time allowed them have not time to consider the necessity of improving an additional tax for the purpose of education but feel authorized to say that education is a subject which our people are deeply interested and fully appreciate the recommendation of his honor, Judge Love, and have no doubt in saying that at a proper time the citizens of Irwin County will suitably respond to this benevolent purpose. The usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General, followed."

George Paulk, Foreman; Stephen Bowen, David Troup, Eli W. Thompson, Thomas L. Drawdy, Thomas L. Willcox, Hiram J. Newberry, George W. Warren, James K. Brown, David Fitzgerald, Jonathan Walker, Thomas King, James H. Dorminy, James Gibbs, William Philips, John Clements, J. W. B. Dorminy, Daniel S. Sumner, William J. Ammons, Jonathan Fountain, William McClauthan.

At October term, 1853, the Grand Jury submitted following general presentments: "We have taken into consideration the remarks of the Judge in reference to the opening of a large market road from Irwinville to the Thomas County line dividing the seventh district of this county from the eighth district of Thomas County and are happy to concur with his honor in his valuable suggestion and with a view to prompt activity in the counties of Thomas and Irwin we recommend the Inferior Courts of the two counties appoint three commissioners each to meet at such time and place as the Commissioners of Thomas so to be appointed may fix apart and notify the commissioners of this county that they may jointly proceed to fix upon the course of the road and place of union and take all necessary steps to mark out the respective road from the dividing line aforesaid of the two counties and when the service is performed and a report made by a majority of each respective commissioner to the Inferior Court of this county that said Inferior Courts be desired prompt action. We recommend these presentments be published in the Georgia Watchman at Thomasville, Ga.’’

Philips, Isaac Young, Hezekiah Walker, David Herndon, Jordan Roe, Perry Fitzgerald, David McAnally, Jeremiah Baker.

No Grand Jury presentments are of record from October term, 1853, till October term, 1855, when the following was submitted: “We have not examined the books of the county officers but feel satisfied that those officers have faithfully discharged their duty. Our time having been so much occupied with criminal business we have concluded to omit any mention of roads, bridges and public buildings with one exception which is simply to suggest that our Inferior Court by the next session of this court make provision for the comfort and convenience of the juries by providing seats in their rooms and facilities for meeting. The tax collector, David L. McCall, having returned in his list Fatima Linda Dred and Qu-man Bennett as free persons of color, through mistake, it appearing to us that they are of white blood; we recommend that said taxes be allowed and placed on the insolvent list. To his honor, Judge Love, and Solicitor-General, we return thanks for their attention to this body during the present session of this court.”

Smith Turner, Foreman; Eli Bedgood, Archibald McMillan, Burton Beasley, Robert McCook, Thomas Tucker, John E. McMullen, John Buchannon, John C. Tapley, John W. Fletcher, Malcolm McMillan, Enoch Pridgen, Lewis Ball, Stephen Bowen, Thos. Tucker, David Fitzgerald, John Ross, Darling Swain.

The following served on Petit Jury at same term:

Thomas Brantley, Allen Gibbs, Abram Myers, Lawson J. Smith, Azor Paulk, George Paulk, Jr., Leonard Slaughter, Thomas Franklin, Andrew J. Barton, Richard Tucker, Henry W. Bedgood, Richard Gibbs, Godfrey Davis, James Fletcher, B. Willis, Henry Tucker, James D. Willcox, Ben Tucker, Thomas Paulk, Dennis Tayler, Godfrey Purvis, John Jernigan, James Turner, Jr., Davis Tucker.

At April term, 1856, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: “We are happy to announce to the community a decrease in crime for we are forcibly reminded that no people can be happy while crime sits supreme when virtue alone should rule. We recommend a more vigilant devotion to the education of the poor children, for if our county is ever to occupy an enviable position with her sister counties who are more liberally endowed with wealth, it must and can only be by the intelligence and uprightness of her rising generation. Then are we not bound by ties as lasting as time itself, to foster this subject? We think we are and hope the Inferior Court or the poor school communities will give this subject their earnest attention. We recommend to the Inferior Court to have two dozen chairs for the use of the courthouse and procure a table for the Grand Jury room and seats for the jury. We regret to say that the Petit Jury have not received any pay for their service on court for the two last terms and hope the Inferior Court will take steps to have them paid as it is no more than right that they should have their pay. We recommend these presentments be published in Thomasville Watchman. The usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor are extended.”

Samuel D. Fuller, Foreman; George McCall, John W. Walker, Simeon R. Wilson, John J. Henderson, Benjamin Griffin, James Roberts, Willis Dorminy, George E. McCook, Stephen E. Turner, Samuel B. Stone, David Troup, Hezekiah Walker, Henry S. C. Harper, George W. Warren, Hardy E. Hunter, Femandiz Lovett, Thomas W. Johnson, Philip Gibbs, William Pridgen.

At October term, 1856, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We are happy to state we have attended to the interest of the county as diligently as we were able for the space of time we were allowed. We are happy in observing the decrease of crime in our midst and hope it may continue. We have examined the books of various officers and are pleased to find them kept in a neat and correct condition. Our roads need some repair and we hope the commissioners will speedily attend to this matter. We hope our people will be relieved of the high taxes they are compelled to pay, as soon as the debts of the county can be liquidated. We are aware that the people of Irwin County have had to pay large taxes, but it is better to suffer at this time than to sever the honor of the county, in the estimation of honest people. We recommend that the Judges of the Inferior Court be caused to be made seats for the jury rooms by the next term of our court. Presentments closed with usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

George Paulk, Foreman; Zara Paulk, Thomas L. Wilcox, Godfrey Purvis, James Fletcher, Elias Clements, Abram Myers, Azor Paulk, Miles Fitzgerald, Fred Tucker, James Gibbs, George W. M. Young, Micaja Tucker, Thomas Paulk, Archibald McMillan, William G. Dickson, Darling Swain, Micaja P. Young, Jacob Paulk, Jr., George G. Mobley, James Dixon, Wiley Whitley, S. B. F. Townsend.

At October term, 1857, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We have been busy in presenting to the county the many violators of the criminal law and regret the necessity of presenting so many, but we attribute a great deal to the recent excitement of the times, we yet hope there will be a decrease from this time out. As the spring term is generally the time when the Grand Jury look into the county affairs, we leave that duty to the next panel. We recommend that Inferior Court appoint commissioners to lay off a road from this place to Thomasville and to correspond with similar commissioners of Berrien, Worth and Colquitt counties as we are forcibly reminded of the necessity for the same. We recommend to Inferior Court to have some seats made and put into the jury rooms as our body has suffered from the absence of such. We recommend these presentments be published in Wiregrass Reporter at Thomasville, Georgia.”

James W. Smith, Foreman; Abner Brown, Robert McCook, William D. Ross, Enoch Pridgen, Martin Pollock, William Stone, James A. Turner, James Turner, Daniel McCoy, William Gibbs, John A. Handley, Philip Stone, Reason Paulk, David Fitzgerald, Elias D. McCelland, Abram S. McCall, James Roberts, Josiah G. Keen, John W. Walker, Robert Land.

At April term 1858, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: “We are happy to say to the county that the vigilance of the Grand Jury heretofore used have reduced our labors for this term, violators of the law have become more cautious or prefer a different locality for their conduct. We are pleased in stating that the various offices are kept accurately and neatly. Our courthouse we recommend Inferior Court have attended to in this particular, have seats and a table in the grand Jury room. We also recommend Inferior Court have the jail weatherboarded as it will protect the building from too rapid a decay. We also recommend that Inferior Court to assess a sufficient tax for county purposes and to pay the Grand Jury as is now provided by law. We regret to say to his honor, Judge Love, that a material witness who was summoned to attend the Grand Jury to be sworn before that body has gone off and the matter which we felt bound to investigate has been from absenting himself gone by unnoticed and we hope his honor will punish him for contempt and the witness’ name is Richmond Dees. We recommend these presentments be published in Wiregrass Reporter, Thomasville, Georgia.”

George Paulk, Foreman; Charles Roberts, James C. Sumner, James Boykin, William McDaniel, James Dorminy, George G. Mobley, William D. Ross, John W. Fletcher, S. B. F. Townsend, Aaron R. Chandler, Reason Paulk, John W. Walker, James T. Branch, Elias Clements, James Gibbs, George W. Walker, Thomas S. Rigdon, Elisha Tucker, Elias D. Whiddon, Henry S. C. Harper, Wiley Whitley, John Fletcher.

At October term, 1858, the Grand Jury submitted the following presentments: "We are happy in saying to the county that while our labors have been unceasing in ferreting out crime, we are of the opinion that there is a decrease of such. We have examined the books of the Ordinary, Judge Henderson, and are very happy in stating that they are kept in a neat and correct manner, showing to the county that while they have an honest official, he is in every respect competent and worthy of the gratitude of the people, his books are got up in an excellent style exhibiting much taste and judgment. We earnestly hope a greater attention will be paid to the poor children, for without they are educated we will never rise to that position which we fervently desire. The poor school commissioner has paid out every dollar he had in hand and has no account on hand for tuition unpaid. The patrol laws are nearly disregarded and we recommend the proper authorities to more strictly observe that subject. The roads are in tolerably good order having had a dry season, bridges have not been needed. We request our members in the legislature to oppose the formation of a new circuit. We recommend to Inferior Court to have a table and chairs provided for grand jury room. We recommend these presentments be published in Pulaski Times, Hawkinsville, Georgia. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

William G. Dixon, Foreman; Richard A. Smith, James Walker, Henry Paulk, Sr., Micajah Tucker, William Pridgen, John B. Dorminy, Hezekiah Walker, Jacob H. Paulk, Boney W. Fussell, Lyman Dixon, Jesse Hobby, Godfrey Purvis, Isaac Young, James Dorminy, David Troup, John Grantham, George D. Wilcox, G. J. M. Harper, John Ross, Thomas L. Wilcox.

At April term, 1859, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We have been as diligent in searching out violators of the penal laws of Georgia as possible and know of no violation unrepresented. We have matured a plan with the aid of our efficient county school commissioner, Judge Henderson, for the education of the poor children of this county but as it is not fully framed we are unable at this time to incorporate it in our presentments. We find all the offices in their usual good condition. We earnestly recommend to the favorable consideration of the Inferior Court the condition of our roads. We are happy in saying to the people that our county is in good financial condition and we recommend Inferior Court to assess such per cent. on state tax for county purposes as they deem proper. We recommend the presentments be published in Pulaski Times. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor."

George Paulk, Foreman; Archible McInnis, James W. Whiddon, John Buchannon, William D. Ross, Zara Paulk, Abram Myers, Frederick Tucker, Arron R. Chandler, Jesse J. Luke, George W. M. Young, Micajah Young, John W. Walker, Daniel G. McCoy, W. J. Mathews, Elias Clements, William McDaniel, Azor Paulk, John B. Mobley.

At the October term, 1859, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We have been busy noticing the violation of the penal laws, we hope they may be brought to merited punishment. We find our roads in good order. We hope the Inferior Court will not render it necessary for this Grand Jury to remind them that there are benches needed in the grand jury room and the court room. We think a new judicial circuit is needed to be composed principally of counties now embraced in the Southern Circuit and we earnestly request our Senator and Representative to use their best efforts in approaching legislature to have such new circuit formed and hope they will have the county of Irwin in such new circuit. We recommend that these presentments be published in Pulaski Times. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

John Ross, Foreman; James T. Branch, James Fletcher, Perry Fitzgerald, M. W. Paulk, Henry S. Townsend, Joseph A. Turner, Jehu Fletcher, William Hobby, Wiley Whitley, Daniel Henderson, Jesse C. Sumner, James Gibbs, Boney W. Fussell, Jacob H. Paulk, Robert Henderson, Jesse Clements, Isaac Young, John A. Tayler, David Troup, James McCook, John Grantham.

May term, 1860, the following presentments were submitted by the Grand Jury: "We have examined the books of Ordinary and find them neatly kept and take pleasure in recommending his worth and faithfulness as an officer. We also find the books of Clerk of Inferior Court and Superior Court well kept. We find our roads in bad condition generally and hope that steps will be taken by proper authorities to work them soon as possible. We find our public buildings in good condition generally except the jail. We recommend that a good lock be put upon the dungeon door. Also good hinges so as to make it perfectly safe. On education we recommend that a tax of ten per cent. be assessed upon the tax of 1859 for educational purposes. We recommend Inferior Court appoint a committee of three of the most punctual men for each district in the county and that it shall be the duty of each committee to visit his own district as often as twice each quarter. We recommend each district have its own treasurer to hold and pay out its own money and for the better carrying out of this arrangement we recommend Inferior Court and Ordinary make a division of common school fund to each district, that each district may receive its own funds and that said division be made according to the children in each district between the ages of six and eighteen years. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

William J. Mathews, Foreman; Archibald McInnis, James Turner, Richard Smith, James Luke, W. D. Ross, Archibald McMillan, John Buchannon, M. D. Mobley, Abram Myers, William McDaniel, John B. Mobley, Joshua K. Gray, John W. Walker, James Sumner, A. R. Chandler, W. G. Dixon, Azor Paulk, D. M. Hogan, James Whiddon.

November term, 1860, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We have not had time to examine our public record and finances but having the highest confidence in our public officers, believe our county records are kept in a correct style and manner. We have pleasure in reporting that our children between eight and sixteen years of age have been correctly returned by our Ordinary, not leaving any not returned, according to the census book of our county. Our public roads are in good traveling condition. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

George Paulk, Foreman; John Ross, James Fletcher, Lionia Lea, Jesse Clements, Daniel D. Henderson, Enoch G. Pridgen, Henry S. Townsend, James McCook, James T. Branch, Daniel G. McCoy, Frederick Tucker, S. B. F. Townsend, James C. Sumner, Reason Paulk, Wiley Whitley, Jacob H. Paulk, John B. Dorminy, Jesse C. Sumner, Asa Rooks, Isaac Young, Thomas L. Wilcox.

“There was no court held in Irwin County from November term, 1860, to November term, 1862, at which time the Grand Jury returned a bill of indictment against Elcana Bennett for stealing one cow, of the value of $18.00, marked crop split in one ear two under bits in the other. In taking leave of Judge Hansell, we tender him our thanks for his uniform ability in discharge of his duties, also to Thomas L. Tayler, Solicitor-General pro tem, for his attention to our body.”

Thomas L. Willcox, Foreman; Jehu Fletcher, Robert Cooper, John Ross, E. D. Hobby, Elbert Paulk, William Boykin, Jesse Hobby, Daniel W. Connell, James C. Sumner, R. W. Clements, George W. M. Young, Archibald McMillan, H. S. C. Harper, John Buchannon, A. R. Chandler, B. W. Fussell, Lamuel Horton, John P. Wright.

May term, 1864, the Grand Jury submitted the following: “Owing to the shortness of this term of court we have not had time to examine into our county matters as was made our duty but respectfully refer that business to our successors at next term of court as we have not time to do justice to the various matters devolving on us at present time. We find that the weights and measures belonging to the county are not in the clerk’s office. We recommend that proper authorities see that they are kept there as the law directs.”

Michael G. Fortner, Foreman; George Paulk, William Fussell, Asa Rooks, T. L. Willcox, Micajah Tucker, L. Leigh, Isaac Young, A. McMillan, G. E. McCook, A. Myers, M. Henderson, Green Dixon, M. W. Paulk, Joseph A. Turner, Lyman Dixon, John W. Walker, John Ross, James Fletcher, Joshua Gray, Zara Paulk, James Turner.

July adjourned term, 1866, the Grand Jury submitted the following: “We are happy to say while our county is to some extent scarce of provisions, yet we believe there is sufficient provisions to avoid suffering among the people. We are also happy to say that crime, to the extent that we had reason to fear, has not been made to appear and we congratulate the county upon the facts that so little has come to our knowledge. The books of the clerk and other county officers we defer until the regular fall term. Our roads are in pretty good condition and public buildings are in about as good condition as could be expected. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor."

Oliver H. Cook, Foreman; Thomas Tucker, W. G. Dixon, James W. Whiddon, J. T. Branch, G. E. McCook, Willis Dorminy, Jehu Fletcher, Sr., Jesse C. Sumner, Jr., James Paulk, Jr., John Buchannon, M. D. Hobby, J. W. Fletcher, Elbert Paulk, George D. Wilcox, Ashley Sumner, John Lyons, Jehu Fletcher, Jr., Elias Clements, James C. Sumner, Jesse Clements, John Grantham, B. W. Fussell.

At November term, 1866, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We find in the hands of the County Treasurer, twenty-three dollars, from sale of bank bills. We find roads of the county in bad order and recommend Inferior Court see that road commissioners do their duty and have the roads kept in better order. Also recommend the Inferior Court to have the courthouse and jail repaired. We recommend our legislature to abolish the county court as we think the county has derived but little benefit from it. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

J. J. Henderson, Foreman, Robert Henderson, Thomas L. Wilcox, William Dorminy, Isaac Young, Wiley Whitley, Jr., Thomas D. Wilcox, Lyman Dixon, Abram Myers, George Whitley, James McCook, Archibald McMillan, James Fletcher, Sr., Jacob R. McCook, Jacob Dorminy, John McMillan, Micajah Tucker.

May term, 1867, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We are pleased to state after diligent search we have been unable to find any crimes in our midst worthy of notice. We have examined a part of officers' books and find them neatly kept and find our county is wholly out of debt and we recommend Inferior Court to levy a very small tax for school purposes. We are at a loss to know what to say, our people are so reduced financially that they are unable to pay a tax sufficient to do any good, we therefore leave the matter with the Court ——. Our roads are generally in poor condition and we urge upon the court to have commissioners do their duty. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

O. H. Cook, Foreman; John Buchannon, Jacob Dorminy, A. R. Chandler, Elbert Paulk, John Grantham, John Fletcher, Sr., B. W. Fussell, Isaac Young, James Paulk, Jr., James C. Sumner, John Fletcher, Jr., James W. Whiddon, James T. Branch, A. Myers, M. D. Hobby, Willis Dorminy, James Gibbs, H. S. C. Harper, George E. McCook.

May term, 1868, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We recommend Inferior Court levy a tax of twenty per cent. upon state tax for educational purposes and ten per cent. for county purposes. We find the roads in bad condition and we hope they will be worked and carefully repaired as soon as the farmers can lay by their crops. At present time we think it imprudent to take them from their fields. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

Thomas L. Willcox, Foreman; R. W. Clements, B. W. Fussell, James McCook, John Buchannon, Thomas D. Willcox, D. M. Hogan, Elias Clements, William G. Dickson, John Lyons, Wesley Young, A. R. Chandler, James F. McBride, William Dorminy, J. A. Turner, Mark Pridgen, George E. McCook, Lyman Dixon.

November term, 1868, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We find the roads of our county in bad condition and recommend that they be worked. We recommend Ordinary pass the necessary orders to pay the jurors for their services from County Treasury. Also that the person who carries the election returns from the districts to the county site be paid two dollars each, per day, from same source."

Wiley Whitley, Foreman; B. W. Fussell, James Fletcher, Sr., Moses Peterson, Isaac Young, Mathew Barnes, A. R. Chandler, John McMillan, William G. Dixon, Jesse Bennett, George E. McCook, M. Henderson, Jr., Jacob McCook, J. W. Paulk, Thomas Tucker, B. W. Fussell, William Dorminy, John Lyons, J. O. S. Covington.

September term, 1869, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We have examined the books of county officers and find them well kept and think said officers are entitled to the thanks of the people for the improvement of this report. We recommend an extra tax of fifty per cent. on state tax for purpose of building a jail and other purposes. We also advise the Ordinary to draw order on Treasury for money sufficient to repair his office and furnish necessary books for the county. We are glad to say that our county is out of debt and about $400.00 in Treasury. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

James O. Farnell, Foreman; John J. Henderson, George Horton, Daniel Grantham, Thomas Cobb, Abram Myers, R. M. Cooper, T. T. Mauldin, Jacob Whitley, Godfrey Purvis, E. J. Watson, William Roberts, John Branch, Aaron Jernigan, Daniel Tucker, A. R. Chandler, B. W. Fussell, Isaac Young.

March term, 1870, the Grand Jury submitted the following: "We have inquired about our roads and find them in pretty fair condition. The courthouse we find kept in as good order as usual. We find the books of our county officers all pretty well kept, but the Ordinary has misplaced the book kept for record of bonds of retail dealers. We hope he will look it up for the benefit of all that may be interested in it. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

John Fletcher, Foreman; John W. Fletcher, A. P. Clements, Jesse C. Sumner, Wesley Young, M. D. Hobby, G. W. Whitley, William Roberts, Henry Young, William Paulk, W. G. Dixon, Thomas Goff, W. J. Dorminy, Ashley C. Sumner, A. R. Chandler, Marcus Luke, Micajah Tucker, Jacob Marchant, J. V. Fenn, William J. Clements, Azor Paulk.

September term, 1870, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We have examined the books of Ordinary, Clerk and Treasurer and find them in good condition. The roads are not in as good order as we should like and recommend that the commissioners attend to the same. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

James Paulk, Sr., Foreman; Thomas Cobb, J. T. Tucker, Jacob Whitley, William Roberts, Jr., John Walker, Daniel Purvis, J. C. Sumner, Richard Tucker, Daniel Tucker, David Clements, W. C. Gray, William McCook, Henry Tucker, H. S. C. Harper, A. Fussell, Daniel Grantham, William Mobley, John Branch, Byrd W. Fussell.

March term, 1871, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We find some of our public roads in deplorable condition and recommend the road commissioners and overseers to be more attentive to their duty and see that the roads are worked. In looking over the books of our different county officers we find them neatly kept and in a business-like manner, we therefore feel proud of them and give them praise for being so attentive to the business of the county. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

A. P. Clements, Foreman; David Branch, Robert Henderson, Elbert Paulk, George Whitley, J. W. Paulk, George Young, G. W. Horton, Wesley Young, John A. Smith, A. Mobley, Willis Dorminy, John F. Barton, T. D. Wilcox, James W. McCook, William Branch, A. Mobley, Jacob Dorminy, Stephen Cobb, Lyman Dixon, Jehu Fletcher, Sr., William Paulk, Jehu Fletcher, Jr., John Mobley.

March term, 1872, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We have examined through committees from our body the books of Ordinary, Clerk, Sheriff, Tax Collector and Receiver and find them neatly and correctly kept. The books of J. P. and N. P. and Ex. Off. J. P. have not been presented to us in compliance with recent legislation but the act has been so recently passed that we think it but due these officers to say that the omission of duty in this report we think to be from ignorance of the existence of said law. In compliance with recent act of the legislature in relation to establishing a system of schools in the state we report that we have duly elected J. J. Henderson and Micajah Tucker as two of Boards of Commissioners for four years each and Thomas Willcox, William Branch and Thomas Mauldin each for two years and we fix the compensation of said board for services at one dollar per day under said act. The compensation of Clerk of Superior Court and Sheriff for services we fix at twenty dollars each term of Superior Court or forty dollars a year for each and the compensation of the Ordinary for extra services in attending to county business we fix at twenty-five dollars. We recommend to the Ordinary that immediate steps be taken to repair the courthouse and properly enclose the same and that he let the same out by contract. Our roads and bridges we report in fair condition taking into consideration the amount of rain that has fallen during past winter and spring. And we report the financial condition of our county as being good. There is now in hands of Treasurer, $357.50, and we know of no outstanding liabilities of the county except those incurred during the present term. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

Jacob Dorminy, Foreman; John B. Mobley, W. B. Dorminy, J. V. Fenn, J. A. Smith, Thomas Mauldin, George Whitley, James Fletcher, Jr., James Gibbs, J. W. Paulk, A. Bass, W. J. Clements, J. C. Sumner, Jacob Marchant, W. G. Dixon, Wiley Fletcher, James Paulk, Jr., John W. Fletcher, John A. Branch, Willis Dorminy, H. C. S. Harper.

September term, 1872, the Grand Jury submitted following presentments: "We find our public roads with few exceptions in good order. We find our public buildings in fair condition. We have appointed from our body, George Young, to inspect our county records and report in writing, their condition, at the next term of court. We examined docket of J. P. for 982nd district which we find to be fair and correct and we hereby notify all other Justices and Notaries Public in the county to present their dockets at the next term of this court for inspection as the law directs. We recommend Treasurer pay sheriff thirty dollars for services for present term, also pay Clerk twenty dollars for his services at present term.

"We are pleased to have among us at this term of court the old hero, Gen. Philip Cook, and we hope other voters in the district will do as we shall, give him their unanimous support at the November election and that too as a gift offering to his merited ability and imperishable record and we shall ever deem it an honor to shake that left hand warmed with the bounding blood of a still warmer heart and may success always attend him. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General."

John J. Henderson, Foreman; James J. Luke, A. R. Chandler, John J. Sumner, Jacob R. McCook, Anderson Fussell, George E. McCook, William Roberts, John Grantham, Jr., Reason Paulk, Cornelius Clements, Jr., M. W. Paulk, James Hutchinson, John Fletcher, Sr., Thomas Goff, James T. Branch, Aaron Jernigan, Jr., E. G. Pridgen.

March term, 1873, the Grand Jury presented the following:

“We find the public roads in the county are in good order, the bridges across the creeks in fair condition and kept up by the road hands. We find that George Young was appointed by the Grand Jury at the last term of court to report to this body the condition of the county finances together with the Treasurer’s books, who makes following report: That the Treasurer’s books are correctly and neatly kept, that he has properly disbursed the public funds of the county and has the proper vouchers of same in his office, that all the debts of the county are paid to date and that there remains in the hands of County Treasurer, $520.30.

“We hereby appoint the said George Young to examine the books of the Clerk of Superior Court and Ordinary of the county with instruction to report the result of his examination to the next Grand Jury.

“We hereby appoint Thomas D. Willcox, William O. McRae, M. Henderson and J. J. Henderson as school commissioners for this county. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General.”

James Paulk, Sr., Foreman; George Whitley, Daniel Purvis, Jacob Marchant, J. C. Sumner, James Barnes, John B. Paulk, F. Tucker, Enoch Shiver, John A. Smith, James Tucker, M. D. Hobby, Azor Paulk, H. S. C. Harper, L. Story, James A. Ross, Columbus Luke.

September term, 1872, the Grand Jury submitted the following: “Mr. George Young, who was appointed at previous term of court to investigate and report to this body the condition of the books of Ordinary, Clerk and County Treasurer, reports the same to be in good condition, properly and neatly kept, thereby reflecting great credit upon present incumbents of said offices. We find from said report that there is now over $300.00 in the County Treasury and no debts against the county. We recommend that George Young be paid two dollars per day, for three days’ service rendered in the investigation of said books. The Justice of Peace for second and fifth districts presented their dockets for examination which we find in good condition and properly kept. We find our public roads in rather bad condition but owing to the recent storm believe their present condition unavoidable. Reposing great confidence in our highly respected fellow-citizen, James Fletcher, Jr., we hereby appoint him to fill vacancy in Board of County School Commissioners. We recommend that twenty dollars be paid the Clerk and thirty dollars to the Sheriff for extra services rendered at this term of court. We recommend that these presentments be published in Hawkinsville Dispatch. Usual thanks to Judge and Solicitor-General.”

J. J. Henderson, Foreman; Daniel Tucker, George E. McCook, Isham Swilly, Mathew Fussell, Richard Tucker, Byrd W. Fussell, Jacob Whitley, Sr., A. McMillan, Jacob Whitley, William O. McRae, Elbert Fletcher, George W. Hamons, Robert Henderson, Thomas McMillan, James Fletcher, F. E. Walters, G. E. Gray, David Clements.

The Grand Jury at March term, 1874, appointed Mr. George Young to examine the books of county officers, fixing his salary at two dollars and fifty cents per day and limited his time to two days' service.

At March term, 1876, James Paulk was appointed to examine county records and make reports to each September term Grand Jury.

CRIMINAL CASES.

From the spring term, 1830, to spring term, 1835, there were five criminal cases. From Spring term, 1835, to Spring term, 1840, there were fifteen criminal cases disposed of. From 1840 to 1845, sixteen. From 1845 to 1850, twenty-two. From 1850 to 1855, there were fifty-four cases placed upon the docket. From 1855 to 1860, there were fifty-seven criminal cases placed upon the docket. From 1860 to 1870, nineteen. From 1870 to 1875, forty. From 1875 to 1880, sixty-nine. From 1880 to 1885, eighty-nine. From 1885 to 1890, sixty-one. From 1890 to 1892, one hundred.

CIVIL CASES.

From 1821 to 1825, there were eighteen Civil cases placed upon the docket. From 1825 to 1830, forty-two. From 1830 to 1835, sixteen. From 1835 to 1840, thirty. From 1840 to 1845, one hundred and ten. From 1845 and 1850, one hundred and two. From 1850 to 1855, eighty. From 1855 to 1860, one hundred and forty. From 1860 to 1865, thirty-one. From 1865 to 1870, twenty-three. From 1870 to 1875, seven. From 1875 to 1880, ten. From 1880 to 1885, forty-six.

JURY COMMISSIONERS.

Under the law it was the duty of the Inferior Court to revise the jury boxes, which was done by them until about 1868, when the Legislature passed an act which was approved February 15, 1869, entitled an act to carry into effect the second clause of thirteenth section of fifth article of Constitution, which was to provide for appointment of a commission to be known as jury commissioners. Acting under this law the judge of the Superior Court, Hon J. R. Alexander on February 24, 1869, appointed Jacob Young, John Buchannon and R. W. Clements, jury commissioners. The following gentlemen have been appointed jury commissioners for Irwin County from that date up to present.

March term, 1872, R. W. Clements, Reason Paulk, T. D. Willcox.

At the March term, 1873, this order was taken, "It having been shown to me that R. W. Clements, one of the jury commissioners has been elected clerk of Superior Court for said county, it is ordered that James Paulk, Sr., be appointed in place of said Clements."

March term, 1876, Reason Paulk, T. D. Willcox, James Paulk.

March term, 1878, John L. Mixon, in place of Reason Paulk, deceased.

December 24, 1878, James Paulk, Sr., T. D. Willcox, John L. Mixon.

March term, 1880, J. C. Sumner, D. M. Hogan, M. W. Paulk; John J. Henderson, T. D. Willcox and John L. Mixon.

April term, 1882, D. M. Hogan, William Branch.

March term, 1884, M. W. Paulk, John J. Henderson.

March term, 1886, T. D. Willcox, James Paulk Sr., J. W. Whiddon.

April term, 1888, C. L. Royal David Hogan, L. L. Harper, William Branch.

October term, 1889, J. R. Allison.

October term, 1891, David Ewing.

October term, 1892, David Ewing and J. A. J. Henderson.

April term, 1894, J. W. Whiddon, L. J. Prescott, R. W. Clements and C. L. Royal.

April term, 1896, H. W. Bussey and Jacob Dorminy.

April term, 1898, J. A. J. Henderson, H. D. Tayler, David Clements.

April term, 1900, David Clements, James M. Barns.

January term, 1901, W. W. D. Branch.

March term, 1902, H. W. Bussey.

March term, 1904, J. A. J. Henderson and Fred J. Clark.

June 25, 1906, David Clements, M. Dixon, Marcus Fletcher, Wiley Whitley Sr.

July 7, 1908, Wiley Whitley, I. J. Bussell Jr., W. L. Lenon and Joel J. Harper.

July 17, 1912, J. A. J. Henderson, W. Lenon, O. V. Purvis and David Clements.

August 2, 1916, M. Paulk, Marcus Fletcher, J. A. J. Henderson and J. E. Howell.

April term, 1918, J. B. D. Paulk, J. B. Clements.

January 1, 1920, M. Paulk, Marcus Fletcher, J. Y. Paulk.

August 21, 1926, J. E. Howell, L. R. Tucker, J. B. Clements, J. Y. Paulk, Need Harper, Joe Fletcher.

August 20, 1928, J. E. Howell, L. R. Tucker.

January 1, 1930, J. Y. Paulk, J. B. Clements.

At the March term, 1878, the Grand Jury recommended that the Ordinary purchase an iron safe of proper size and capacity to protect from fire and other dangers such books and records belonging to the county deemed of value. The safe was purchased and shipped to Alapaha, Georgia, the nearest railroad station and Hon. S. B. Dorminy was employed to haul it to Irwinville, a distance of twenty-five miles.

At September term, 1878, J. L. Jones, alias T. B. Jewett, was arraigned for trial charged with simple larceny to which charge he plead guilty, whereupon he was sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years. The record does not disclose the nature of the larceny but judging from the length of the sentence he must have been accused of horse stealing.

At September term, 1878, the Grand Jury recommended that representative of the Legislature introduce a bill changing time for holding Superior Court from Friday to Monday after Superior Court in Wilcox County.

At March term, 1879, the Grand Jury recommended that the representative Hon. James B. Fletcher, introduce a bill in the Legislature in July next, to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor at any point within the limits of Irwin County. This bill was introduced and passed and the sale of whiskey was not indulged in, in Irwin County, openly before 1895. In 1906 another bill was passed prohibiting the sale of liquor in Irwin County, or placing a tax of $20,000.00 thereon.

There was a bill of indictment returned against William Fletcher for misdemeanor, which indictment was quashed for the reason that there were not eighteen men on the Grand Jury who were not related to him. The entire Grand Jury box was exhausted trying to find eighteen men who were not related to him to pass upon the matter but they could not find them and the matter had to be abandoned without investigation.

At March term, 1880, the Grand Jury in their presentments said, "We have considered the question of building a new courthouse for the county and we recommend that the Ordinary levy a tax sufficient to raise $500.00 for the year, 1880, and that this sum be reserved as a special fund for the erecting of a courthouse when a sufficient amount shall have been collected from year to year for said purposes.

At the April term, 1881, the Grand Jury recommended that five dollars per month be paid Sally Mobley, colored, as a pauper; she being the only pauper in the county. At the same term the Grand Jury recommended the levy of a tax sufficient to raise $600.00 for building new courthouse. They also reported there were six hundred and thirty-six white children and one hundred and sixty-one colored children of school age in the county; that during the year, 1880, two hundred and seventy-seven white and eighty-eight colored were in attendance of school. The school fund for that year was $789.28 and there was paid out of said fund $770.96.

At October term, 1881, the Grand Jury recommended that the Ordinary correspond with a reliable and competent architect and submit plan and estimate of the costs of new courthouse. The county is in need of a courthouse building and we believe that a new building should be erected as early as the finance of the county will justify the work.

The books of the various county officers were examined by committees for past several years who were paid five dollars for said service.

At April term, 1882, a bill of indictment was returned by the Grand Jury against James Gibbs, charging him with voluntary manslaughter. He killed James Fletcher, the son of Jehu Fletcher, with a club. Both families were prominent. Gibbs was placed in jail at Irwinville and Jacob Young was employed to guard the jail which he did for quite a while. Gibbs was finally tried, the first trial resulting in conviction of manslaughter. His case was taken to the Supreme Court and he was granted a new trial. At second trial he was acquitted.

James B. Fletcher built a pontoon bridge out of square-hewn logs across the lake on the Alapaha River, where the public road leading from Ocilla to Tifton crosses said river, about 1880 or 1881. The Grand Jury recommended that he be paid $100.00 on said bridge. Fletcher did all the work and that was the only pay he received out of the county.

In presentments of 1882, October term, appears the following information: Number of white poles in the county, 441; colored, 101; total, 542; total value of all taxable property, $567,589.00. From same presentments appears the following: The new courthouse funds amounts to $1800. The building of a courthouse we deem of absolute necessity and we therefore place the work in the hands of a building committee as follows: second district, B. H. Shivers; third district, R. W. Clements, fourth district, Green Dixon; fifth district, M. Henderson, sixth district, Jehu Fletcher. We entrust this work to the above named citizens, feeling satisfied that they will look after the interest of the county in this important matter. And we recommend that they proceed with the building of a courthouse at the earliest practical time.

At the October term, 1883, the Grand Jury presentments state that the building committee on new courthouse had contracted with A. B. Shipley to build said courthouse, two stories, forty by fifty-five feet, offices and vault downstairs, courtroom and jury room upstairs at cost of $4,085.00.

At April term, 1888, the Grand Jury recommended that a bridge be built across the Alapaha River two miles west of Irwinville at Albany ford and appointed R. W. Clements, J. W. Whiddon and John Walker, Commissioners, to have same constructed. Plans and specifications were prepared, contract advertised for and W. R. Glover was awarded the contract. The bridge was built during the year 1889, was of wood and was seven eighths of a mile long, it cost $3,236.00. This bridge was a great convenience to the traveling public. Before it was built the only way to cross the river was to ford it and often times it was swimming to a horse.

At the March term, 1884, the Grand Jury recommended that a sufficient number of horse racks be erected to accommodate those who were compelled to attend court.

In 1886, a local registration law for Irwin County was passed.

At January term, 1885, David Ewing, E. R. Smith and D. J. Henderson were appointed county registrars.

January 11, 1889, E. R. Smith, David Ewing and D. J. Henderson, appointed.

January 26, 1891, Jacob Paulk, D. J. Henderson and David Ewing, appointed.

September term, 1893, A. E. Clements, appointed.

March term, 1904, B. A. Brown and J. B. Senior, appointed.

At April term, 1907, Robert L. Henderson, John D. Paulk and E. G. M. Fletcher, appointed.

At March term, 1910, John D. Paulk, George F. T. Dixon, John R. Clements, appointed.

May 26, 1910, E. G. Fletcher, appointed.

March 30, 1912, John D. Paulk, O. N. Harper and E. G. M. Fletcher, appointed.

April 20, 1914, E. G. M. Fletcher, John D. Paulk, H. B. Harper, appointed.

March 21, 1916, E. G. M. Fletcher, Henry King and Joel J. Harper, appointed.

June 11, 1918, E. G. Fletcher, Henry King and J. J. Harper, appointed.

February 12, 1920, E. G. M. Fletcher, Henry King and J. J. Harper, appointed.

August 2, 1922, Joe H. Little, J. J. Harper and E. G. M. Fletcher, appointed.

February term, 1924, J. W. Pierce, appointed.

April 19, 1927, J. J. Harper, J. H. Little and J. W. Pierce, appointed.

At February term, 1930, J. W. Pierce, C. R. Roberson and Lott Paulk, appointed.

At the October adjourned term, 1891, a bill of indictment was returned against King Clark, for murder. He was convicted at the October adjourned term, 1892, and sent to the penitentiary for life.

At the October adjourned term, 1893, the Grand Jury returned a bill against Reese Coleman, for murder. He was tried and was acquitted.

At November term, 1897, Bill Haskins, was tried for murder and found guilty and recommended to mercy. His sentence was to the penitentiary for life.

At the November term, 1898, the Grand Jury presentments state that on account of increase in business of this court we find it impossible to transact all the business of the court in one week. We therefore request our member of the Legislature to introduce a bill, changing our fall term of court so that it will convene on fourth Monday in October and following Monday of each year, so that at fall term we will have two weeks court instead of one. In our judgment, with this change, the business of the court can be kept up.

At April term, 1899, the following appears in general presentments. Upon examining reports of our County Commissioners, M. Henderson and Supt. R. V. Handley, we recommend the continuance of county chain gang, subject to approval of Grand Jury at Fall term, 1899, in the matter of employing our convicts on public roads of this county. The progress made so far we feel will be of great value to our traveling public when the roads are completed and we recommend that bridges be constructed at once over large streams where they are most needed. It having come to our knowledge that our County Solicitor, W. F. Way, pleads guilty to the charge of gambling, we regret exceedingly this act and severally condemn the same.

This was the first chain gang created in Irwin County and is still in existence, making many improvements in our roads.

At April term, 1900, Ike Farmer, was tried for murder and found guilty and recommended to mercy. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

At January term, 1901, Clements Royal, was tried for murder of a man named Luke and was acquitted.

At September term, 1901, W. H. Brown, was tried for murder and was found guilty with recommendation for mercy and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Lucy McFail was tried for same offence and found not guilty, also Wilber Whitiaker was tried for murder and found not guilty. Tom Whitiaker was tried for murder and found guilty and recommended for mercy. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

In 1901, a suit was filed in Superior Court against the American Tribune Colony Company, for receiver. The receivership was granted and J. B. Clements, W. R. Bowen, T. S. Price and Sidney Clear, were appointed permanent receivers. They proceeded to sell and dispose of all the assets of the company and wind up the affairs thereof directed by the court.

At the March term, 1902, John Furlong, was tried for murder and was acquitted. Tom McFail was also tried for murder and found guilty and recommended for mercy and was sentenced to penitentiary for life.

At the April term, 1903, Ben Palm was tried for murder; was found guilty and recommended for mercy and was sentenced to penitentiary for life.

At September adjourned term, 1904, Jehu Smith, was tried for murder of a man named Henderson; was found guilty and recommended for mercy and sentenced to penitentiary for life.

From presentments of Grand Jury for the year, 1903, there was raised in taxes $36,453.42 and there were paid out $33,045.88.

At the March term, 1905, the Grand Jury returned a true bill against John Land, charging him with murder. He was charged with killing his father, Robert Land, by shooting him with a double-barreled shotgun in the back. The trouble started over some trivial matter and the evidence showed his father was running from his direction when the shot was fired. The witnesses were largely the family of the deceased. At the trial the defendant was found guilty and recommended to mercy and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life. A motion for new trial was made and on October 21, 1905, an order was passed by Judge J. H. Martin, as follows: It is not possible at this time to dispose of a motion for new trial and it also appearing that defendant is confined in jail of Irwin County and that the law-continued confinement is likely to cause serious injury to the health of said defendant; it is ordered that defendant John Land, be taken from Irwin County jail and be confined in penitentiary of Georgia, until motion for new trial in said case can be disposed of and until further order of the court in the premises. The motion for new trial was withdrawn and sentence of the court was carried into effect. The defendant finally got out of the penitentiary and was later killed.

At September term, 1905, Romie Williams, was indicted and tried for the murder of Mr. Elisha Thompson. He was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced to penitentiary for fifteen years. New trial was granted by the Supreme Court and the case was remanded to Tift County Superior Court for final adjudication.

At this term of court a bill of indictment was returned against Reason Handley for murder. He was charged with killing his wife by putting strychnine into her food. He was tried at the September adjourned term, 1906, convicted and recommended that he be imprisoned for life. He was sent to penitentiary and served until during the year, 1929, he was pardoned by the Governor and is again a free man.

At the September term, 1906, Seab Riles, was indicted for murder and found guilty of involuntary manslaughter and sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years.

At this term of court a meeting of the bar was held indorsing Judge Martin's administration as judge of Superior Court, also stating he had practiced law in this county before his elevation to the bench for more than a quarter of a century and it was a pleasure to testify to his worth, as a man, a lawyer and a judge, and we part with him reluctantly and feel that Irwin Superior Court will not be the same without him.

Signed, Tom Eason, L. Kennedy, E. D. Graham, H. J. Quincy, A. J. McDonald, E. W. Ryman, L. M. Burns, Z. Bass, Attorneys.

At September term, 1907, the following order was taken. It appearing to the court that the County Commissioners of Irwin County have provided a suitable building for the holding of the September term, 1907, of Irwin Superior Court in Ocilla in said county, to which place the county site of said county was recently removed, by an act of the General Assembly of Georgia: wherefore it is ordered and adjudged that said Superior Court be held in said building so provided and designated in said city of Ocilla. Given under my hand and official signature in open court September 2, 1907. U. V. Whipple, J. S. C. C. C.

For the year, 1907, there was collected in taxes the sum of $25,949.55.

At March term, 1913, the Grand Jury made this recommendation: "We recommend that our Representative, J. B. Clements, introduce and endeavor to have passed a bill to abolish the city court of Ocilla and in lieu thereof to have such Legislation enacted as will in his judgment best meet the needs of the county." They also recommended that he pass a bill abolishing three County Commissioners and pass bill creating one Commissioner.

At April term, 1915, the Grand Jury put in operation the law creating a Board of Health for Irwin County and appointed Dr. Aubrey Harper, Health Physician.

On March 12, 1917, under an act of the Legislature providing for the creation of Juvenile court in certain counties of the State, Judge Crumb, designated the Court of Ordinary of said county as the Juvenile Court of the County of Irwin.

In August, 1917, the Legislature passed an act transferring Irwin County from Cordele Circuit to Tifton Circuit.

December 28, 1920, James Whitley, appointed Judge of Juvenile Court for three years.

April term, 1927, James Whitley, appointed Judge of Juvenile Court.

SLIGH CASE.

At the November term, 1928, the Grand Jury found a bill against Harry K. Sligh, for arson. On the night of the residence of Harry K. Sligh, about three and one-half miles north of Ocilla on the highway leading from Ocilla to Fitzgerald, was burned. Mr. Sligh and family had been away from home on a visit but Sligh himself returned home the afternoon prior to the burning of his dwelling. It was supposed at the time that Mr. Sligh perished in the burned building as what was thought to be the burned torso of a human being was found in the ruins of the dwelling. An inquest was held over the remains gathered out of the burned building, which was supposed to be Sligh, and it was prepared for burial and sent to Seneca, South Carolina, his former home, where it was interred as the remains of Harry K. Sligh.

Sligh was heavily insured with double indemnity clause in the policy and after his supposed death in the burned building an effort was made by the representative of his estate to collect this insurance. This effort was resisted by the insurance company upon the grounds that proofs of death in the burned building had not been established to their satisfaction. Detectives were employed to make an investigation. Quite a while after the building was burned, Col. Sam Castlewitch of Miami, Florida, who was a former acquaintance of Sligh received a letter from him in reference to the collection of the insurance policy. This letter, very properly, was turned over to the insurance companies and the efforts of the detectives to locate Sligh were increased. Finally their efforts were rewarded by locating him in Los Angeles, California, where he was residing under an assumed name. The sheriff of Irwin County was furnished the necessary warrant and requisition paper and he had Sligh arrested and brought him back to Irwin County for trial for the offense of arson. But the evidence not being sufficient, he was acquitted. Sligh claimed that on his return home, prior to the burning, that he overtook near Macon, Georgia, three young men walking and upon being asked to let them ride he told them he could accommodate only one as his car was a roadster. One of the trio, a young man by the name of Harry Loving, from Huntington, West Virginia, was allowed to ride with him, where he was invited to spend the night. Sligh claimed, that sometime during the night he was awakened by Loving having him in a tussle, that Loving had a pistol trying to subdue and rob him, that in the scuffle the lamp was turned over and the house caught fire. He claimed he succeeded in escaping from Loving and fled from the burning building. He also claimed that he lost his mind and did not regain it until he reached California when, as he was riding in a car with an old couple, his mind returned. He stayed there for quite a while, going under an assumed name, until his arrest and identification by people from Georgia who knew him.

From developments, at his trial for arson and additional facts secured, he was indicted for the murder of Harry Loving and was tried for this offense at November term, 1929, of Irwin Superior Court and the evidence seemed of such a nature he was promptly convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court but the judgment of the lower court was sustained. He is now in the penitentiary serving a sentence for life.

The Messrs. Hoover, the companions of Loving when Sligh picked him up for the ride were also indicted for murder and brought back to Irwin County for trial but the evidence was so weak against them until they were turned loose.

The body taken from the burned building which had been buried in Seneca, South Carolina, as that of Sligh had been disinterred and brought back to Georgia and was present at the trial. After examination by medical experts it was pronounced to be the body of a young man. This torso after the trial was claimed by the mother of Loving and carried to West Virginia, for burial.

This case attracted attention all over the country and was widely discussed not only through local sources but by newspapers of the whole country.

At February term, 1930, James Whitley, appointed Judge of Juvenile Court.

At the April term, 1888, Charlie Tayler was tried for murder and found guilty, recommended to mercy, and sent to the penitentiary for life.

CHAPTER 4.

MASONIC LODGES.

The first and oldest masonic lodge in original Irwin County, was Irwin Lodge, number 212, which was granted a dispensation in 1856, by the grand master and later was granted a charter with the following officers to wit: B. B. Ransom, Worshipful Master; Joshua A. Luke, Senior Warden; George Young, Junior Warden; and the following brethren to wit: George Paulk, D. J. Fenn, L. McCall, M. G. Faulkner, L. M. Colbert.

In 1858, the following were the officers of the Lodge: B. B. Ransom, Worshipful Master; David L. McCall, Senior Warden; George Young, Junior Warden; George Paulk, Secretary; D. J. Fenn, Treasurer; R. R. Ransom, Senior Deacon; L. M. Colbert, Junior Deacon; John E. McMullin and Thomas Tucker, Stewards; Asa Rooks, Tyler; and the following members to wit: William Hobby, L. G. Young, J. J. S. Young, P. M. Young, Thomas Paulk, M. G. Faulkner, J. A. Luke, Samuel D. Fuller, Willis Dorminy, F. E. Walters, Jesse J. Luke, James Fletcher, R. W. Clements, and R. M. Griffin.

In 1859, the following were the officers, to wit: B. B. Ransom, Worshipful Master; D. J. Fenn, Senior Warden; George Young, Junior Warden; L. L. Colbert, Junior Deacon; Thomas Paulk, Secretary; R. W. Clements, Treasurer; J. A. Luke and S. D. Fuller, Stewards; R. R. Ransom, Tyler; and the following members: M. G. Faulkner, B. D. McCall, Micajah P. Young, Lawson G. Young, W. Hobby, A. P. Clements, Thomas Tucker, Willis Dorminy, George D. Wilcox, M. Henderson Sr., John Fletcher, James W. Whiddon, James Fletcher, Asa Rooks, J. J. Luke, L. Horton, F. Walters, W. D. Ross, T. B. Lanier, A. R. Chandler and B. W. Fussell.

In 1860, the following were the officers: D. J. Fenn, Worshipful Master; F. E. Walters, Senior Warden; M. Henderson, Junior Warden; A. P. Clements, Treasurer; R. W. Clements, Secretary; L. M. Colbert, Senior Deacon; Asa Rooks, Junior Deacon; A. R. Chandler and L. Horton, Stewards; W. Hobby, Tyler. Members: S. D. Fuller, R. R. Ransom, Thomas Tucker, R. M. Griffin, J. J. Luke, G. M. Fletcher, George Paulk, J. A. Luke, B. L. McCall, James Fletcher, Willis Dorminy, L. G. Young, George Young, M. P. Young, George D. Willcox, John Fletcher, J. W. Whiddon, W. D. Ross, T. B. Lanier, Samuel Young, John Ross.

In 1861, the following were the officers: D. J. Fenn, Worshipful Master; F. E. Walters, Senior Warden; M. Henderson, Junior Warden; A. P. Clements, Treasurer; R. W. Clements, Secretary; L. M. Colbert, Senior Deacon; Asa Rooks, Junior Deacon; A. R. Chandler and L. Horton, Stewards; Rev. W. D. Ross, Chaplain; William Hobby, Tyler. Members: Thomas Tucker, J. J. Luke, George Potter, Jr., J. A. Luke, D. L. McCall, James Fletcher, Jr., Willis Dorminy, L. G. Young, George Young, M. P. Young, George D. Willcox, John Fletcher, James W. Whiddon, Samuel Young, S. B. F. Townsend, and Rev. John Ross.

When the Civil War broke out all the members of the above lodge except those who were too old, enlisted in the Confederate army and rushed to the seat of war ready to lay down their lives in defense of a cause they believed just and sacred. Many were killed in battle, others died from disease and exposure and at the close of hostilities there was not a sufficient number of the members left to carry on, so the Lodge's Charter was surrendered. Later on, lodges were constituted at Isabella, in Worth County, Abbeville, in Wilcox County and Nashville, in Berrien County, all of which was originally Irwin County.

In 1885, a new lodge was constituted at Irwinville, Georgia, number 315, which is still in existence and has been the mother of more lodges than almost any other lodge in this section. The following lodges in their constitution drew upon this lodge for some of its members to wit: Tifton, number 47, Sycamore, number 210, Bethel, number 515, Pinelevel, number 353, at Fitzgerald, Ocilla number 374, Rebecca, number 464.

The following were charter members of Irwinville Lodge, number 315: William M. Gibbs, Worshipful Master; Jonathan Smith, Senior Warden; John J. Luke, Junior Warden; John Walker, Senior Deacon; Cornelius Clements, Junior Deacon; David M. Hogan, Treasurer; R. W. Clements, Secretary; E. A.

Johnson, Tyler. Brethren: W. J. Clements, Lemuel Tayler, Z. T. Player and Rev. O. D. Mulkey.

This Lodge was constituted by Brother John A. Tomberlin, Past Master of Western Light Lodge, number 272, on November 28, 1885.

The first election for officers was held December 10, 1885, and the following brethren were elected. William M. Gibbs, Worshipful Master; Jonathan Smith, Senior Warden; John J. Luke, Junior Warden; David M. Hogan, Treasurer; R. W. Clements, Secretary; E. A. Johnson, Tyler; John Walker, Senior Deacon; W. J. Clements, Junior Deacon; Rev. O. D. Mulkey, Chaplain; Z. T. Player and Lemuel Tayler, Stewards.

Each member of the Lodge paid into the Treasury $8.50 on a fund to be used as a building fund for building a lodge hall.

On December 10, 1885, the lodge received the first petitions for membership, that of L. D. Tayler and David Clements. David Clements was the first one to be initiated, which occurred on January 9, 1886. L. D. Tayler was the second to be initiated, which occurred February 13, 1886. This lodge continued to prosper and has resulted in much good in the surrounding country. At the present time there are five lodges in the county, to wit: Waterloo, Abba, Ocilla, Lax and Irwinville, all in a good and flourishing condition.

CHAPTER 5.

CIVIL WAR HEROES.

At the beginning of the Civil War the whole South was one vast military camp and her gallant sons were gathering to rush to the scene of war ready to lay down their lives in a cause they felt to be just and sacred. Irwin County was no exception to the rule, as no community could boast of more loyalty to the Southern cause. While other sections might have been more densely populated, none were braver and more loyal than the sons of old Irwin. The following is a list of the soldiers who went from this county. The first company was Company A, known as the Irwin County Cowboys. J. Y. McDuffie, Captain; George Willcox, First Lieutenant; J. J. Henderson, Second Lieutenant; William Mathis, Orderly Sergeant; Jacob Clements, Corporal.

COPY OF LETTER FROM R. W. CLEMENTS, A CONFEDERATE SOLDIER, TO HIS OLD FRIEND JEHU FLETCHER, WRITTEN FROM THE CONFEDERATE CAMP, MAY 16, 1862.

Goldborough, N. C.

May 16, 1862.

Mr. Jehu Fletcher,
Dear Friend:

I, this evening avail myself of the opportunity of writing you a few lines which leaves me in the enjoyment of better health than I've enjoyed since I've been in camp. I have not been able to drill five days since I've been in camp. I received your very kind letter of April 9, today and was glad to hear that you were still improving in health and glad to hear that your family was well, but I was sorry to hear of the hard times in old Irwin but it has turned out about as I expected so far. Isaac M. Young, Joseph R. Sumner, William Fletcher, George A. Luke and your son, Joseph, arrived here today about 12 o'clock. I went to Col. Manning as he is the commander-in-chief of the Regiment at this time. Col. Lane left here yesterday on furlough to go home for ten days. I went to him and done all I could to get Joseph in your place, but it was all in vain, he informed me that Joseph could join this company or else bear his expenses home and be subject to the conscript law but he told me if you would send a man that was exempt from the conscript law that was sound, he could take your place, if not you would have to come yourself immediately. I think if you are not able to do military duty if you will come and undergo an examination you will get a discharge, as they have discharged several men from this regiment and some men have come here since the conscription law became enforced and brought substitutes and paid them as high as $500 to take their places.

I will now tell you something about the condition of our company. We have four men in Augusta. Benjamine Watson died in Augusta a few days ago and we have some sick at a place called Wilson in this state and several in the hospital in Goldborough and 12 sick in camp, they have not recovered from the measles and mumps. John Roberts is sent to the hospital and says he has the rheumatism, he limps very bad in walking. G. W. Haymans was sent to the hospital this morning, he has disease of the liver so the Dr. says. There is 200 returned sick in the Regiment every morning upon an average so the Adjutant told me this morning, our men are not dangerous but it appears they can not get hearty. Twelve or fifteen of them has been in the hospital over a month and I can not tell how much longer they may remain there. Give my respects to all inquiring friends. Please say to Mr. Fenn to write me if his bond is for P. M. yet or not, I wrote him today but forgot to mention it. Tell Jacob to write me as I am going to write him a long letter in a few days. Believe me to still remain yours as ever,

Signed, R. W. Clements.

Joseph has concluded to join this company.

CHAPTER 6.

INDIAN TRAILS.

Early Roads Through Irwin County.

One of the oldest trails or roads through originally Irwin County was the Thigpen Trail. This trail is located in what is now Worth, Colquitt and Thomas counties, which was originally Irwin County. It crosses the public road leading from Sylvester to Albany, Georgia. At this point, Bernard Trail Chapter, D. A. R., Sylvester, Georgia, have erected a beautiful marble marker. This road was built by James Thigpen, of North Carolina, who was overseer of highways in 1704 and it traversed North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida and made a direct route to Pensacola, Florida. Its principal object when first opened up was for military purposes. Troops used this road from North Carolina to Georgia during the Revolutionary War. It was later used as a stage road from Albany, Georgia, to Tallahassee, Florida, and also for the few settlers to transport salt to different points in South Georgia. An old friend and neighbor of mine, Mr. Joel Culpepper, has a stick of pine timber upon which is one of the original axe blazes, made in the growing pine tree, when this road was first marked out over 200 years ago.

In these early days the historical spots were located around Indian mounds, trading posts, ancient relics and wars.

According to Jones' history of Georgia, DeSoto spent the winter of 1539 and 1540 near where present city of Tallahassee is now located. In the early Spring of 1540, he crossed the Ochlochnee River near Hadleys Ferry in Grady County, originally Irwin, and marching on in a northerly direction on left side of Ochlochnee River, in the latter part of March, 1540, reached Irwin County, passing through to the northern part of the state stopping at an Indian camp on the Ocmulgee River and passing on and crossing the Ocmulgee River near Abbeville at another Indian camp which was in Irwin County.

When the bill to create Early, Irwin and Appling counties was pending in the legislature, certain gentlemen in the legislature opposed the creation of these counties for the reason that they were opposed to building roads therein for the cause that they objected to spending the state's money trying to develop a country which God Almighty had left in an unfinished condition.

It is regretted that these gentlemen could not be here at this time to see the country they alleged was left in an unfinished condition by the Almighty, if they were they would be compelled to admit that it was finished and that it is the garden spot of Georgia.

In the early days there were various Indian trails through Irwin County. There was one trail leading from the Kennard settlement on Flint River near Albany and near the western line of Irwin County leading to the Ocmulgee River which passed through Irwin County crossing the Alapaha River near what is known as the Ten Mile Trail.

FREAKS OF NATURE IN IRWIN COUNTY.

Capture of Jeff Davis.

The Bostwick Case, etc.

The Ross Lake.

On the western side of the Alapaha River in Turner County, originally Irwin, near where Deep Creek flows into the Alapaha River, is a large lake, probably being three-fourths of a mile long and one-fourth of a mile wide, abounding with all kinds of fresh-water fish. At the eastern extremity of this lake is a high bluff, probably 150 feet high, and at the foot of this bluff is an underground waterway which continually flows; this waterway is probably twelve feet square at top but much smaller where the water enters the rock passage-way. When an extremely dry season occurs, sufficient to keep Deep Creek from flowing water into this large lake, it naturally becomes gradually lower in depth and if the dry season continues long enough all the water in the lake disappears and the lake bed becomes perfectly dry. So soon as the lake becomes low enough to warrant it, the people gather and catch the fish with seines and nets and other devices. I have witnessed the catching of the greatest quantity of fish at this place of any and the catch would continue for a week, each day, before all the water would disappear, furnishing great sport for all who would attend.

Mr. Joseph Fletcher, one of the pioneer settlers of Irwin County, being a stock raiser, on one of his cow hunts was in the neighborhood of this lake hunting cows and he discovered any quantity of buzzards and upon going to investigate what these buzzards were after he discovered this lake. It was a dry season and the water had all disappeared from the lake leaving quantities of fish on dry land which were decaying and it was for the decayed fish the buzzards had gathered. It is called the Ross Lake and is on lot of land number 121 in second district, Irwin County, Georgia, and is named for Mr. W. D. Ross, one of the pioneer settlers, who owned the lot of land upon which the lake is located. At present time it is owned by Mr. Daniel Davis of Ashburn, Georgia.

Coleman Pond.

There is a similar lake only not quite so large upon lot of land number 107 in third district, Irwin County, owned by the writer of this sketch, called Coleman Pond, named for a man by that name who in the early days owned it. This lake has an underground outlet similar to that of Ross Lake but much smaller which allows the water to leave it when the seasons are dry. These lakes go dry at intervals from three to seven years. This lake, like the Ross Lake, abounds with quantities of freshwater fish, and when it becomes low enough to fish, furnishes great sport and plenty of good eating for those who are fond of fish.

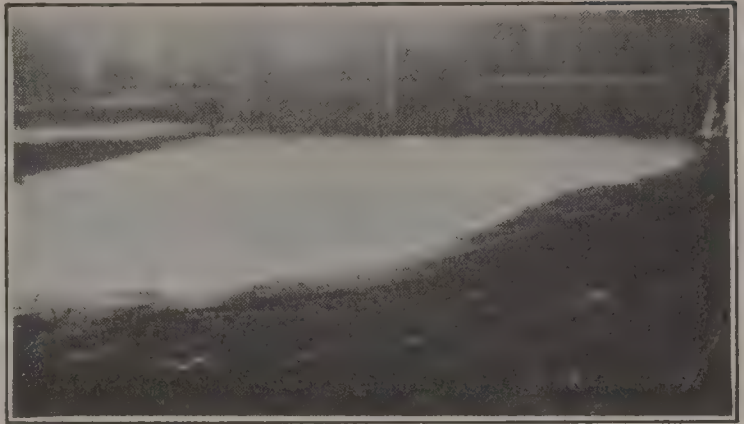

Coleman Pond.

The Rock House.

On the western side of the Alapaha River on lot of land number in second district, originally Irwin County, now Turner County is another freak of nature. There is a large depression or hole about three hundred feet long and one hundred fifty feet wide; it is almost round and this depression or hole is probably two hundred feet deep and in the bottom of this depression is a rock house some fifteen feet square. This house is of rock and was not built by man, but by nature. God made it so. It is rather steep to walk down to this rock house but it has been visited by many for ages past and is still a show place and visited by many people. Many have written or chiseled their names upon the rock walls of this building. William Hamilton, a large cattle owner in Irwin County in the early days, was the first man to write his name on these stone walls, and he has been gone to his eternal reward many years.

In the early days my mother's father, Mr. Lott Whiddon, lived about two miles from this place and being on a hunt one day, he shot and killed a bear at this point, the bear fell in death at the edge of the depression. His rendezvous was probably in the pit where the stone house is located.

The Bone Pond or Crystal Lake.

On lots of land number forty-seven and forty-eight in third district of Irwin County, owned by Dr. W. L. Story of Ashburn, Georgia, is located one of the most beautiful bodies of water in all of this South Georgia country. It covers about one hundred acres of land, is away from any stream of water; no water course empties into it except one small spring which does not afford sufficient water to maintain this lake, which is evidence that it is supported by hidden underground streams. This lake is seventy-five feet deep, in the deepest place and has a beautiful sandy bottom and except at two places is shallow from the edge gradually becoming deeper for from thirty to fifty yards before it becomes deep as a man's head. It is surrounded by a beautiful sandy beach and back of this is a perfectly dry hammock covered with oaks with beautiful foliage and attached to these trees are long streamers of gray moss. The water is crystal clear and has been analyzed to be pure. It abounds with all kinds of fresh-water fish which can be viewed from the banks or the pavilion, coming to the surface to gather bread when thrown into the water for them. It is one of the most beautiful and most healthful resorts for bathing, boating, picnics, etc. The name of this place is Crystal Lake. Its name in the early days was the Bone Pond, named after a man by the name of Bone who once owned it. Bone came to Irwin County about 1858, and the next year he moved to Crystal Lake and cleared a small farm. A man by the name of John Mathews cultivated this land for Bone.

During the Civil War two escaped Federal Yankee prisoners took refuge at Bone's home and he protected them. They remained hidden in the hammock on southwest side of the pond and cleared about twelve or fifteen acres of hammock land for Bone. During the time they were at Bone's place they went to the farm of Hon. MaNassa Henderson, Sr., about twelve miles away and stole two of Henderson's horses. Everybody thought Bone instigated this theft as Henderson was a Secessionist and Bone a Union man. Daniel Henderson and others secured the trail of the thieves following them into what is now Coffee County and come so near overtaking them until the Yankee thieves fled leaving the horses which were captured and returned to the owner. One of the thieves stopped some distance farther on and committed another theft and was killed by his pursuers.

Bone was relieved from going to the war because he was a miller. He, having a steam corn mill on the bank of Crystal Lake. At the time Bone built this mill at the lake it was much smaller in size than at the present time. Where his mill was located at that time on dry land the water is five feet deep at present time. It is said that after Bone's death in 1865, the lake rose up to the eaves of the mill house, then in a few years it remained low for a number of years, but in 1928 and 1929 it gradually began to rise until at present time, 1930, it is as full as any of the old citizens have ever seen it, but is now on a standstill.

Bone proved to be a criminal of the vilest kind. In the spring of 1865, Toney, a negro slave belonging to Mr. Sam Young, ran away from home and went to Bone and he concealed him in the same hammock he concealed the Yankee horse thieves, and put him to work cutting growth off his newly cleared land.

Mr. Jack Walker was Justice of Peace and the neighbor of Bone, living about three miles west of the Alapaha River from Bone's place. Walker owned a large stock of hogs, many of which ranged near Bone's plantation in the swamp. He left home on Monday morning about April 20, 1865, carrying a wallet of corn, as was customary in that day, also his rifle gun, looking for his hogs to feed them and incidently to kill a deer for provision. In looking for hogs he went by Bone's hammock field and found the negro, Toney, there. Walker was a strong man so he decided to capture the negro. In doing this he got into a scramble with the negro but from the sign left on the ground Walker had the negro down and was preparing to tie him when he was shot from ambush.

Night came and Walker did not return home. The neighbors were notified and went in search of him but failed to find any trace. The news was spread of Walker's disappearance and the people turned out en masse to search for him. Wednesday came and still no trace of Walker could be secured.

Wednesday was mill day at Bone's mill. Dink Walker, a son of Jack Walker, and James H. Fletcher went to the mill. Bone spoke to them and told Dink Walker he had heard his father was missing and also said, I've heard that they say I killed him. Bone also talked very rough to Walker. A short while after this, Bone was taken into custody. He refused to tell his captors anything. Bone had two children, Mary and Tayler. Tayler was a boy about fourteen or fifteen years old. He was taken away from his father and was told by his captors that they believed he knew where Walker was and that the whole crowd would be hung unless he told all he knew about it. Tayler replied, "If you'll not hang me, I will tell you how it all happened." He was assured that if he would tell the truth and tell all about it that he would not be hurt. This is about what Tayler said. "Daddy carried the negro's dinner and called me to bring his gun which I did. The negro and Walker were in a scuffle and Daddy shot Walker from the gap of the field and hit Walker but did not kill him. Daddy went to Walker while he was down and hit him on the head with his gun until he thought him dead. He and the negro then took Walker up and carried him to an old bay north of the pond and buried him and his gun in the mud. I don't know what became of the negro."

The people who were there searching for Walker went to the field and found the sign of the struggle, found blood on the fence where Bone had crossed it with Walker and went into the swamp and found where he was buried. Evidently he was buried alive as his hands had worked upward through the mud and blood had come to the surface. Walker's body was taken to the pond and they attempted to cleanse it by washing but this could not be done, he having been dead so long decomposition had set in to such an extent the body could not be cleansed, the skin would burst and come apart. The negro Toney has never been seen or heard from. It was the supposition at the time that Bone killed him and put his body with weights attached in the deepest part of the pond.

All the people in the country had gathered to assist in the search for Walker. It being about the close of the war many soldiers had just returned home from the army. The best people of the county were there. They organized by electing Rev. Jacob Young, a Primitive Baptist minister and a former judge of Inferior Court, as chairman or judge and organized a court of justice and proceeded to try Bone for the murder of Walker. After hearing the evidence he was promptly and properly convicted and sentenced to be hung.

A scaffold was erected on the edge of the pond under a large oak tree with a large limb extending out over the newly erected scaffold.

Ropes in those days were scarce. Mrs. Jemimah Hogan, wife of David M. Hogan, had spun and woven a rope to use around a bale of cotton in place of ties and this new rope was used to hang Bone. All things being ready for the execution, John and Sam Walker, sons of the murdered man, were permitted to tie the hangman's knot and Sam Walker was allowed to climb the tree and place the rope over the limb, which he gladly did. Then Bone was made to mount the scaffold and told that he had fifteen minutes to make any statement he desired. These were his last words, "Take warning from me and don't come to what I have." He moved and the scaffold fell and launched Bone, the murderer, into eternity.

A grave was dug in the jamb of the fence of one of Bone's patches at the northwest corner of the pond and when the grave was ready, Bone's wife sent or brought a sheet with the request that his body be wrapped in it, which was done and the body was placed in the grave.

After Bone was hung, his wife told a Mr. Pridgen that Bone, after killing Walker, placed or hid Walker's shoes and hat in a hollow log and told where the log was and upon investigation they were found to be there as she stated.

The family were notified to wind up their affairs, dispose of their property, and move out of the county. This was done as speedily as possible and they moved back to Taylor County, Georgia.

Spot Where Jefferson Davis, President of Southern Confederacy, Was Captured on May 10th, 1865.

I have learned that Mary Bone married and did well. Tayler made a good citizen, was a preacher of the Gospel and a highly respected citizen of the county.

Bone Pond, now Crystal Lake, is a beautiful spot; a more beautiful body of water is hard to find. There is nothing like it in this country. Many people visit it for a summer outing. It is perfectly healthy and away from the bustle and strife of the busy world, it furnishes quietude, peace, good bathing, excellent fishing and boat riding. Were it near some of our large cities, it would be considered a paradise on earth and a gold mine to its owners.

THE FLIGHT AND ARREST OR CAPTURE OF JEFF DAVIS, PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERACY.

The last chapter of the War Between the States has never been faithfully and truthfully written. It deals with the flight and capture of President Jefferson Davis of the Confederacy, after the fall of the Confederacy, a flight which lasted for a week and lead him through the lonely, yet lovely pine forests of south Georgia and ended near Irwinnville, in Irwin County, on May 10, 1865. This flight began in Washington, Wilkes County, Georgia, at the home of General Robert Toombs. The last meeting of the Confederate cabinet was held on Wednesday night, May 3, 1865, in an upper room of the old Heard home, also known as the State Bank Building. It was known that a price had been set upon the head of Mr. Davis and his cabinet. The present and pressing need was a place of safety for the president. It was decided that Mr. Davis should reach a southern port and embark for England with his family. On the morning of Thursday, May 4, 1865, Mr. Davis with a single companion rode on horseback out of Washington, Georgia, bound for the south. About twelve miles out from Washington, Mr. Davis and his companion, without disclosing their identity, secured lodging and had their horses cared for. Just after dark Thursday night, Judge Raggan of Texas and a small party left Washington and sometime Friday morning overtook Mr. Davis. Others who had left Washington in small parties joined them until they had quite a company made up of some of the most distinguished men of the South. After traveling about fifty miles from Washington, on Friday evening, May 5, 1865, they came to a prosperous looking farmhouse and they decided to camp if suitable arrangements could be made. This was the home of Mr. Lee Warthen who had just returned from the army to rebuild his shattered fortunes. He and his brother lived on an extensive plantation at what is known as Warthen, in Washington County. The Davis party concealed their identity but secured from the Messrs. Warthens a wagon load of provisions paying for it in gold. When this was done, Mr. Warthen asked, "Where did you get all that gold, it's the first I've seen in four years." The man turned and walked away saying in a low tone, "I reckon we stole it." Upon inquiry of a suitable place to camp they were directed to a woody dale about two miles north of Warthen, known as the Griffin Pond. The camp was pitched about 200 yards from the road where tents and men were out of sight and sound of any who might pass the main road.

On Saturday morning Mr. Davis resumed his journey. That afternoon a small party escorting Mrs. Davis from Richmond passed, going south, spending the night at the home of Mr. E. J. Blackshear, ten miles from Dublin, where she and family were joined by her husband on Sunday morning.

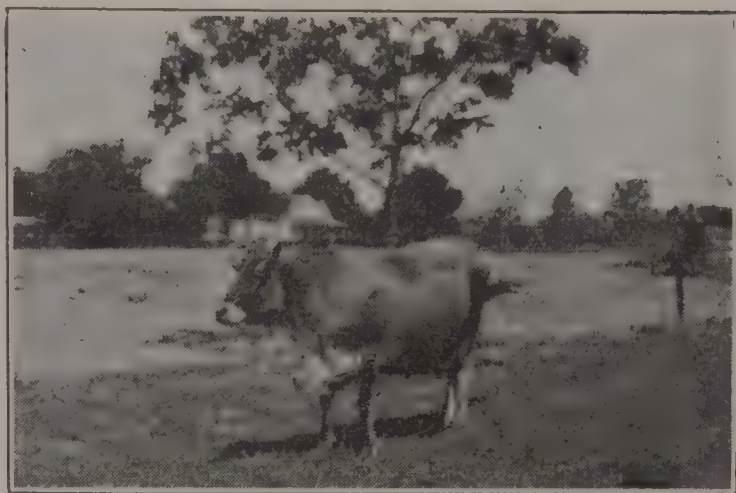

General John C. Breckinridge accompanied by a single soldier passed along going south. Col. Jack Lane, of Sanders-ville, guided them through the country. Mr. Lee Warthen stated that Gen. Breckinridge rode up to his gate making himself known and said, "The Yankees are scouring the country for us and I want all the information I can get." Mr. Warthen directed him how to travel with safety and he went on his way. General Breckinridge went to the farm of the grandfather of Judge E. D. Graham in the piney woods of Montgomery County and was safely kept unmolested for a number of weeks. When it was safe for him to resume his journey he asked what his bill was and he was told there was no charge, so he expressed his thanks for the many kindnesses shown him and pulling out of his pocket a handsome gold watch presented it to the old gentleman as a keepsake for his service to him and his loyalty to a cause sacred to the heart of all southerners. This watch was given by the grandfather to Judge E. D. Graham who owned it at the time of his death. I have seen this watch, it was very fine and beautiful. General Breckinridge made his escape.

After an early breakfast at the house of Mr. Blackshear, Mr. Davis and family, he riding in the carriage with his wife, resumed their journey in a southerly direction arriving at Dublin, Laurens County, about noon. The carriage was driven by a negro named John Davis. The carriage stopped at the store of Judge F. H. Rowe, and the Judge, being informed that a party was at the store desiring to buy provisions, came down to his place of business; learning that Mr. Davis was in the party, he gave them a cordial invitation to his home for dinner, but it was deemed prudent to decline this invitation and after securing the needed provisions the journey was resumed.

While the carriage was waiting in front of the store, quite a number of people gathered about to ask questions of them, among them were many negroes. One of them a comely young woman attracted the attention of the driver of the carriage, John Davis. He entered into conversation with her and learned her name was Della Connaway. She made a deep impression upon him and he impressed her as being a young man of more than usual importance. After the capture of Mr.

Davis, John Davis, the driver, was released at Macon, Georgia. Not forgetting the girl he saw in Dublin he made his way back to hunt her up. He found her, courted her, married her and settled down as a farmhand in Laurens County. They lived there many years, then they moved to Dodge County, near Eastman. They had thirteen children, three of whom died in infancy. He named his youngest child Jeff, after his "old marster." He lived in the Davis home in Mississippi, and went with the family to Richmond.

Irwin County Jersey Cows.

Mr. Davis and his family, unconscious that the enemy was anywhere near them, enjoyed that Sunday's drive through the piney woods of south Georgia's wiregrass country. It was springtime, new buds on the trees were giving out their springtime odor and the honeysuckles were filling the air with their fragrance. The mockingbirds were mating. The new leaves on the trees contrasted with the darker color of the murmuring pines. The magnolias and bays which were beginning to bloom along the water courses must have reminded them of their beautiful Mississippi home. They camped on this Sunday night about four miles from Eastman, now Dodge County.

The next day they resumed their journey and crossed the Ocmulgee River at Poor Robin Ferry. They were ferried across the river by Mr. Alex Willcox. They camped in the town of Abbeville, Wilcox County, formerly Irwin, camping under an oak tree which stands in the yard of Ordinary J. M. Warren of Wilcox County.

Tuesday morning they resumed their journey south and reached a point one mile north of Irwinville in a pine grove on south side of a branch where they pitched camp. Mr. Davis came into the town of Irwinville, spent quite a while talking with different people but did not let any one know his identity. Dr. G. E. White lived at Irwinville at that time and ran a hotel.

Irwin County Watermelons.

Mr. Davis spent some time on the porch of the hotel conversing with different people.

At this time there were two roads leading from Abbeville to Irwinville. One was the direct road south, the road Mr. Davis traveled and was camped upon, the other one came by Bowen's Mill and from thence to Irwinville.

The Yankee Cavalry who were following Mr. Davis and had been on his trail from Washington, Georgia, reaching Abbeville, learned they were not far behind Mr. Davis, also learned of the two roads leading to Irwinville, consequently they divided their force into two squads, one squad taking the direct road south to Irwinville, the other squad following the road by Bowen's Mill to Irwinville. This latter squad, upon arriving at Irwinville, learned they were ahead of Mr. Davis so they turned back north on direct road to Abbeville, hoping to secure President Davis. After traveling about one mile they came to Mr. Davis' camp. The squad following Davis down the main road, arrived about this time on the north side of the branch. Each squad of Yankees thought the other was a company of Confederate soldiers with President Davis and a battle was fought between themselves until daylight came, so they could distinguish themselves as Yankees, although they had been repeatedly told by Mr. Davis that he had no one with him fighting.

Mr. Davis was captured and the story told by some Yankees that he was captured with women's clothes on was as base a falsehood as could have been uttered. I knew personally a Mr. Clute, a Union soldier, who was one of the Michigan Cavalry who captured Mr. Davis, and he said that that story was a base falsehood. He said that as Mr. Davis walked out of his tent, it being early morning and somewhat cool, Mr.

Davis threw the cape belonging to a man's overcoat over his shoulders and remained with it around him. That he made no attempt to disguise himself or to escape at that time or any other. Mr. Clute was a truthful man, even though he was a Yankee Cavalryman and assisted in the capture of President Davis. I knew him personally for many years. My father, R. W. Clements, who was a thorough unreconstructed rebel and Confederate soldier, knew Mr. Clute for many years and had great respect for his veracity.

Mr. Davis was captured between midnight and daylight Wednesday morning, May 10, 1865. In the battle the Yankees fought among themselves, one if not two were killed, one horse killed and two or more men and horses were wounded. The dead were taken to Abbeville and buried. The pine trees had many bullets in them. Quite a few of these were cut out by people to melt and run into bullets to use to shoot game with, others were cut out by souvenir hunters. My father had just arrived home from the war, when this capture took place and in a few days he visited the scene and saw quite a few bloody rags on a stump beside the road, a dead horse and signs near Mr. Davis' camp next the branch, where a keg of peach or apple brandy had been poured out.

If Mr. Davis had let himself been known upon his arrival in Irwinville, the people would gladly have secreted him, which they could and would have done and kept him for months without his being molested, until he could have made his escape out of the country and avoided the horrors of Fortress Monroe.

At the time President Davis was captured, Rev. Jacob Young, a Primitive Baptist minister, lived one mile east of Irwinville. Wednesday, the day of the capture, had been assigned by Mr. Young as the day to gather and shear his sheep and he had invited his friends and neighbors to come and assist him in the work. In response to his invitations they came, many of whom were ex-Confederate soldiers. It was customary on such occasions for them to carry their guns and after the sheep shearing was over they would engage in a deer hunt or upon returning home, try to kill a deer to take home for the family larder. On this occasion many were at Mr. Young's house, their guns being stacked along the yard fence as the day's work had not commenced. No one knew of the capture of Mr. Davis, some had heard the report of the guns but no one knew what it meant. Just at this time there appeared upon the scene two of the Yankee Cavalry, who rode into the yard and went to Mr. Young's smokehouse and looked at his meat, then rode to his crib and looked at his corn and then told Mr. Young they had to have the corn to feed the Yankee horses and the meat to feed their men. Mr. Young prevailed with them not to take his meat and corn; that if they did, his family as well as quite a few widows and orphan children he was assisting, would suffer. This had no effect upon them, they stating that wagons would be along as soon as they returned, for it, but it was noticed that the Yanks kept their eyes on the men and guns. They soon left and the wagons did not appear. It was supposed that they decided the men with the guns were there to protect Mr. Young's property and to molest it, they would again have to face the bullets of the southerners as they had to their sorrow in the past.

They returned with Mr. Davis to Abbeville, where they camped on the same spot Mr. Davis camped on Monday night. They also buried their dead.

While in Abbeville the whole population turned out to see the distinguished prisoner. Many of his loyal friends and admirers called to pay their respects and tender their sympathy. Among them was Major Ried, a patriotic fire-eating old rebel. After seeing Mr. Davis, he approached the leader of the Yankee soldiers and asked what would be done with the prisoner. The soldier replied, "We intend to hang him." Major Ried flew into a just rage and cursed the whole Yankee army and dared them to try the hanging game. He told them it would be a d—m shame and a stain on the whole civilized world to hang Jeff Davis for being a gentleman, a soldier and a patriot.

Arriving at Macon with their distinguished prisoner, the party was broken up and Mr. Davis was sent to Fortress Monroe.

My father, Mr. R. W. Clements, after viewing the spot where they captured his chieftain only a few days after it happened, made a vow that if God would endow him with strength and health to rebuild his fortunes, the war leaving him only about twenty head of piney-woods cattle and 245 acres of land in the woods in Worth County, worth about $100.00, that so soon as he was able he would buy lot of land number fifty-one, in third district, Irwin County, upon which the capture was made and that no Yankee should ever own it. God prospered him and he soon bought it, and kept it until his death. In his later years Fitzgerald sprang up as a colony town with numbers of ex-Union soldiers as its inhabitants. He had many friends among them, all of whom, if they came to him in the proper spirit, expressing a desire to see the spot upon which Davis was captured, he would stop his work and go with them to the spot and permit them to secure canes or souvenirs to carry home. Unfortunately, Fitzgerald, like other boom towns had some who were not as desirable citizens as they should have been. One Sunday after dinner a neighbor Dr. W. L. Julian, sent word to my father that a crowd of those old Yankees were at the Jeff Davis camp ground cutting down the light-wood stump which stood nearest to Mr. Davis' camp and had wagons there to carry it away.

Never have I seen my father as angry as he was at that time. He called to me to get my gun and go with him. He secured a double-barreled shotgun loaded with buckshot and his pistol and went to the spot as quickly as possible. Upon our arrival, we found everything as the neighbor had communicated it to us. My father, after calling them all kinds of thieves and everything he could think of in the category of mean men, informed them that he had shot at you, the infernal Yankees, four years during the war and that he had not forgotten how it was done and that he would delight in doing the same thing in Georgia in protecting his property from such as they were but that he would allow them three minutes to hitch their team to the wagon and get off his land and stay off. Should he ever catch them there again on a similar errand, he would shoot first and ask questions afterward. To my delight they gave my father no back talk, but long before the time he gave them expired, they had their mules hitched to the wagon and drove off and never to our knowledge returned again. They had cut the light-wood stump down and had cut it up into about four foot lengths to carry away, but my father's appearance on the scene prevented them from doing so.

On numerous occasions my father made the remark that no Yankee should ever own this spot of land as long as he lived. On his death bed he told me he wanted my mother and me, we being his only heirs, to fix it so that it would always remain in the possession of Southern people and could never belong, as he expressed it, to a Yankee. After consulting with many able lawyers as how to carry out the wishes of this loyal Confederate, my father, in the year 1915, during my term of office as member of General Assembly of Georgia, I introduced a resolution tendering it to the State of Georgia in conjunction with the Daughters of Confederacy in fee simple four acres of land with the spot upon which Davis' camp was located about the center. My father would never allow the pine timber turpentineed or sawmilled and the original timber is there today as it was on the tenth day of May, 1865, when the President of the Confederacy was captured, only it has grown much larger.

To the shame of my native state, it has never spent one dime towards marking this spot or beautifying it in any particular. A spot holy in the eyes of all Confederate Soldiers. We trust some day our state will wake up and do the proper, the nice and appropriate thing and mark and beautify it as it should be.

THE BOSTWICK CASE.

Several years ago a family named Bostwick lived in Irwin County, about four miles west of Irwinnville. The wife before her marriage was Miss Mallissa Fletcher, the daughter of Mr. Wiley Fletcher. They had several children ranging in ages from a baby in arms to a boy about seventeen years old. Henry Bostwick was always considered a peaceable man, in fact somewhat cowardly, rather flighty and imaginary in his talk, not a fool but rather mean. He and his wife had some domestic trouble and it was said that he ran her away from home. She secured a warrant charging him with wife beating and placed it in the officer's hand for his arrest.

The deputy sheriff, a Mr. McCraw, went to Bostwick's house to serve the warrant. Bostwick met him with a gun and resisted arrest. The sheriff, not desiring any trouble with him and feeling assured that he would not leave the country and thinking if given time to reflect that he would give up to the sheriff, left his place and returned home.

The next day being Sunday the sheriff, Mr. J. P. McInnis, Mr. Clay Bass, Mr. W. A. Tucker and Mr. Seaborn Davis, all of them deputies, came to arrest Bostwick. They were all acquainted with him well and did not anticipate any trouble in making his arrest. Upon arriving at his place they alighted from their carriage, Mr. Davis was hitching the horses and Mr. Bass and sheriff McInnis started to the yard. Without any warning, Bostwick shot Mr. Davis while he was hitching the horses, killing him instantly, with the other barrel of the gun he shot Mr. Bass, wounding him severely, but he finally recovered. The sheriff sent runners out to secure aid, he remaining near enough to see that Bostwick did not escape. Bostwick barricaded himself in the house with his children and to have shot into the house of Bostwick would have endangered the lives of the innocent children.

In response to the sheriff's call for aid soon a large crowd had gathered. The sheriff repeatedly called upon Bostwick to open up the house and come out and surrender, he assuring him that he would give him protection. This he refused to do. The sheriff as did others in the party called to the children to come out of the house but Bostwick refused them to go out.

The sheriff and deputy, W. A. Tucker, and one other walked to the frontyard gate directly in front of the house and called to Bostwick and asked him to come out and surrender and he was assured by the sheriff that he would be protected and that he would see that he had a fair trial; that if he would not surrender to please send his children out of the house. This he refused to do. The sheriff and deputy then shot into the top of the house thinking by doing so it would cause Bostwick to surrender. Bostwick immediately shot the sheriff with one barrel of his gun and with the other shot deputy Tucker. The sheriff was mortally wounded and died in a few days, deputy Tucker was painfully injured but not seriously, he recovering in due time. Soon there was a large, angry, determined crowd of people on the scene but the fact of those innocent children being in the house and having no desire to injure or harm them, they were at loss to know what to do or how to proceed as Bostwick would shoot any one who came in his vision. Soon after shooting the sheriff he shot and killed Mr. James Gill and a little later he also shot and killed Mr. Timmy Sheffield.

It was finally decided to call upon the Governor and request state troops to be sent to the scene as Bostwick was shooting everyone who came any where near and a large majority of his shots were fatal. The throng of people surrounded the house at a sufficient distance to prevent his being able to kill any more and rested quietly until the Governor was communicated with over long distance telephone.

So soon as the Governor was communicated with, he acted promptly and ordered out one company of militia from Albany under command of Captain Say and one company from Fitzgerald, to come to the scene.

Converting Peanuts Into Cash.

The troupes arrived about daylight Monday morning, Captain Say in command. The military were handicapped as were the citizens by the fact of the children being barricaded in the house with their father and to shoot into the house would endanger their innocent lives. The military marched up in line in front of the house and Bostwick was commanded to surrender peaceably. He refused to comply or make any response. The military shot several rounds into the top of the house seeking to induce him to surrender or to frighten the children to come out of the house as the soldiers and citizens were continuously calling upon them to come out. After so long a time the children did decide to come out, the largest girl in the lead with the baby in her arms and the others following after her. They ran to the fence surrounding the house and were immediately gathered into the arms of the waiting soldiers and conveyed to places of safety. Men wept for joy at their deliverance. Men were seen with tears streaming down their cheeks, who had never been seen or known to weep before. None of the children had been injured in any way.

Then the way was clear to capture Bostwick. He was again called upon by the soldiers to surrender which he refused, remaining in the house without saying anything.

The soldiers fired several volleys into the house, riddling it with bullets, then made a rush advance to the door breaking it down and upon entering they found that Bostwick had been killed by some of the shots which were fired through the house. He was taken up and later buried.

The sheriff, Mr. J. P. McInnis, was an excellent young man, a good citizen and a capable fearless officer. He lived to know that Bostwick had been killed.

This was a deplorable tragedy, costing the lives of four men, all good citizens, the wounding of two others which was caused by Bostwick's refusal to submit to arrest for a crime which if it had been proven against him and he had been given the extreme penalty of the law, he could have expiated his sentence in twelve months. Had he gone to trial, it would have been more than probable that he would have received a small fine with the admonition that he and his wife live together in peace and harmony and rear their children to become useful citizens. He was born and reared in Lowndes County, Georgia.

The dwelling house was riddled with bullets, the walls and top were practically a sieve and unfit for the family to try to inhabit, but the neighbors and citizens of the county came to their rescue and built a new and better house than the old one was, where she lived until her death.

WOLF PITS.

In the early days, all kinds of wild animals were plentiful in this country, such as bear, wolf, panthers, catamounts, etc. The wolves were a menace to stock raisers, preying upon calves, sheep and all other domestic animals. The early settlers used every means at their command to exterminate these beasts of the forests. Ofttimes what were called wolf pits were dug, many of which are still in existence today, in different portions of Irwin County, but I fear many people if they see them have no idea for what purpose they were constructed. I will give a brief description of a wolf pit.

A round ditch was dug about six feet wide, several feet deep. In the center the earth was not disturbed. A very high fence was built around this ditch except at one place which was left low enough to allow a wolf to jump over it. In front of this low place the ditch was covered over with light brush, straw, etc., to look very much like the surrounding earth. In front of this low place in the fence and directly in front of the covering of twigs and straw over the ditch, on the ground in the center was placed the bait for the wolf, which was usually a sheep, calf, or some other dead animal. And the wolf would jump the fence not suspecting the ditch he would fall into in attempting to reach the bait and would land upon the straw covered ditch and fall through and go to the bottom from which he could not escape. When his captors arrived, they would find him confined in the ditch where he was quickly dispatched with a gun.

CHAPTER 8.

INFERIOR COURTS, BONDS, ELECTION DISTRICTS, NEW ROADS, ROAD COMMISSIONERS, NEW COUNTIES CREATED, ROAD DISTRICTS, ADMINISTRATORS AND EXECUTORS, PHYSICIANS, SLAVES, WIVES AND CHILDREN OF VOLUNTEER SOLDIERS, COLORED PERSONS, MARRIAGES, DIVORCE, TAX RECEIVER AND COLLECTOR, TAX, POOR, THREE-DAY ELECTION, INQUEST, LUNACY, COMMISSIONER OF PATROL, FERRIES, FISH, MAIL ROUTES, ADVERTISEMENTS, ETC.

COURTS AND COUNTY OFFICERS.

The first court organized in the county was the Inferior Court. Under the Constitution of 1798, and by the acts of the Legislature the Inferior Court was designated as the Court of Ordinary. The present Court of Ordinary was established by the Legislature in 1850. The Inferior Court had jurisdiction over all county matters, the establishment of roads, militia districts and performing all duties which are now conferred upon the Ordinary or Board of County Commissioners. They also had criminal jurisdiction over slaves and misdemeanors of whites. Could try persons with or without jury. It was a court composed of six citizens none of whom had to be lawyers. The first term of this court was held on the third day of July, 1820, at the house of David Williams and the following gentlemen composed the court as the judges thereof: Ludd Mobley, John Sutton, David Calaway and David William. The only business transacted was the passing of an order authorizing the Clerk who was also the Clerk of the Superior Court to issue license to tavern keepers and retailers of spirituous liquors when the court was not in session.

The judges of Inferior Court were elected for a term of two to three years. Below is a list of the judges of Inferior Court from the organization of the county until the abolishment of the court by the Legislature.

From January 1, 1820, to January 1, 1822—Ludd Mobley, John Sutton, David Calaway and David Williams.

From January 1, 1822, to January 1, 1825—Ludd Mobley, Ezekial Jernigan and Siliway McCall.

From January 1, 1825, to January 1, 1828—Ludd Mobley, John J. Underwood, Jacob Young, Robert H. Dixon, William Bradford and Siliway McCall.

From January 1, 1827, to January 1, 1829—Redding Hunter, William Bradford, Jacob Young and Robert H. Dixon.

From January 1, 1829, to January 1, 1831—Jacob Young, James L. Willcox, Robert H. Dixon and William Bradford.

From January 1, 1831, to January 1, 1834—James L. Willcox, Jacob Young, John Durham and William Bradford.

From January 1, 1834, to January 1, 1837—Charles Thigpen, Jacob Young, William Bradford, Benjamin Baker, Jehu McCall and Daniel Grantham.

From January 1, 1837, to January 1, 1839—Jacob Young, Jehu McCall, Daniel Grantham, David H. Howell and Thomas Drawdy.

From January 1, 1839, to January 1, 1841—Thomas Drawdy, Jacob Young, A. P. Clements, Jehu McCall and Daniel Grantham.

From January 1, 1841, to January 1, 1845—James L. Willcox, George R. Reid, Thomas Drawdy, John Henderson and Jeremiah Baker.

From January 1, 1845, to July 1, 1845—Thomas Drawdy, James Paulk, Jeremiah Baker, John Henderson, James L. Willcox and David Branch.

From July 1, 1845, to July 1, 1849—James L. Willcox, David Branch, Jeremiah Baker, John Dorminy and Cornelius Tyson.

From July 1, 1849, to August 2, 1852—Jonathan Smith, David Branch, A. P. Clements, John B. Mobley and Jeremiah Baker.

INFERIOR COURTS.

An act to organize the counties of Early, Irwin and Appling was passed December 21, 1819, which provided that it shall be the duty of any three or more of the commissioners hereinafter named, not being themselves candidates, to advertise and superintend an election for five justices of Inferior Court by giving fifteen days' notice when said election shall be held at the places pointed out by this act for holding Superior Court, until a permanent place is fixed on and said commissioners shall certify to the Governor the five persons having highest number of votes who shall be commissioned by the Governor and hold office until next general election for justices Inferior Court and that following persons are appointed commissioners for superintending said elections for the county of Irwin, to wit: John Sutton, Jr., John Sutton, Sr., Joshua Callaway, Willis King, Samuel Boyed, Ludd Mobley, David Williams, Redding Hunter, Burrell Bailey and Green Graham. The justices aforesaid when commissioned are hereby appointed commissioners of courthouses and jails of their respective counties and are vested with full power and authority to fix on the site for the public buildings in their county, which shall be as near the center thereof as convenience will admit, at which place the courts and general election shall be held as soon as suitable buildings are erected, and they are authorized to purchase land as they may deem sufficient to erect said buildings, provided they do not purchase more than one lot for the use of the county and they are authorized to lay off any portion of said land purchased in town lots and dispose of same for the use of the county and contract with any person or persons for building a courthouse and jail.

That the justices of Inferior Court, or a majority of them, are authorized and required to advertise at least fifteen days at three or more places in the county and hold elections in said county for clerk of Superior and Inferior Courts, sheriff, coroner, tax collector and receivers and county surveyors which said election shall be held at the places hereinafter named until the commissioner aforesaid fixes permanently on the site of the public building respectively.

Until suitable courthouses are erected the Superior and Inferior Courts shall be held for the county of Irwin at the house of David Williams. Signed:

Davis Adams, Speaker of House,
Mathew Talbot, President of Senate.

Approved December 21, 1819,

Signed: John Clark, Governor.

The following act of the Legislature was passed December 13, 1823, that so much of an act to organize the counties of Early, Irwin and Appling as relates to the justices of Inferior Court of Irwin County to be the commissioners of the courthouse and jail of said county be and the same is hereby repealed; and that William Foulson, James Crumb, Siliway McCall, Joshua Griffin and Alexandra McDaniel be and they are hereby appointed commissioners of the courthouse and jail in the County of Irwin.

Section 2. That the said William Foulson, James Crumb, Siliway McCall, Joshua Griffin and Alexandra McDaniel are hereby entitled to the same powers as the before recited act gave to the justices of the Inferior Court of Irwin County as commissioners of the courthouse and jail of said county.

David Adams, Speaker of the House,
Thomas Stocks, President of Senate.

Approved: G. M. Troup, Governor.

The following act was approved December 24, 1825, that John B. F. Dixon, James Willecox, Emanuel Knowles, William Foulson and Elijah Beasley be and they are hereby appointed commissioners for selecting a public site for the county of Irwin under same rules and regulations in the counties of Lowndes and Irwin as prescribed in foregoing section of this act for the government and conduct of the commissioners of Thomas and with as full and ample powers as if they were prescribed in the same words.

The second session of the Inferior Court was held on the first Monday in January, 1821. Present Judges: John Sutton, David Williams and David Calaway. The only business transacted was an order passed to enter suit wherein Richard Wiggins was plaintiff and Daniel Grantham defendant. The suit was called and dismissed at plaintiff's costs.

At meeting of Inferior Court on second day of July, 1822, the following order was passed. "The Inferior Court feels that it is proper to move the place of holding courts for the county of Irwin up to Murdock McDuffie schoolhouse on lot of land number 147 from this time forward and also all county elections to be held at the same place.

"Signed Robert F. Dixon, J. I. C.,
Elijah Beasley, J. I. C.,
David Williams, J. I. C."

At the July term, 1821, an order was passed establishing a public road in Irwin County beginning at the county line at Ludd Mobley and continue a river road, crossing House Creek at David Calaway ford and continue to the upper line, and Ludd Mobley, Willis King and Murdock McDuffie were appointed to lay out and mark said road beginning at county line up to House Creek and Green G. Graham, Burrell Bailey and Isham Jordan were appointed to lay out and mark said road from House Creek to upper line of county.

Field of Irwin County Peanuts.

At July term, 1822, an order was passed appointing David Calaway, Isham Jordan and Nathaniel Statum, commissioners, to lay out and mark a river road beginning at David Calaway ford on House Creek and up to line of the county.

At July term, 1824,

John McCall, John Fitzgerald and G. G. Graham were appointed to mark out the river road above Big House Creek and Daniel McDuffie, J. B. F. Dixon, Emanuel Knowles and Ludd Mobley were appointed to blaze out the road at the lower line at Griffins up to House Creek. James Allen, Thomas Townsend, Isaac Allen and Sion Hall were appointed to lay out a road from Ocmulgee River to Alapaha River.

At July term, 1825, John Smith, Moses Steter and Daniel Underwood were appointed to examine road from Alapaha to Little rivers and report practicability of starting same. Thomas Bradford, Daniel Grantham and William Fussell were appointed to examine the road from the Alapaha to Ludd Mobley and report practicability of starting same. Daniel Luke, James Stephens and Thomas Porter were appointed to mark out river road from lower line of the county to the Dooly line.

On December 24, 1825, the counties of Thomas and Lowndes were created which provided that after the passage of this act the seventeenth and eighteenth districts and such parts of the twenty-third and nineteenth districts of Decatur County as lie on the east side of the Ochlocknee River together with the thirteenth and fourteenth districts of Irwin County do form and constitute a new county called Thomas.

Be it further enacted that the eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, fifteenth and sixteenth districts of Irwin County form and constitute a new county called Lowndes.

Duncan Ray, William Forsom, Simon Hadley, Sr., Michael Horn and John Hill Bryant were appointed commissioners to select public site for Thomas County and Lawrence Folsom, Sion Hall, William Blair, John J. Underwood and Daniel McCrauley were appointed commissioners to select public site for the county of Lowndes and John B. F. Dixon, James Willcox, Emanuel Knowles, William Folsom and Elijah Beasley were under the same act appointed commissioners to select a public site for the county of Irwin. Section 7 of the act provided that for the county of Irwin, the place of holding the Superior and Inferior Courts and elections shall be at the usual place of holding courts and elections in the county of Irwin until the commissioners appointed by this act shall have selected public sites for their respective counties and proceeded by a written notification to inform the Inferior Court of such place and circumstance and it shall be the duty of the justices of Inferior Court to advertise the same, stating the lot of land selected for the public site of their county, in three of the most public places in the county and the same shall thereafter immediately become the permanent public site of said county.

Section 6. Provides that it shall be the duty of the Inferior Court as soon as commissioners have been selected to select public sites for courthouse and jail and to proceed with the letting out courthouses and jails at such site.

Section 9. Provides that the clerks of Superior Court in Lowndes, Thomas and Irwin, shall not be compelled to keep their offices at their respective courthouses.

Section 10. Provides that Duncan Ray, Archibald McMillan, Paul Colson, Hardy Bryan and Malcolm Ferguson, be and are hereby appointed commissioners of the academy.

The county of Ware was created in 1824, and provided that the county of Appling shall be divided by beginning on the line between Wayne and Appling counties at the line dividing the lots 505 and 501, in the fourth district of Appling County, running a due west course through the fifth and sixth districts of Appling County until it strikes the Irwin County line.

Section 2. That all that part or territory lying north of line aforesaid shall be known as the county of Appling and the other part to be known and called by the name of Ware.

An act of the Legislature approved December 23, 1822, provided that immediately after the passage of this act the Governor be and is authorized to appoint two fit and proper persons to superintend the opening of a road to commence at the Alapaha at or near Cunningham ford on said river, passing through districts numbers ten, twelve and thirteen in the county of Irwin and numbers eighteen and twenty-three in the county of Early, pursuing the best and most practicable route until it intersects the Florida line near the Ochlocknee River. That the sum of $1,500 be and the same is hereby appropriated to carry the above recited section into effect.

General John Coffee was appointed one of the commissioners. No record of who the other commissioner was.

In the first old record book of wills and bonds on the first page appears this entry: "William W. Sloan, son of William Sloan and Mary Ann Sloan, his wife, was born thirteenth of February, 1822. Test William Sloan, Clerk."

BONDS.

The first bond on record was dated October 2, 1820, in which John Sutton gave bond as guardian for William Riley Adams. Amount of bond was $300.00. David Calaway was the bondsman.

The second bond was dated March 3, 1823. Abigail McDuffie and John C. Love, administrators of the estate of Murdock McDuffie, gave bond as administrators in the sum of $30,000.00. The bondsmen were John Willcox, John Sutton and Nathaniel R. Mitchell.

The first county-officer bond recorded was that of Daniel McDuffie, sheriff, dated October 22, 1823, for the amount of $20,000.00. Bondsmen were John J. Underwood and Ludd Mobley.

The Legislature approved an act on December 8, 1828, which provided that the Inferior Courts of Irwin County shall be held on the fourth Monday in January, each year, instead of the first Monday in January heretofore. The second section provides that it shall be the duty of clerk of said court to advertise this alteration at one of the most public places in each captain's district of said county.

ELECTION DISTRICTS ESTABLISHED IN IRWIN COUNTY.

An act of the Legislature, approved June 11, 1825, provided that all elections which may be held for state or county officers shall be held at the following places, to wit: In the county of Irwin at the courthouse, at Sion Hall in the twelfth district in said county and at the house of Thomas Gibbs in the second district in said county.

DEPUTY CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT.

Miss Mattie W. Moore was appointed deputy clerk Superior Court, January 10, 1919, which position she still occupies, filling the same efficiently and creditably. She was the first lady in Georgia to be honored with this position.

WOOL CARDING.

About the year 1870, R. W. Clements purchased and erected about one mile west of Irwinville a wool carding machine which was operated by water power. There were two machines, one of which the wool was carried through called the picker which picked or tore the wool all to pieces or separated it into small particles or strands. The wool thus separated or picked as it was then called was taken up in baskets and carried to a much larger machine called the carder where it was manufactured into rolls. When the machine finished the operation the rolls of wool would fall into a box or trough at one end of machine which was about three and a half feet long. The rolls when completed would be about the size of the index finger of a man's hand, about three and a half feet long already to be spun into thread upon the old fashioned spinning wheel. If the person having the wool carded desired to make white cloth the wool was brought to the machine well washed and only white wool was used. If they desired black or brown cloth the wool was dyed at home the color desired, if they desired gray cloth the white and wool dyed black was mixed at the machine and from these mixed rolls would be spun into thread and woven into cloth upon the old fashioned loom by the ladies of the household, making as pretty gray jeans cloth as could be found. This wool carding machine for a number of years did an enormous amount of work, being patronized by many families for many miles in the county as well as all the neighboring counties as wool carding machines in those days were very few and long distances apart.

CHAPTER 10.

RAILROADS.

BRISBANE RAILROAD CHARTERED.

An act approved December 22, 1827, provided: That Thomas Spalding and such persons as he may associate with himself being citizens of the United States, be authorized to cut a canal or construct a railroad of wood from the Ocmulgee to the Flint River from and to such points as they may deem most proper and fit.

Section 2. That the said Thomas Spalding and his associates shall have power to purchase in fee simple such land as may be necessary for constructing and completing the said railroad or canal; and in case of disagreement as to the price of the land so taken between the owner or owners thereof and the said Thomas Spalding and his associates, such disagreement is to be determined by the award of three sworn appraisers to be chosen, one by the land owner, one by Thomas Spalding and his associates and one who shall be appointed by the Inferior Court of the county with the right of appeal to either party to be tried by a special jury at the term of the Superior Court next thereafter held in that county; and the decision in whatever way finally made, shall vest in the said Thomas Spalding and his associates the fee simple of the land in question and in the other party a judgment for its value thus ascertained.

Section 3. That the said Thomas Spalding and his associates shall have the exclusive control and benefit resulting from said railroad or canal for the term of ninety-nine years from its completion. At the expiration of said time the said railroad or canal shall revert to the state; provided the state at any time within two years take an interest in the said railroad or canal not exceeding one half after paying to the said Thomas Spalding and his associates, his or their assigns, a sum equal to the same portion of the capital which may have been expended upon the work and expenses attending the same and eight per cent. interest from the time said work shall have been commenced until it shall have been completed.

Section 4. That the said Thomas Spalding and his associates shall have authority to impose and exact such reasonable toll as may be proper and sufficient for the purpose of remunerating them for the labor and expenditure of the undertaking and to enable them to keep the same in repair.

Section 5. That the said Thomas Spalding and his associates be and they are hereby incorporated as a company entitled, "The Ocmulgee and Flint Railroad or Canal Company," for the purposes aforesaid and are declared capable of suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, and of using all necessary legal measures for prosecuting or defending the rights, privileges and immunities hereby granted to the said Thomas Spalding and his associates.

Section 6. That the term of five years be allowed to the said Thomas Spalding and his associates to complete the said railroad, or ten years to complete the canal from passage of this act; and if in the expiration of the time herein specified the said work shall not have been completed, then in such case this charter of incorporation and all the rights, privileges and immunities hereby granted shall cease and be void to all intents and purposes.

Section 7. That no person or persons nor any company nor association shall have the right or privilege of cutting a canal or constructing a railroad between the Ocmulgee and Flint rivers within twenty-five miles above or twenty-five miles below the contemplated railroad or canal now granted to Thomas Spalding and his associates; provided that the said Thomas Spalding and his associates, his or their assigns, shall within two years from the passage of this act deposit in the office of the executive of this state a plan or chart of the contemplated work showing its course and direction.

Herbiey Hudson, Speaker of House,
Thomas Stocks, President of Senate.

John Forsyth, Governor.

An act approved December 22, 1834, authorized Thomas Spalding and his associates to construct a railroad of wood or such other road deemed by them best adapted for the running or passage of locomotive steam engines from the Ocmulgee to the Flint rivers and to such points on said rivers that they deem most proper and fit.

The term of ten years from the passage of this act was allowed them to complete the road.

An act approved December 28, 1842, provided the stockholders of Ocmulgee and Flint River railroad shall be allowed until January 1, 1850, to complete said railroad.

An act approved December 21, 1849, provided that the time allowed for the completion of Ocmulgee and Flint River Canal Company be extended until January 1, 1860.

I have not been able to determine just what time work was begun on the building of this railroad but it was about 1835. This road ran from Albany, Georgia, to Jacksonville, Georgia, connecting the Ocmulgee and Flint rivers. The principal promoter of this enterprise was an Irishman by the name of A. H. Brisbane who granted large tracts of land in originally Irwin County. Mr. Brisbane lived at one time one mile west of Irwinville on the Albany public road and near his railroad. At that time the road was not intended for steam locomotive and cars, but the intention was to pull the cars with horses or mules. This railroad was graded, bridges built, crossties laid and many hewn stringers were placed which were being used in place of iron rails as are now used in building railroads. This road passed through Irwinville and Isbella, crossing what is now the Southern railroad near Cyclonota Farm at which point there was a town called Layola. After being so nearly completed the promoters had financial troubles and the road was abandoned. Had it been completed the complexion of this country would have been different in many ways as it would have brought about development much earlier. The work on this road was done by white labor, principally Irishmen induced to come to this country by Mr. Brisbane and engage in the work, he agreeing to give some of them shares in his railroad, others he agreed to pay for their labor. The project fell through and they received nothing. This treatment highly incensed the laborers and talk of killing Mr. Brisbane was indulged in, which upon reaching his ears frightened him to such an extent he left the country at night, dressed in women's clothes.

Many Irishmen were in Irwin County and desiring to become citizens of the United States of America the following at the October term, 1841, of Irwin Superior Court, petitioned the court to become naturalized citizens of the United States.

James Aylward came to the United States in 1839; John Maddon in 1834; Michael Droughon, 1839; Dennis Walsh, 1839; Michael Mahn, 1836; John Hogan, 1839; Jeremiah O'Brien, 1840; Walter Dumpley, 1837; Patrick Slymm, 1839; Owen Earley, 1838; John Malloy, 1838.

The following were admitted at the April term, 1842: John O'Donall came to the United States in 1838; Hugh McCartney in 1838; Owen Duffy, 1839; Michael McCade, 1836; James Golden, 1836; Thomas Brady, 1836; Patrick Gough, 1839; John Coong, 1841; John Brady, 1839; Michael Doyle, 1841; John Farrell, 1836; Michael Obgean, 1835; Robert Donnelly, 1839; Thomas Lowry, 1839; James Brady, 1836; Timothy Ward, 1841; Patrick McDonald, 1834; Thomas Maolony, 1836; Samuel Kagan, 1840; Bernard Kernan, 1836; Bernard Coby, 1836; Michael Moore, 1836; Francis Cannon, 1836; James Graham, 1836; John Farley, 1836; Jeremiah Harrington, 1837; John Bailey, 1837; Thomas Ward, 1836; James Ronan, 1837; William Connell, 1837.

The following were admitted at the October term, 1841; Terrence Bennett came to the United States in 1836; Thomas Mathews in 1837; Michael Keating, 1834; Philip Smith, 1828; Patrick Moneygan, 1833; John Sullivan, 1839; Edward Morgan, 1837; Patrick Duff, 1835; Michael King, 1836; Andrew Butler, 1835; William Connell, 1837; Michael Cuddahy, 1839; Joseph Caldwell, 1839; John Barden, 1836; Michael Daldon, 1839; James Rowe, 1835; Patrick Mathews, 1836; William Guilfoys, 1838; James Moore, 1836.

At the October term, 1842, the following was admitted: Robert Reiley came to the United States in 1829.

At the October term, 1844, the following were admitted: Hugh Burns came to the United States in 1841; James Rowe in 1841.

The following was admitted at the April term, 1845: Timothy Ward came to the United States in 1841.

At the September term, 1849, the following was admitted: Thomas Golden came to the United States in 1841.

At the October term, 1853, the following were admitted: Earnest Curtoy came to the United States in 1849; James Parsons in 1847.

GEORGIA, SOUTHERN AND FLORIDA RAILROAD.

The next railroad to touch Irwin County after the Brisbane Road was the Georgia, Southern and Florida which passed through the western side of the county from Macon to Palatka and was built through the county about 1888. The building of this railroad caused numerous developments and many new enterprises along its line. There sprang up the towns of Sycamore, Inaha and Chula in Irwin County.

HAWKINSVILLE AND FLORIDA SOUTHERN RAILROAD.

Some years after the construction of the Georgia, Southern and Florida railroad a railroad was constructed and operated from Worth, Georgia, to Hawkinsville, with a line from Worth to connect with main line to Hawkinsville, which line ran south to within three miles of Irwinville. After being operated for several years this road was discontinued and taken up.

BRUNSWICK AND BIRMINGHAM AND ATLANTA, BIRMINGHAM AND ATLANTIC.

About 1890 a railroad was built from Brunswick with Birmingham as its western terminus. It was completed from Brunswick to a point three miles west of Irwinville and trains were operated from Brunswick to Irwinville. About the same time a railroad was being constructed from Waycross through Irwin County, these two roads crossed each other at Nicholls in Coffee County, the latter road passing through Fitzgerald, Cordele and Atlanta. About the time the latter road was completed to Fitzgerald they bought the road from Brunswick to Irwinville, also the road from Thomasville to Tifton and from Tifton to Fitzgerald which also passed through Irwin County and extending their road from Manchester, Georgia, to Birmingham, Alabama, the line of road from Nicholls to Irwinville was discontinued.

About 1908, that enterprising citizen of Ocilla, Hon. J. A. J. Henderson, built a railroad from Nashville to Fitzgerald and extended it to Hawkinsville and Perry; he also built a line from Ocilla to Broxton and leased the road from Bushnell to Irwinville. These roads were operated by him for several years but were finally abandoned and the rails were taken up and sold, leaving only the A. B. & A. and Seaboard Air Line railroad touching what is left of originally Irwin County during the year 1930.

CHAPTER 11.

EDUCATION.

An act of the Legislature approved December 21, 1821, provided that the sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00) be and the same is hereby set apart, the one half for the support and encouragement of free schools and the other half for the permanent endowment of county academies; and the further sum of five hundred thousand dollars is set apart for the internal improvement of the State.

Section 2. That the said sum of five hundred thousand dollars first above named shall be denominated the school fund and shall be composed of two hundred thousand dollars of the stock of the Bank of Darien, two hundred thousand dollars of the stock of the State Bank and one hundred thousand dollars of the Bank of Augusta.

Section 3. That the principal sums set apart as aforesaid shall at no time or for any purpose be appropriated or used; but the interest arising thereon shall be applied to the purposes herein mentioned as the Legislature may from time to time direct.

Section 4. That it shall be the duty of the treasurer, comptroller general, trustees or commissioners of county academies and the Inferior Courts of the several counties in this state together with the Senators of said counties to examine and make full and accurate report to the next Legislature of the amount received by said counties respectively in confiscated property or other endowments and when such returns are made and information obtained the dividend yielded by the one half of school fund aforesaid shall be apportioned, and paid semi-annually to the several counties as a future Legislature may direct. It shall be the duty of all trustees, commissioners, courts or agents receiving any portion of the funds aforesaid to keep regular statements and interest of the manner in which the same may be disbursed and make an annual return thereof to the Senatus, Academicus on the second Monday in November.

IRWIN COUNTY ACADEMY.

The following resolution was approved by the Legislature December 22, 1823: "Resolved that John Joyce, James Crumb, Ezekial Jernigan, Assa L. Renphro and John S. Gilder be and they are hereby appointed commissioners of Irwin County Academy."

An act approved December 24 provided that all the funds heretofore set apart for the Academy of the county of Irwin be added to the free school funds of said county subject in every respect to the laws enforced.

An act approved December 19, 1827, provided that Isaac Stevens, Jacob Young, William Bradford, Daniel McDuffie and Nathaniel Gronto be appointed trustees of the poor school funds for the county of Irwin with full power to receive of the commissioners or trustees of the academy of the county aforesaid and from the treasurer of the state, money now belonging to or hereafter to belong to the poor school fund and academical funds of said county; and that the said Isaac Stevens, Jacob Young, William Bradford, Daniel McDuffie and Nathaniel Gronto and their successors in office are hereby declared to be a body corporate under the name and style aforesaid to hold property and choses in action of all kind.

Section 2. That the trustees aforesaid shall appoint a treasurer who shall not be one of the trustees aforesaid and who shall give bond to the trustees aforesaid and their successors in office in sufficient sum to secure the amount to be placed in his hands for the faithful performance of the trust reposed in him.

Section 3. That the children entitled to the benefit of the poor school fund of this state by an act to alter and amend an act passed twenty-third day of December, 1822, to distribute the bank dividend and other net proceeds of the poor school fund among the different counties of this State shall receive the benefits of this fund according to the manner pointed out in this act so far as it does not militate against this act.

Section 4. That when any vacancy shall occur by death, resignation or removal without the county, of any of the trustees of said poor school funds it shall be filled by the remaining trustees provided that a majority of the votes of all the trustees for the time being shall be necessary to constitute a choice any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

An act approved December 26, 1831, provides that it shall be and may be lawful for the treasurer of the poor school fund for the counties of Irwin and Telfair to loan out at the rate of 8% interest all of the money that he may have in possession of said poor school funds.

Section 2. Whenever the treasurer shall or does loan any money aforesaid he shall take good securities for the same and in case he shall fail to take good securities he and his securities shall be held liable for the sum or sums so loaned.

Section 3. That the treasurer shall loan the money in the following manner, to wit: For the term of six months or more as will best promote the public good as in his discretion shall seem proper.

An act approved December 24, 1832, provided that no teacher of the poor children of the county of Irwin shall in future receive any money out of the poor school fund unless such teacher shall have been examined and found qualified by the justices of the Inferior Court of the county or a majority of them.

Section 2. That on application of any person to said justices or a majority of them the said justices shall examine said person and if found qualified shall give such person a certificate from under their hands.

Section 3. That the treasurer of the poor school fund shall not pay any person out of said fund unless such person produces to the treasurer the certificate above described.

An act approved December 26, 1837, provided for consolidation of academic and poor school funds also with interest on one third part of surplus revenue derived to this state from United States and heretofore set apart for that purpose shall compose a general fund for common school. The act also provided for the election in each county of five school commissioners who will have the management of the schools of the county.

An act approved February 16, 1854, provided that all teachers of poor children in Irwin County are authorized to furnish such books and stationery to any poor children as may attend their schools as pupils as shall be necessary for their successful instruction and who on account of the poverty of themselves or parents are unable to obtain the same and said teachers are authorized in their accounts for tuition of any poor children to charge so much as they paid and no more for said books and stationery and the ordinary or commissioners of poor school fund in said county are required to pay for same out of any funds on hand for the education of the poor. Said accounts to be sworn to and to be examined by ordinary or commissioners of poor school funds and to pay so much as seem reasonable and just.

The records for 1829 show the following list of notes belonging to poor school funds of Irwin County: Daniel McDuffie, $30.00; James Allen, $20.00; Ludd Mobley, $11.25; John Joyce, $22.75; John C. Love, $99.26; James Hall, $21.00; Gilder and Fussell, $20.00; Ruebin Marsh, $15.00; William Hall, $27.00; Redding Hunter, $25.00; William Hall, $25.00; William Fussell, $30.00; Dennis Allen, $23.00; Joyce Notes, $83.00, total $452.76.

There were 113 poor children reported from Irwin County to the Executive Department in the year 1842.

COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

Since 1880 the following gentlemen have held the position of County School Commissioners for Irwin County.

Hon. Wiley Whitley, from 1880 to April, 1892.

Hon. John Y. Fletcher, from 1892 to February, 1896.

Hon. M. Dixon, from 1896 to May, 1901.

Hon. John Clements, from 1901 to April, 1904.

Hon. J. W. Weaver, from 1904 to January, 1921.

Hon. Philip Newbern, from 1921 to January, 1933.

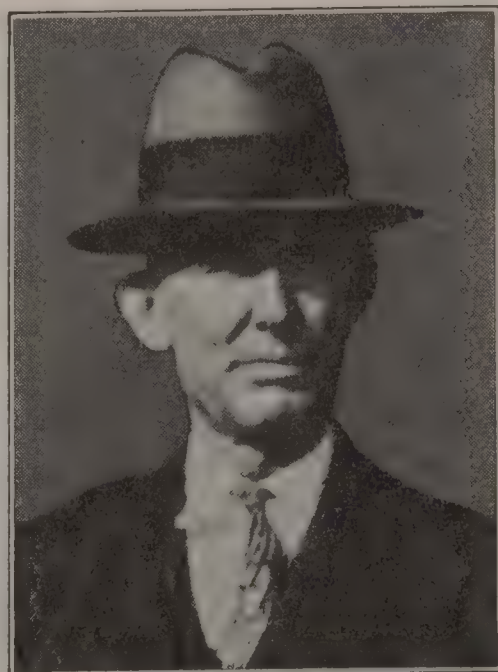

SCHOOLS.

During the year 1930, there were in the county five one-room white schools, three two-room white schools, two four-room white schools, two five-room white schools, one six-room school, one ten-room white school, making the total of sixteen white schools, with an enrollment of 2,223 pupils. There is also one independent white school in the city of Ocilla with an enrollment of 271 scholars. In this school are employed eleven teachers.

COLORED SCHOOLS.

There are twenty-one colored schools in the county with an enrollment of 948 pupils.

There are nine consolidated school districts in the county having a local tax for maintenance of from two to five mills. There is also a county-wide tax for maintenance of the schools of five mills.

There was received from the state general common school funds from July 1, 1930, to July 1, 1931, the sum of $17,434.98. There is also due the county from general state school funds for the years 1928 and 1929, the sum of $10,000. There was also received the year 1930 from the state equalization fund the sum of $15,146.70 and there is still due from this state fund to the county for the year 1931 a considerable balance.

If all amounts due the county school board was paid in by January 1, 1932, the county would not owe one penny for school purposes but would have to its credit approximately $6,000 besides all of 1931 tax as well as local districts tax upon which to operate the schools.

CHAPTER 12.

PUBLIC SITES, IRWINVILLE, FITZGERALD, OCILLA, TIFTON AND NORTHEASTERN RAILROAD, SEA- BOARD AIR LINE RAILROAD, CREATION OF NEW COUNTIES, COURTHOUSE REMOVALS.

PUBLIC SITES.

The first public site for Irwin County was at the house of David Williams on lot of land number 147 in fourth district.

SECOND SITE.

At the July term, 1822, of the Inferior Court, the following order was passed. The Inferior Court feels that it is proper to move the place of holding court for the county of Irwin up to Murdock McDuffie's schoolhouse on lot number 147 in fourth district from this time forward and also all county elections to be held at same place.

THIRD SITE.

An act of the Legislature, approved December 23, 1830, provides: That from and after the first Tuesday next the public site of the county of Irwin shall be and it is hereby permanently fixed and located on lot number 255 in fourth district of said county; but provided the commissioners hereinafter named cannot obtain indubitable titles to lot number 255 in fourth district of said county, they shall be authorized to purchase any lot or part of any lot within two miles of said first mentioned place and to proceed as hereinafter prescribed.

Section 2. That the said public site be and the same is hereby named Irwinville.

Section 3. That Robert H. Dixon, Jacob Young, William Bradford, Daniel Luke and Ruebin Marsh be and they are hereby appointed commissioners for said town of Irwinville with full power and authority to lay off the same into lots and expose the same to public sale in such manner and under such restrictions as they in their judgments deem best calculated to promote the interest of the county and town aforesaid.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the aforesaid commissioners to apply the proceeds of the sale of said lot or so much thereof as may be necessary to defray the expense of a courthouse and jail in the town of Irwinville in the county of Irwin.

Section 5. That the commissioners aforesaid shall proceed as soon as the said lot in the town of Irwinville is sold to let the building of a courthouse and jail in the county aforesaid for the use and benefit for the county of Irwin.

Section 6. That the place of holding the Superior and Inferior Courts and elections shall be at the present or usual place of holding courts and elections for said county until there is a courthouse built at the place that is contemplated by this act.

FOURTH SITE.

An act of the Legislature, approved December 22, 1831, provided that from and after first Tuesday in April next the public site in the county of Irwin shall be and is hereby permanently fixed and located on lot number thirty-nine in the third district of said county.

Section 2. Is the same as in act approved December 30, 1830.

Section 3. Same as in act as approved December 23, 1830, except the following persons named as commissioners, John Paulk, John Henderson, John Dorminy, Leonard G. Jackson and Redding Hunter.

Section 4. Same as act approved on December 23, 1830.

Section 5. Same as act approved on December 23, 1830.

Section 6. Same as in act approved December 23, 1830, and also provides until a suitable building is erected for that purpose at Irwinville, provided that nothing hereby retained shall be so construed as altering any election district in said county except the one at the present place of holding the Superior and Inferior Courts of said county.

Signed, Wilson Lumford, Governor.

After the passage of the above act by the Legislature the following deed to the county site was secured to wit:

STATE OF GEORGIA, IRWIN COUNTY: This indenture made and entered into this day between Samuel Groves of the County of Madison and state aforesaid. Witnesses that Ludd Mobley by lawful attorney by virtue of the power of attorney to him granted and hereunto annexed for and in consideration of having the first and select choice of one lot have granted, bargained and sold unto the commissioners for Irwin County for the time being and their successors in office for the sole use of the county aforesaid forty acres of lot number thirty-nine in third district to be laid out and occupied as a site for courthouse and jail and in the same to hold in fee simple. I, Ludd Mobley, by virtue of the power of attorney to me granted and hereunto annexed do give, grant, in fee of to the aforesaid commissioners and their successors in office the aforesaid forty acres laid off from any of the line bounding said lot. The same to warrant and defend against any claims whatever. I have hereunto by my lawful attorney signed my approval by my legal attorney. Ludd Mobley May 22, 1832. Test before me

Courthouse at Irwinville, Georgia.

COURTHOUSE.

At May term, 1838, an order was passed by the Inferior Court providing that a courthouse be built on the public square at the county site. The courthouse to be thirty feet in length, twenty feet in width with two jury rooms built end ways to the house. Body is to be ten feet high and each room eight or nine feet, an inside door on each room and a door on outside of one room and a door on the end, two windows on one side of the room and one on the other, three windows on the end where the bar is placed and one on each side of the house. Blocks to be heart cypress about eighteen inches long, sills of good heart pine or cypress ten inches square, shingles to be twenty-one inches long of good heart pine or cypress. Jacob Paulk, Joseph Sumner, Joseph Clements, John H. Alexander, S. H. Kinyon to superintend letting and building same.

Benjamin Baker was contractor to build courthouse and gave bond in the sum of $1500.00 with Jonathan Smith and Elisha Tucker as security, he agreeing to build said courthouse according to plans and instructions given him by commissioners appointed to have same erected.

At the July term, 1839, the Inferior Court passed this order: That a courthouse be built on the public square at county site in Irwin County. The courthouse to be thirty feet long and twenty-four feet wide in the clear, to be built of good hewn timber, five inches by ten, or sawed lumber with a good heart shingle roof, one story and a half high, the lower story to be nine feet high, the half to be five feet; to consist of three jury rooms, the two petit jury rooms to be twelve feet square with two partitions to divide the Grand Jury room from petit jury room so as to form an alley of about four feet and reared up on good solid lightwood blocks, with a good floor, well dressed and laid down both below and above with one door and a window on each jury room and three doors and a window on the lower story with a bar fourteen feet from the wall, all to be built in a plain workman-like manner and that John Henderson, William Fletcher, Duncan McDermitt, Benjamin Baker and Daniel Luke act as commissioners to draw a draft to comply with above order and any material amendments they may see proper and they proceed forthwith to let out to lowest bidder the above named house on advertising same at least twenty days previous, taking a sufficient bond and security of the contractor.

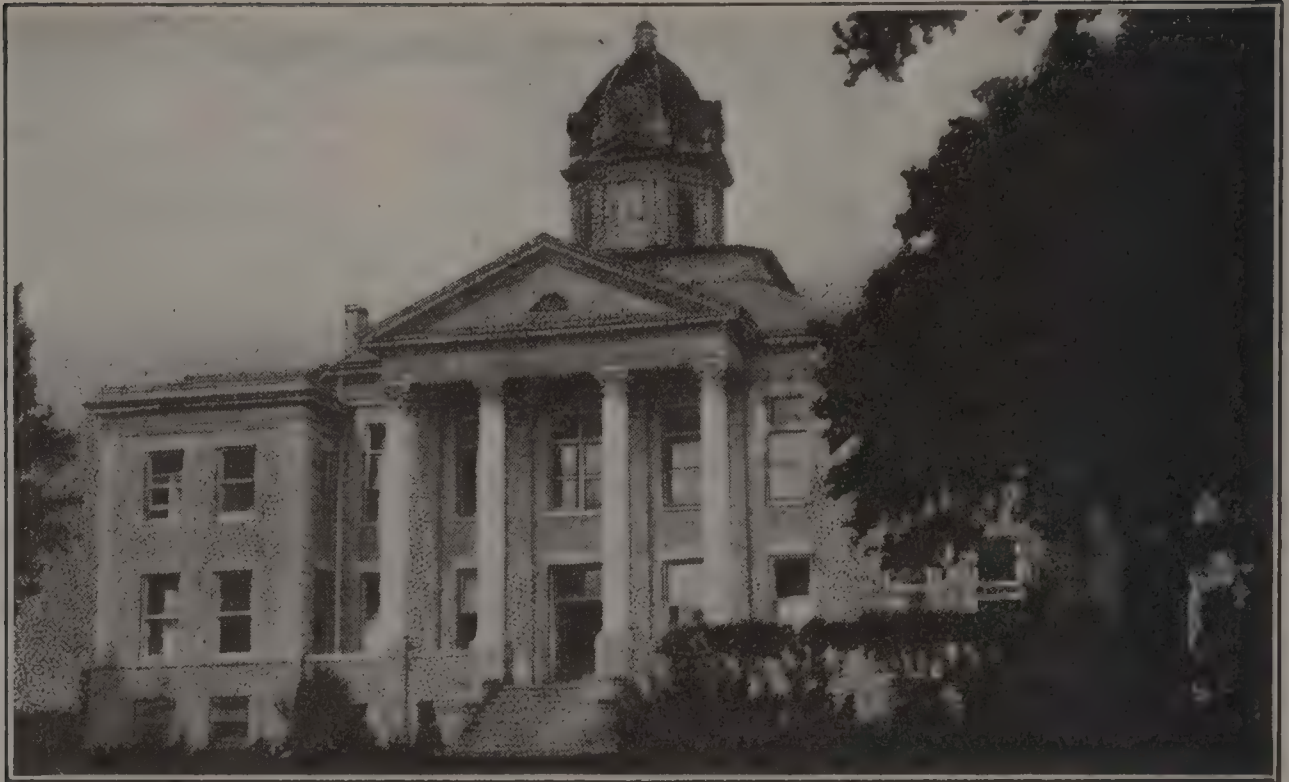

This was the house that was finally built by Benjamin Baker, contractor.

At the January term, 1841, Joseph Sumner and Lott Whiddon were appointed commissioners on courthouse in place of Benjamin Baker and William Fletcher who had become contractors on same.

SECOND COURTHOUSE.

At July term, 1850, Jacob Young, J. E. Bass and George W. Cooper were appointed commissioners to examine the courthouse and take into consideration the necessities of the house and publish same until first Tuesday in August next, then the same to be let out to lowest bidder.

At January term, 1854, it was ordered that new courthouse be built; a good framed house, forty-two feet in length, thirty-six feet in width, one story and a half high.

At September term, 1854, it appears that Loam Brown was the contractor to build new courthouse and that he was paid $400.00 on the contract, in December he was paid $500.00, in March, 1855, he was paid $108.00, in July, 1856, he was paid $215.50.

THIRD COURTHOUSE.

On August 8, 1883, the court of Ordinary passed an order that the old courthouse be sold at public outcry to the highest bidder, after posting notice of sale ten days at courthouse door, the proceeds of sale to be paid to county treasurer requiring purchaser to remove the same and all rubbish off the public square in a reasonable time. It was also ordered that contract be let for building a temporary house to hold public records safe, etc., and offices during time occupied in building said courthouse, which contract was to be let on same day of sale of old courthouse. The contract to build this house was awarded to A. B. Shepley for $31.50, the removal of the old courthouse was let out to John Clements at sum of $40.50.

On June 14, 1883, Jehu Fletcher, Sr., B. H. Shivers, R. W. Clements being appointed a courthouse building committee de-terminated upon and completed the plans and specifications of a new courthouse which were filed in the Ordinary's office at that date. Said committee advertised for bids to be received July 25, 1883, at two o'clock P. M. Mr. A. D. Shepley was awarded the contract to build a courthouse according to plans and specifications at price of $4,080.00.

JAILS.

The first jail built in Irwin County was erected in 1849 and 1850. It was made of logs hewn square about fourteen inches, two stories high; on bottom floor was a dungeon with two layers of hewn logs on all sides with one layer of hewn logs on top with a door in center. The top story was of one layer of hewn logs all around with layer on top. In other words it was four walls of hewn logs on four sides top and bottom all weatherboarded on side with good plank lumber with steps leading up to top story to front door which was built on outside of building with two doors leading into top story. The inside door had a hole just large enough to permit the jailer to hand plate of provisions in to prisoner. This inside door was never unlocked except to take prisoner out of jail or place one in jail. The outside door was of heavy material and in feeding the prisoners it was not necessary for the jailer to expose himself to the prisoners, he would unlock the outside door and pass provisions in through hole to inside door.

George W. Cooper was the contractor to build the jail. The records show that he was paid $740.50 for same and that Jacob Young was paid $30.00 to buy jail locks.

In 1856, a man named Johnson was a prisoner in jail charged with murder, he was taken sick while confined in jail and died and David L. McCall was paid $14.15 for burial expenses. He was buried in the old cemetery in the field near the present Masonic Hall in Irwinville.

Just after the close of the Civil War a Negro, Josh Williams, killed two white men named Dan and Bill Luke. It seemed to be a case of wilful murder. He was arrested and placed in jail and the same night some one set fire to the jail and the Negro and jail were burned. The jailer lived one mile away and no one could render any assistance. The Negro was heard to scream one time. His ashes and bones were gathered and were buried in the old cemetery in field near Masonic lodge.

Another jail was erected on same site as the old one, similar in all respects to the first one that was burned.

In 1876, Joshua Welsh killed a man by the name of Merritt. He was arrested, accused of murder and placed in jail at Irwinville. After being in jail for some time he succeeded in securing one of the small logs used in building the jail down from the wall and using it as a battering ram upon the doors of the jail succeeded in breaking the locks to the doors and made his escape and has never been seen or heard of since. The jailer, Mr. D. M. Hogan, lived a mile away. He made his escape in daylight in the early morning about breakfast time.

The jail was not sealed on the inside but weatherboarded on the outside and there were cracks between the logs about two inches wide. About 1880, there was a Negro in jail charged with some misdemeanor, R. W. Clements was the jailer. One day this Negro was heard screaming and holloing as if all kinds of demons were after him. Mr. Clements hastened to the jail, opened the outside door and asked the Negro what was the trouble and he replied, "There is a rattlesnake in here." Mr. Clements opened the inside door, looked and saw a big rattlesnake as the Negro said but the snake crawled back through a crack in the logs and escaped. The Negro was immediately taken out of the jail and guarded until the jail could be securely sealed on the inside so no snake could possibly get to the inside of the jail where the prisoners were confined.

Later another Negro was placed in jail charged with a misdemeanor. After being confined for some time when Mr. Clements carried him his dinner he complained of being a little sick, the next morning he was no better, at dinner he would not talk to Mr. Clements, only mumble like he was delirious. Mr. Clements opened the inside door to minister to him, just as the inside door was opened the Negro jumped up, ran over Mr. Clements and ran down the steps and off to make his escape, but he being weak from confinement was overtaken by some parties more fleet of foot than himself and returned to jail.

At September term, 1870, of the court of Ordinary, A. P. Clements, D. M. Hogan, Jacob Young, James Fletcher and Jehu Fletcher were appointed commissioners to superintend the building of a good and substantial jail for the county. The third jail built was a modern steel four-cell jail.

In 1890, the Grand Jury in their presentments say: "The gradual growth of our county both in population and wealth with a general mixture of all nations and nationality which naturally breed and bring forth crime of all kind and character, forces us to recommend the proper authorities to have erected a jail for the present and future occasions, one worthy of our county and not a sweat box to punish the unfortunate ones who would be confined there awaiting their trial before the judge and jury.

Consequently a modern two story brick jail with eight steel cells was erected. Cost of this jail was $3,395.00.

FIRST LEGAL HANGING IN IRWIN COUNTY.

At the July term, 1849, an order was passed by the Inferior Court allowing the sheriff, Manassa Henderson, $30.19 for executing a slave, Will Tayler, who belonged to Dennis Tayler, also for coffin, jail fees and maintaining said slave until his execution. On July 2, 1849, W. H. Perkins was paid $2.00 for his services at the trial and on same date M. Henderson, sheriff, was paid $18.00 juries fees on trial of the slave Will Taylor and James C. Fussell and Byrd Fussell eighty-seven and one-half cents for rope and hinges to hang the Negro.

This Negro had been fishing in the Ocmulgee River and on his return home he found the dead body of a man, and Negro like, stopped to examine him. The dead body was afterwards found and the Negro's tracks were there which led to his arrest and conviction. On account of the evidence against him it being circumstantial many people doubted his guilt. He was hung publicly near the present residence of T. E. Lee in Irwinville and was buried there.

SECOND HANGING.

The Grand Jury at the November term, 1897, returned a bill of indictment against Henry Nesbit, a colored man, for murder. He was convicted and sentenced to be hung on the tenth day of December, 1897. He was executed on that day. R. V. Handley was sheriff and the executing officer. One of the largest crowds ever to assemble in Irwinville was present on that day to witness the execution. At the appointed hour he was promptly executed upon a gallows erected in the jail yard at Irwinville. His body was buried in the colored Methodist Church cemetery at Irwinville.

COURTHOUSE REMOVALS.

On August 24, 1897, a petition signed by R. V. Handley and 1800 others was filed in the office of the Ordinary of Irwin County asking for the removal of the courthouse from Irwinville to Fitzgerald. An election was ordered to be held Thursday, October 21, 1897, which resulted in the defeat of Fitzgerald and county courthouse remained at Irwinville.

THE FOUNDING AND SETTLEMENT OF FITZGERALD.

Between the years, 1880 and 1895, Drew Brothers operated a large turpentine distillery in Irwin County and the plant was located where Fitzgerald is now situated. Drew Brothers in addition to the turpentine distilling plant, operated a store, had a number of Negro shanties, a large substantial horse and mule barn and three or four good substantial dwellings, occupied by the owners and other white employees. They employed a large number of Negroes. There was a post office located in the store named Swan. Mail was received twice a week from Irwinville, transported with horse and buggy or road cart. Drew Brothers were honorable gentlemen and successful business men. They owned several thousand acres of land around the little post office of Swan. Covering all this territory at that time, was an unbroken pine forest. The nearest railroad was a line from Abbeville to Lulaville, about six miles north. Lulaville was the home of Hon. R. V. Bowen, who was also engaged in the turpentine and mercantile business.

On July 17, 1895, Drew Brothers sold all their land to a man by the name of Fitzgerald, of Indiana, who bought it as trustee for the American Tribune Soldiers Colony Company. This was an organization which had been thoroughly advertised as a federal old soldier colony, the advertisement proclaiming that land and homes could be secured very cheap; shares in the company were sold which entitled the shareholder to draw for lots ranging from five to twenty acres each or city lots. The city of Fitzgerald was laid out, the land outside of the town site was surveyed into lots of five acres each, nearest the town and those a little farther away into ten-acre tracts, while those farthest away were surveyed into twenty-acre tracts. All this while extensive advertising was being carried on, attracting the attention of a large number of the old Union soldiers as well as others to this land of milk and honey where homes were cheap, a climate unsurpassed, away from the rigors of the extreme cold weather of other sections, where a man could work out doors every day in the year. In fact this country was painted in such glowing language until very few who heard or saw it could resist the temptation to invest their money and come and see the country. This was done, they came by every means of travel known in that day. They came in wagons from almost every state in the Union. Many shipped their belongings to the nearest railroad station and getting from thereon to the new town as best they could. Arriving at the place, accommodations, such as living quarters, were few and many lived in their wagons or tents until they could provide something better. Soon small sawmills were erected in this body of timber and began to manufacture lumber which was so badly needed by these first colonists to erect some kind of shelter for their loved ones. These first settlers used anything obtainable in the shape of lumber to erect their first building. Many built their first houses of slabs which heretofore had been burned in the slab pit of the sawmills as being of no earthly use. Houses of all kinds were erected of this material, stores, dwellings, barns, etc. In fact it was once called Slab Town. Irwin County at that time was in a manner sparsely settled, still there were quite a few people here, many who were well-to-do farmers and stock raisers, having excellent homes for that day. This new town and colony springing up almost over night was quite a curiosity to them, a place to visit, consequently on Sunday afternoons many would drive over to investigate. It was a popular drive for courting couples or for a young man to take his best girl sight seeing. The natives were a curiosity to the newcomers, as one of the early colonists told me that when he came down here he thought no people were in this country except probably a very few scattered squatters, that he was never more surprised on his first Sunday at his new home to see quite a number of top buggies, with fat, sleek horses pulling them, filled with well dressed intelligent looking people whom he learned were natives living in the adjoining neighborhoods.

The people who owned the railroad from Abbeville to Lula-ville seeing so much progress at the new town decided to extend their line not only to the new town of Fitzgerald, but south ten miles to Ocilla, Georgia.

The Colony Company, after completing all surveys, finally had their lottery or drawing for lots, both city and country and all those who owned shares secured their lots and began making improvements thereon. The first settlers of this colony were largely Federal ex-soldiers, but quite a number were younger men from all parts of the union with a sprinkling of Southerners. As is usually the case with boom towns, or settlements, there came all classes of people and Fitzgerald was no exception to this rule; many came who were not desirable but a numerous host came who were honorable, upright gentlemen and ladies and made good citizens. Quite a few of the undesirable settlers were soon tired of their new environment and moved away to the delight of the better element of the colony and citizens of the county.

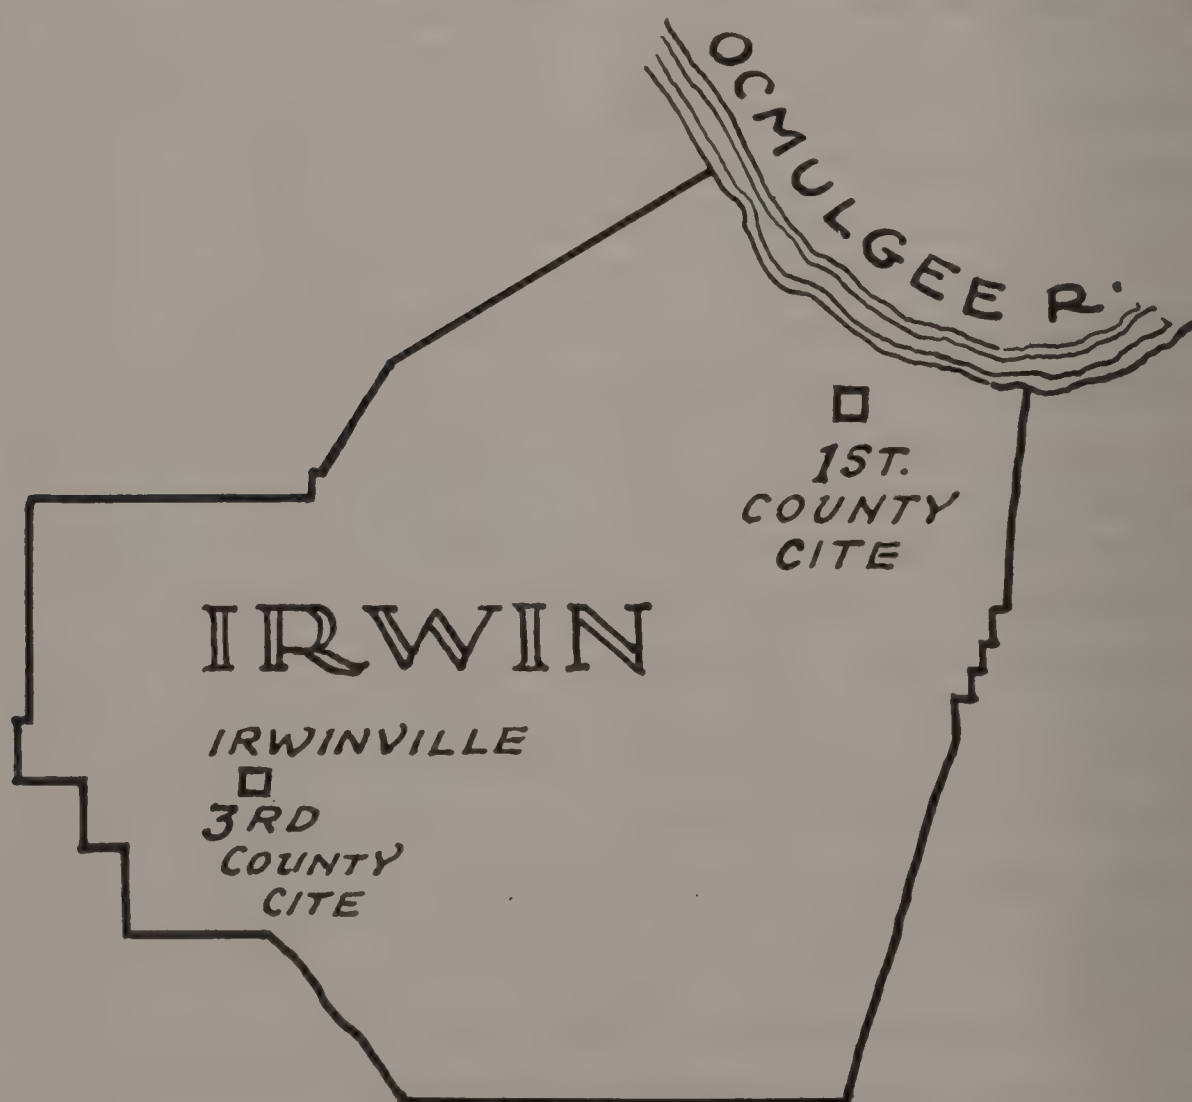

At the time of the settling of this colony there was a local law of force in the county of Irwin prohibiting the sale of whiskey, soon this law was openly violated by many and the violators were brought before the court, convicted, but the cases were carried to the higher courts and the law declared unconstitutional and defendants were allowed to go free. For quite a while after this the sale of whiskey was indulged in, in Fitzgerald, Ocilla and Irwinville until the sale was outlawed in the State of Georgia.

At this writing many of the descendants of the original colonists reside in and around Fitzgerald and this territory can boast of as good citizenry as any section upon the globe.

About same time railroad was extended from Lula-ville to Fitzgerald and Ocilla, the Tifton and Northeastern Railroad was extended into Fitzgerald which gave them two separate lines of railroad and removed the difficulty of transportation and greatly encouraged new enterprises of all character as well as an inducement to new settlers.

TIFT COUNTY CREATED.

An act approved by the Legislature August 17, 1905, provided for the creation of Tift County as follows: Beginning at northwest corner of lot of land number sixty-nine in sixth district of Irwin County and following the land line to the northeast corner of lot number sixty in sixth district of Irwin County, thence south to southwest corner of lot number eighty in sixth district of Irwin County, thence east to southeast corner of lot number eighty-one in sixth district, thence south to southwest corner of lot number one hundred and three in said sixth district, thence east to the Alapaha River, thence along the Alapaha River to where the south line of lot number two hundred and thirty-three in sixth district of Irwin intersects with said river, thence south along east line of number two hundred and seventy-four, thence west to southeast corner of lot number two hundred and seventy-two in sixth district of Irwin, thence south to the southeast corner of lot number two hundred and seventy-three in sixth district of Berrien, thence west to the southeast corner of lot number four hundred and nine, thence south to southwest corner of lot number two hundred and nine, thence south to southeast corner of lot number four hundred and twenty-one, thence west to southwest corner of four hundred and twenty one, thence south to southeast corner of lot four hundred and fifty-three, thence west to southwest corner of four hundred and fifty-three, thence south to southeast corner of four hundred and sixty-nine, thence west to southwest corner of lot number four hundred and sixty-nine, thence south to southeast corner of four hundred and ninety-seven, thence west to southwest corner of four hundred and ninety-seven, thence south to south line of sixth district Berrien County, thence west to west line of sixth district of Worth County, thence north along district line between sixth and seventh district, Worth County, to southwest corner of lot of land number two hundred and seven in seventh district, Worth County, thence north to northwest corner of lot number two hundred and fifty-four in seventh district, Worth, thence east to said district line, thence north along said district line to starting point.

TURNER COUNTY CREATED.

An act approved by the Legislature August 18, 1905, created Turner County: Beginning at a point wherè the lot line between lots number twenty-four and sixty-nine in sixth district of Worth County intersect with Irwin line between Worth and Irwin counties in Little River, thence west along the south line of number twenty-four to the southwest corner being on district line between sixth and seventh districts Worth County, thence south along district line to center of Daniels Creek cornering at junction of said district line and said creek, thence up said creek to district line between second and seventh districts Worth County, thence west along said district line between second and seventh district and between sixteenth and seventeenth districts of Worth County to southwest corner of lot two hundred and nine in sixteenth district Worth County, thence north of the land line through sixteenth and fourteenth districts Worth County to where same intersects present line between Worth and Dooly counties in Swift Creek on line between lots two hundred and five and two hundred and six in fourteenth district Worth County, thence in a northwesterly direction down Swift Creek to south line of lot one hundred and eighty, the greater part of which is in fourteenth district Dooly County, thence east the line between fourteenth and thirteenth districts of Dooly County to where lots number one hundred and ninety-two and one hundred and ninety-three in thirteenth district Dooly County, corner on present boundary of Dooly and Wilcox, thence along the Dooly and Wilcox County line north to northwest corner of lot three hundred and seven in twelfth district of Wilcox County, thence east of twelfth district line of Wilcox to northeast corner of three hundred and one in said district, thence beginning at northwest corner of lot number two hundred and fifty-four in second district Wilcox and running east along land line to a point in Alapaha River to where it crosses land line dividing lot number five in first district from number two hundred and fifty-eight in second district Wilcox County, thence a southeast direction along the Alapaha to line between one hundred and five and seventy-six in third district Irwin, thence west to land line in third district Irwin to southwest corner number one hundred and twenty-one in second district Irwin, thence south the land line to southeast corner of lot thirty-three in sixth district of Irwin, thence west the land line to the starting point.

BEN HILL COUNTY CREATED.

An act of the Legislature approved July 31, 1906. Beginning at the point where south line of lot number one hundred and sixty-seven in third district Wilcox County crosses the Alapaha River and running east along south line to northeast corner of lot one hundred and fifty-nine in third district Irwin, thence north to northeast corner of number one hundred and seventy-two in third Wilcox, thence east to northeast corner number one hundred and seventy-four in third district Irwin, thence south to northeast corner of number one hundred and fifty-seven in third district Irwin and thence east to northeast corner of number one hundred and fifty-six in third district, thence south to northeast corner of sixty-six in third district Irwin, thence east to northeast corner number sixty-two in third district Irwin, thence south to northeast corner number thirty-two in third district Irwin, thence east to southeast corner of number two hundred and thirty-three in fourth district Irwin, thence north to southwest corner number two hundred and six in fourth district Irwin, thence east to southeast corner of thirty-nine in fourth district Irwin, thence north to east line of number thirty-nine to Ocmulgee River, thence westerly along Ocmulgee to point where House Creek empties into Ocmulgee, thence westerly along House Creek where it crosses north line of two hundred and fifty-five in third District Wilcox, thence west along north line of two hundred and fifty-five and district lines between first and third districts in Wilcox County to Alapaha River, thence in a southerly direction along the Alapaha to starting point.

OCILLA.

Prior to the opening of the turpentine distillery by Drew Brothers, at Swan, Hon. J. A. J. Henderson bought lots of land number forty-two and forty-three in fifth district Irwin County, Georgia, upon which the town of Ocilla is located. He there engaged in farming, stock raising, merchandising and owned a water gristmill. Later he entered into the manufacturing of spirits of turpentine and resin. He was one of the most public-spirited and far-seeing men who ever lived in Irwin

County. He was largely interested in securing the extension of railroad from Lulaville through Fitzgerald south to his place, the present site of Ocilla. Soon through his influence a very large sawmilling plant, Smith Thomas & Company, was erected at Ocilla and this place began to grow and flourish and was soon recognized as the rival of the neighboring city of Fitzgerald. It was the rival not only in a business way but also its rival in desiring courthouse. Each recognized the fact that conditions would have to change if either ever secured a courthouse and the solution to the question was the creation of new counties, taking from the county of Irwin quite a bit of its territory west of and surrounding Irwinville, making additional counties, leaving the remainder in such shape, with territory taken from near Irwinville, as to secure the required results; whereupon Tift and Turner counties were created, taking a very large amount of territory from Irwin. Next Ben Hill County was created largely out of Irwin County territory, making Fitzgerald the county site, giving them their long cherished desire, a courthouse. This left the old county site on one side of the county with the line of Turner County seven miles on the west, the line of Tift the same distance on the southwest, the line of Ben Hill five and a half northeast, all caused by adherents of county sites for Tifton, Ashburn, Fitzgerald and Ocilla.

A petition with requisite number of voters' names was filed with the Ordinary requesting an election upon the question of removal of a courthouse from Irwinville to Ocilla. An election was ordered. At the time of this election the courthouse was new and in a state of good repair. The jail was almost new, a brick building with steel cells, water works, sewerage, etc. Numerous charges of irregularities were made by both parties to the controversy. It was alleged by the Irwinville supporters that voters' list showed there were cast in favor of removal

1564 votes, 1,022 of whom were Negroes, that 795 of this number did not give in or pay poll tax for the year 1906 in Irwin County and were not citizens of the county at the time of the election. It was further alleged that one hundred and forty-seven voted in favor of removal to Ocilla who had never registered as required by law, that a number voted under assumed names. It was a very stubbornly fought election on both sides. The matter was carried before the Secretary of State and from him to Legislature, still despite a stubborn fight on the part of Irwinville adherents, the Legislature voted to move the county site from Irwinville to Ocilla where it is at this time.

This election caused untold political and personal strife and my advice to all communities is to avoid if possible courthouse removal wrangles as they cause dissensions it takes years to remove. It arrayed personal and political friends against each other which only time can heal. I am happy to state that Irwin County has recovered from her latest removal quarrel, we are at peace with one another and I trust no remnant of the last removal question rankles in the heart of either foe or friend.

From presentments of Grand Jury at March term, 1910, it appears that the present courthouse cost the county $52,641.00 and the land upon which it and the jail is situated cost $2,500.00.

CHAPTER 13.

COUNTY COURT.

At the October term, 1892, of the Superior Court of Irwin County, the Grand Jury recommended the establishment of a county court and recommended that the county authorities arrange with suitable parties to create a chain gang and elected or recommended the appointment of J. B. Clements as county judge which appointment was made by Governor Northern.

In view of the fact that the writer of this sketch was judge of this court for sixteen years, I shall only give the findings of the various Grand Juries in reference to said court.

The first Solicitor of the county court was the Honorable Tom Eason, Solicitor-General of the Oconee Circuit, who was a fearless prosecuting officer, a thorough gentleman and fulfilled the duties of the office in a most creditable manner.

At the October term, 1893, the Grand Jury had this to say in reference to the County Court in their general presentments: "We find the books of this officer neatly and correctly kept, with proper entries showing the amount of money received from fines and forfeitures and proper vouchers showing disposition of same. In view of the fact that the County Court has been recently established we have tried to be thorough in our investigation and have compared this court with our Superior Court.

"We find that our County Judge, J. B. Clements, has received from fines and forfeitures and the hire of misdemeanor convicts the sum of $2,087.81; of this amount, $166.64 was received for hire of four Superior Court convicts, which amount was paid to Tom Eason, Solicitor-General, Superior Court, leaving a balance arising from fines and forfeitures and hire of County Court convicts the sum of $1,921.17.

"We find he has paid costs to various county officers for costs, the sum of $1,152.90, leaving a balance of $768.27, which has been paid into the county treasury for all of which county judge has proper vouchers.

"There has been disposed of in County Court forty civil cases and seventy-seven criminal cases making a total of one hundred seventeen cases disposed of.

“There is but little business on the dockets in shape to be disposed of. By reference to county commissioners’ books, the court has cost including judge’s salary, jury and bailiff fees, in fact, total cost has been for whole time County Court has been in operation the sum of $409.86, leaving a net balance clear profit to the county of $358.41. Thus we see County Court has disposed of one hundred seventeen cases, has cost our county nothing, or has paid all expenses and has balance to its credit of more than enough to pay county judge’s salary for next twelve months. Further, we find that the jail fees are carefully looked after and collected by county judge and paid back into county treasury.”

October adjourned term, 1894, County Court after paying all costs turned into county treasury, $967.71.

At November term, 1896, the Grand Jury reported County Court had paid all expenses and had paid into county treasury a net amount of $2,073.03.

At April term, 1898, general presentments show that county judge, after paying all expense of the court, turned into county treasury, $1,046.69.

At same term Grand Jury recommended appointment of W. F. Way as Solicitor of County Court. Colonel Tom Eason had been Solicitor from court’s establishment until this time.

At November term, 1898, Grand Jury reported county judge had paid into county treasury over and above all expenses the sum of $719.83.

At October term, 1900, the Grand Jury reported that county court Judge, J. B. Clements, had paid into county treasury after all costs had been paid the sum of $560.01.

At September term, 1901, Grand Jury presentments say: “J. B. Clements, our model county judge, made his report to our body as the law directs, showing the court during the last twelve months has contributed to county revenues the net sum of $1,772.29. We congratulate the judge and our people upon this excellent showing, embodying his report as a part of our general presentments and ask its careful perusal by the taxpayers of the county.”

At September term, 1902, the Grand Jury reported that county judge, from September 7, 1901, to August 30, 1902, after paying all costs of court, had turned over to treasurer, $1,738.27 net.

At April term, 1903, the Grand Jury returned the following presentments: "We find only one quarterly term case undisposed of and two monthly term cases. On criminal docket forty undisposed of cases. Of this number twenty-eight have not been arrested. This is evidence to the taxpayers of the county that county judge is active in the discharge of his official duties and from the financial record of this court as is shown below is further evidence which no doubt will be appreciated by the people. There was received from September 1, 1902, to September 2, 1903, $5,050.92. Paid out all cost which was $2,044.13, leaving a net balance turned over to county treasurer, $3,006.79."

During the year, 1904, County Court paid to treasury over expenses, $363.85.

At September term, 1905, there was no tax collected for coroner or County Court as this court was self-sustaining; no tax ever being levied for its support except first year which was not needed or used for said purpose.

These presentments also show the County Court after paying all expenses up to August 26, 1905, has paid into treasury a net amount of $6,805.20.

Same presentments have this to say in reference to judge of County Court: "County Judge Clements' records are nicely kept and no suggestions could be made, whereby any improvements could be made."

At September term, 1906, Grand Jury presentments state County Court has paid into treasury, $1,005.75, after paying all expenses of the court.

At September term, 1907, the following appears in Grand Jury presentments: "We find that the present term of J. B. Clements, Judge of our County Court, will expire during the coming fall. We therefore unanimously request and recommend that this efficient officer, who has so faithfully and ably filled this important office ever since its creation, fifteen years ago, be made his own successor if he will accept the position."

At September term, 1908, the following appears in general presentments: "We, the Grand Jury, looking to the best interests of the county, respectfully ask that our Governor Hoke Smith appoint Judge J. B. Clements, Judge of County Court of Irwin County.

"County judge paid into treasury, $633.36 above expenses."

At March term, 1909, the Grand Jury recommended abolishment of County Court and establishment of City Court.

Honorable R. M. Bryson was appointed Judge for the County Court which position he filled from January 1, 1909, to August, 1909, when, by act of the Legislature, the County Court was abolished and the City Court of Ocilla was established in its stead with Honorable H. E. Oxford, Judge of said court from August, 1909, to January 1, 1913, when this court was abolished and the City Court of Irwin County established with Honorable Philip Newbern, Judge from January 1, 1913, to August, 1915, when the City Court of Irwin County was abolished by act of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 14.

CHURCHES—NEW HOPE, BRUSHY CREEK, BETHLEHEM, MOUNT ZION, RICHARDSON AND UNION CHURCHES AND GILDERS BLUFF.

One of the oldest churches in originally Irwin County is New Hope Primitive Baptist Church, which is located about two miles south of Abbeville, Georgia, now Wilcox County, on the Dixie Highway, leading from Abbeville to Fitzgerald, Ben Hill County, Georgia. This church was constituted in July, 1830.

The presbytery or ministers in the constitution of this church were Wilson Conner, David Wood and Jordan Baker.

The minutes of the church from its constitution to April 30, 1842, a period of twelve years, have been lost. There is a list of those belonging to the church on March 5, 1842, which is as follows:

M. Adams, Mary Adams, Jacob Barrentine, Elizabeth Barrentine, Samuel Brown, James Brown, Susan Brown, James D. Brown, Elizabeth Brown, Lewis Ball, Nancy Ball, Elizabeth Davis, Joseph Davis, Elizabeth Davis, Jr., Mary Fitzgerald, John Fitzgerald, Matilda Fitzgerald, Thomas Gibbs, Nancy Gibbs, John Gibbs, Rebecca Gibbs, Stephen Godwin, Ruthie Gibbs, Josiah Keen, Elizabeth Keen, Sarah Luke, Nancy Luke, Elizabeth McCall, Alice Miller, Penelope McCormick, Abigale McDuffie, Jeremiah Mathews, David E. McAnaly, Eden McAnaly, Anderson Miller, Amy Miller, James McGee, Frances McGee, George R. Reid, Celia Reid, Jacob Roads, Drewry Reaves, Elizabeth Reaves, Sarah Statum, James Smith, John Tomberlin, Elizabeth Tomberlin, Lemuel Tayler, Rebecca Tayler, Dennis Tayler, Seaborn Tayler, Jinsey Tayler, Joe, a black man.

It was at New Hope Church, where the first split in the Primitive Baptist denomination occurred. This split or division was over the question of foreign missions. Some favored foreign missions while others as vigorously opposed the same which resulted in a division in the church. Those favoring foreign missions withdrew from the church and formed a Missionary Baptist Church, while those opposing foreign missions remained in the old line Primitive Baptist Church. This question of missions was the only question dividing them as both had the same articles of faith and practices in the church, both having the same mode of baptism, same mode in administering the Lord's Supper, and both practicing foot washing and using the same discipline. The following brethren served the church as pastors:

Richard M. Tucker, 1842.

Joseph Davis also preached at this church in 1842, 1843.

James Stevens preached in 1843, also E. Hunter, Drewery Reaves and Richard Tucker.

On May 21, 1864, a charge was preferred against George R. Reid for affiliating himself with the Masonic lodge and the following conference on June 25, 1864, he was excommunicated from the church. He had been a faithful brother in the church, one of its deacons, and the church's clerk for a number of years. This was a clear case of convicting a man for something they knew nothing of, as if they were Christian themselves, they were as guilty as Brother Reid, as all Christians, if genuine, are Masons whether they have ever seen a Masonic lodge or not. On the other hand all Masons are not Christians.

On November 21, 1867, Joseph Davis was excommunicated, being charged with intoxication, profane swearing and adultery. At the same time a charge was preferred against Caroline Gibbs for being baptized and received into the Missionary church and joining this church on the wrong understanding of the case, for which she was excommunicated.

On December 7, 1874, a charge was preferred against George R. Reid for joining one of the institutions of the day and at the following conference in January, 1875, he was excommunicated.

On January 6, 1877, Brinkley Bishop joined the church and the following appears on the minutes: He, Bishop, was received into this body upon confession of faith, he being heretofore a member of Brushy Creek Church, which was cut off from the association on account of their not being sound in faith. Brother Brinkley Bishop, not being satisfied, would not attend their church and consequently was excommunicated from their body.

On March 31, 1877, this appears upon the minutes of the church: The disturbance between Brinkley Bishop and his wife, Eady Bishop, was brought up and a committee was appointed to confer with both parties. On March 31, 1877, this committee reported that they found nothing unchristian-like in Eady Bishop and she was retained in the church. Charges were preferred against Brinkley Bishop for falsehood and having disrespectful chat about his wife and he was excommunicated. Later on he was indicted by the Grand Jury of Irwin County for beating his wife and he spent several months in jail in Irwinville, Georgia, for said offense.

April 5, 1890, James Mixon was excommunicated.

June 30, 1896, F. M. Gibbs was excommunicated on account of secret order.

July 7, 1907, W. A. McCall was excommunicated.

March, 1910, James Gibbs was excommunicated for non-attendance.

July 4, 1902, John DeLoach was excommunicated for joining the Masons.

At the annual meeting, August 3, 1850, there were four letters received from other churches which were read and the messengers received, to wit: Cedar Creek, Dooly County, Messengers, Jacob Taylor and John C. Ryals. Young Meeting House, in Irwin County, Messengers, James Paulk and John Dorminy. Mount Olive, Dooly County, Messengers, Roubin Blanket and Resa Musselwhite. Emmues, Dooly County, Messengers, Moses Pipkin and Thomas Musselwhite.

Brushy Creek Primitive Baptist Church.

On August 5, 1853, a letter was received at the hands of Andrew Hobby and Lott Whiddon requesting ministerial aid to constitute a church at Henderson's Meeting House in Irwin County which was unanimously agreed to by the church.

On December 27, 1862, a petition was presented the church by John Gibbs and Lewis Ball for an arm of the church to be extended to a house at William Gibbs' old place to receive members, which was granted by the church.

DORMINY'S MEETING HOUSE, YOUNG'S MEETING HOUSE AND BRUSHY CREEK.

The second oldest church in Irwin County was Dorminy's Meeting House which was constituted December 17, 1831. It was constituted one mile northwest of Irwinville, near the residence at that time of John B. Dorminy, Sr., the father of John B. Dorminy who was the father of Willis, Jacob, Elijah, William, Jack, S. S. and A. S. Dorminy. John B. Dorminy, Sr., was also the father of Judie Dorminy who was the wife of Lott Whiddon. The church was constituted on the lot of land originally settled by Lott Whiddon, Mr. Dorminy having bought it from Mr. Whiddon. The church was located upon lot of land number forty-one in third district Irwin County, Georgia. There is a very old cemetery near where the old church was located. It was in this old cemetery that Mr. John Dorminy, Sr., and his wife, along with other old settlers, were buried. This man was the first Dorminy to settle in originally Irwin County, many of whose descendants are now residing in Irwin, Ben Hill, Turner and Berrien counties, to wit: The Dorminys, Fletchers, Whiddons, Hendersons, Paulks, Clements, Branches, Harpers and many others.

The presbytery or elders constituting the church were Rev. J. Baker and Rev. John Marshall and it was a Primitive Baptist Church. The old record contained the original articles of faith and the church's decorum, which were read at the constitution, agreed to by those of same faith and order, then the presbytery called for the church letters and constituted the church with the following members: John Dorminy, Sr., Rachel Dorminy, Samuel Goff, Tobitha Goff, Susan Jernigan, Richard Tucker, Thomas Wooddard, Nancy Wooddard, Sarah Smith.

It appears from the old records that for the first few years there was no regular pastor for the church. The first church clerk was John Dorminy, Sr.

The first to join the church after its constitution were Katherine Willis and Elizabeth Jane Young who joined by experience on March 17, 1832.

The following gentlemen served as pastors of this church: Archibald Odom, February 21, 1835.

William Knight, was chosen as pastor March 26, 1836. William Thigpen preached June 26, 1836, using as a text thirteenth verse of thirteenth chapter of Paul's first epistle to the Corinthians.

J. E. W. Smith was called as pastor November 21, 1836. Joel Pate preached July 22, 1837.

J. E. W. Smith called as pastor January 27, 1838. Richard Tucker was licensed to preach or exercise his gift where he should see proper January 27, 1838.

J. E. W. Smith was called as pastor December 22, 1838, and January 24, 1840. Crofford Tucker, Richard Tucker and Rev. Smith preached June 27, 1840. Henry C. Tucker, Richard Tucker and Rev. Smith preached January 23, 1841.

At same conference it was agreed to have Richard Tucker ordained on Saturday before fourth Sunday in March, 1841, and to ask the churches at Bethel, Sardis and Union for ministerial aid. Richard Tucker was ordained as a minister on May 22, 1841, and the presbytery in the ordination were Elders J. E. Smith, Henry C. Tucker and William A. Knight.

J. E. W. Smith was called as pastor January 3, 1843.

Richard M. Tucker was called as pastor January 24, 1846, and December 26, 1846.

March 27, 1847, the church, believing there was a gift among them in the person of Richard Hall, set him at liberty to speak when he thought proper. January 27, 1849, upon motion of James Paulk, Richard Hall was licensed to preach.

Richard M. Tucker called as pastor January 18, 1850, January 14, 1851, January 23, 1852, January 14, 1853, and January 19, 1855.

February 24, 1855, it was agreed to be proper to have Richard Hall ordained as a minister and the time set for the ordination was Saturday before the fourth Sunday in April. On April 29, 1855, Richard Hall was ordained to preach and Cornelius Buie and Richard M. Tucker were the presbytery.

R. M. Tucker was called as pastor January 15, 1858. Charles Roberts was granted license to preach June 26, 1858.

Richard M. Tucker was called as pastor January 14, 1859. September 24, 1859, Charles Roberts was ordained to preach, presbytery R. M. Tucker and Ansel Parish.

R. M. Tucker was called as pastor January 13, 1860, January 17, 1862, January 23, 1863, January 15, 1864, January 13, 1865. July 21, 1865, the church licensed Jacob Young to preach.

R. M. Tucker was called as pastor January 19, 1866. February 24, 1866, it was agreed to ordain Jacob Young to preach. April 21, 1866, Jacob Young was ordained to preach, presbytery R. M. Tucker and C. Buie.

MINUTES.

December 22, 1860, James Paulk, Sr., James Paulk, Jr., and George Paulk were appointed committee to talk to John B. Dorminy concerning the Masonic fraternity.

July 27, 1867, letters from Ty Ty and Mount Olive were rejected upon grounds of their holding members in disorder.

January 25, 1879, annual meeting time changed to fourth Sunday in September.

June 26, 1880, on motion the church took up the acts of the convention at this place in 1875 in regard to resolutions passed by that body; whereupon it is resolved by this church that the acts and doings of said convention together with the thirteenth article annexed to our faith be and is hereby set aside and is to be void. Be it further resolved, that it is not the sense nor intention of this body in setting aside the above articles referred to, to cause any breach with any of our sister churches in whom we are in correspondence with, who deem it necessary to hold the above articles and retain them.

January 27, 1885, the time of annual meeting changed to fourth Sunday in July.

December 27, 1890, a circular letter was prepared by a committee of the church to the churches of same faith and order suggesting the forming of annual union meeting among them. This suggestion was agreed to by the churches and the union was formed and first meeting of the kind was held at Brushy Creek Church on the fifth Sabbath, Friday and Saturday before in July, 1891.

March 25, 1905, the following members were reported dead: James Paulk, Mary Burns, Jane J. Mixon, Dora Purvis, Fereby A. Henderson, Archibald McMillan, Margaret McMillan, Phoebe Paulk, Charles M. Tucker and Mary V. Henderson.

OZIAS CHURCH.

Ozias Church was constituted July 14, 1832. The presbytery constituting the church were Elder Wilson Conner and Elder John Martial. It was constituted with seven members to wit: John McDonald, Randal McDonald, Elijah Hunter, Penelope Hunter, Catherine McCall, Mary McDonald, Elizabeth McDonald.

This church was originally a Primitive Baptist Church and Redding Hunter was the church's clerk and in 1849 his house was burned and the records were destroyed. On November 10, 1856, in conference the older heads of the church prepared a short history of the church from its constitution to that date which was approved by the church as being correct which is substantially as follows: Randall McDonald was first called to the pastoral care of the church, then Levi Bush, next Wilson Conner, next Abiger Horn, next Berry Hobbs, then David Rialls. While Rialls was pastor the membership increased to twenty-two and about the year 1844, nine members withdrew from the church and joined in the constitution of Mount Zion Church, later several more withdrew and joined Mount Zion Church and in 1848 the number had decreased so much there were few members left. About this time the church withdrew from the Houston Association on account of its joining the Georgia Baptist Convention and was opposed to missions. Warren Dikes was pastor. In 1851, they had no pastor. In 1852, while W. F. Willis was the missionary for the Houston Association through his labor the church became reconciled and became a member of the association with only six members and his labors were blessed and several were added to the church, one of whom was Hardy Hunter, Sr., and in 1854 he was ordained a deacon. For four years he has served the church as pastor (1856), baptized fifteen, some joined by letter making the membership in 1855, twenty-seven, which number was reduced in 1856 to fourteen members.

In 1853 W. F. Willis was pastor, Hardy Hunter was appointed deacon October 7, 1854, R. F. Hunter was appointed clerk May 7, 1853.

The following persons joined Ozias Church by experience of grace, confession of faith and letter: Eliza Goff, September 10, 1853; James F. Goff, October 8, 1853; Wyly F. Willis and wife by letter May 7, 1853; Samuel Goff was restored to membership August 12, 1853.

On September 10, 1853, a resolution was offered to move the house of worship to a more suitable place, more convenient to the members and at a point where larger congregations would assemble and it was resolved to build a new house in the fork of House Creek on the sand hill and W. F. Willis, C. M. Powers and Hardy Hunter, Sr., were appointed a committee to aid in the building.

On February 11, 1854, James F. Goff was dismissed by letter; on March 11, 1854, Robert Newberry was restored to membership.

At a conference held on March 11, 1854, it was agreed to change the name of the church from Ozias to Bethlehem.

RICHARDSON METHODIST CHURCH.

An act of the Legislature approved December 28, 1843, provided that John Henderson, Jacob Matchett, William Fussell, Woodson Willcox, Josiah Pane, William M. Kennedy and Thomas L. Willcox be and they are hereby declared to be a body corporate under the name and style of the trustees of the Richardson Methodist Episcopal Camp Ground in Irwin County, Georgia. This camp ground was located upon what is now the lands of W. M. Fussell upon land lot number thirty-two in the fourth district of Irwin County, Georgia.

UNION METHODIST CHURCH.

The Union Methodist Church was one of the old churches of the county; it was on the south side of Sturgeon Creek in the fourth district of originally Irwin County. The cemetery is very old, the church has been moved. William Fussell, one of the original settlers of the county was buried there in 1861, Mr. Fussell was the grandfather of W. B. (Tuggin Fussell's grandfather). There are many old graves there, but no signs of headboards or stones to tell the names.

GILDER'S BLUFF.

This is a bluff on the Ocmulgee River, located upon lands of Son A. Fussell in the fourth district of originally Irwin County, also the old Sloan burying ground and it is supposed that William Sloan and John S. Gilder, two of the original settlers, prominent in their day are buried there as there are several graves but no headstones.

MOUNT ZION OR SPECTACLE CHURCH.

An act of the Legislature approved January 26, 1850, incorporated Mount Zion Church in Irwin County and appointed the following trustees, to wit: James L. Willcox, Miles Fitzgerald, Richard J. Young, James Mixon and Owen D. Mulkey. This church is known as Spectacle Church on account of two ponds of water which are divided by a strip of high land dividing them from which the name Spectacle was given. This church is still in existence at the same site and services are regularly conducted there. There are two very old cemeteries there, one for colored people and one for white. James L. Willcox, one of the pioneers of the county, is buried there.

METHODIST CHURCHES.

The Methodists must have been in Irwin County as early as the Baptists if not earlier. Smith's History of Methodism in Georgia and Florida states that in the year 1820, Reverend Burnett, who was in the Wiregrass country and whose health had failed him retired and James Norton took his place. Norton had been the pioneer in this region years before and had first proclaimed the gospel to its scattered inhabitants.

The pay of these preachers at this time was $80 per annum which was increased to $100 per annum about the year 1823. The circuits were large and laborious, many consisting of twenty-eight appointments for twenty-eight days, a distance from twelve to eighteen miles was between these appointments. There were no church houses but services were held at the home of some settler where those living in reach assembled for preaching, then the preacher rode horseback to the next appointment. A short while after the appointment of Reverend James Norton to the Wiregrass section one new circuit was made in the Wiregrass country called the Alapaha Circuit. This circuit joined the Little Ocmulgee on the north and extended to the Florida line on the south. J. J. Driggs, an Englishman by birth, was in charge of it. The population was sparse and the rides long. The people of the circuit were very poor, living in log huts and often during cold winter nights the wind poured in upon the heads of the sleepers all night long. Oftentimes in windy weather the wind blew down the large sticks and dirt chimneys and mixed lumps of clay and soot with the food. The settlers were very hospitable and served the preachers with the best they could provide. About the year 1832 the State of Florida was divided into two districts, the Tallahassee and the St. Augustine and all or a large part of Southern Georgia was included in the St. Augustine District of Florida. The preachers on this hard work were all single men. John W. Yarborough was sent to the Irwin Mission. He was a young man just from the mountains and first appointment was for the Irwin Mission in Irwin County. The author of Smith's History states that in 1866 he rode seventeen miles through Irwin County without seeing a single dwelling or a living thing save a deer leaping through the woods, and that was thirty years after Yarbrough was sent on the Irwin Mission. At that early time there were not many Methodists in Irwin County, still along the Ocmulgee River there were quite a few of this faith. The presiding elder was a man named Talley. He traveled on horseback from the Flint River to the Okefenokee Swamp and from the Gulf coast for over one hundred miles northward into South Georgia. The difficulties of travel were very great and the privations demanded of the severest kind. There was probably not a bridge in the whole district. The streams often in winter times were swollen to such an extent until the preacher in crossing would have to swim his horse. The home in which he reposed his weary limbs was a pole cabin with clapboard roof and a dirt floor.

About the year 1840 the Georgia territory in the bounds of the Florida Conference was supplied by seven preachers. Simon Peter Richardson was a presiding elder and his district extended from Brunswick, Georgia, to St. Augustine, Florida, and from the Atlantic Ocean to Albany, Georgia. Originally Irwin County was in his district and it was for this presiding elder the Richardson Methodist Camp Ground in Irwin County was named, which camp ground was incorporated by the Legislature in 1843.

None of the Georgia territory at present time belong to the Florida Conference as it is now a part of the South Georgia Conference. At this writing there are many Methodists in Irwin County and they have some very beautiful church houses.

In the early days there were some Methodist churches near the Ocmulgee River in Irwin County, one of which was Georgia's Chapel, another Union, and the Richardson's Camp Ground. There was a Methodist church in the second district of Irwin County on the west side of the Alapaha River called Clements and Walker School House. It was located between the residences of A. P. Clements and Jack Walker and for quite a while prior to the Civil War was served by a man named Ross.

CHAPTER 15.

COMMISSIONERS OF ROADS AND REVENUES.

At session of Legislature of the year 1887, an act was passed creating for Irwin County a Board of Commissioners of Roads and Revenues consisting of David Clements, chairman, Frederick Tucker, Daniel T. Paulk, Joshua Troup, Lott Warren, and Jesse Sumner. At the next January election the same board was elected with Lott Warren chairman and James Paulk clerk.

At the session of the Legislature for the year 1890, an act was passed repealing the act passed at session of 1887, and creating the office of commissioner of roads and revenues and named M. Henderson as commissioner, and provided that his successor should be elected by the Grand Jury.

At the October term, 1892, M. Henderson was elected by the Grand Jury, county commissioner.

At the October term, 1900, M. Henderson resigned as county commissioner and the Grand Jury elected L. R. Tucker commissioner in his stead. In accepting the resignation of Mr. Henderson the Grand Jury had this to say in their general presentments: "In accepting M. Henderson's resignation we do so with regret. For ten years he has managed the business of the county in a manner creditable to himself as an honest, upright business man and citizen and to the advancement of every interest of the county with no partiality to any section thereof. He has given the county good bridges, an excellent courthouse, one of the best jails in the state, about 115 miles of well graded roads and one of the best systems in the state for conducting the business of the county. He has, through untiring and well directed efforts, placed the county among the foremost of the state. The immense amount of public work he has done has necessarily cost considerable money but every intelligent citizen must know that it has been well spent. His voluntary retirement from the public service has caused widespread regret but it is coupled with the hope that it will only be temporary."

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Hon. L. R. Tucker served as county commissioner from October term of Irwin Superior Court until December, 1900, when a Bill was passed and approved by the Legislature amending the Act passed in 1890 so as to provide for a Board of County Commissioners consisting of three members, said Board consisting of L. R. Tucker, Jacob Dorminy and E. R. Smith. The act provided for their successors to be elected at next election for county officers. At the next election for county officers, L. R. Tucker, E. R. Smith and John Gaff were elected who served until January, 1907, when L. R. Tucker, H. T. Fletcher and John Gaff were elected and served until August 11, 1908, when an act of the Legislature was approved which created a Board of County Commissioners consisting of ten members, and naming Jacob A. Paulk, J. M. Lee, Thomas Whitley, H. T. Fletcher, O. V. Purvis, M. Henderson, Thomas McMillan, John C. Whitley, I. J. Bussell and J. H. Young as said Board who served until January 1, 1911.

An Act of the Legislature approved August, 1910, repealed the Act creating a Board of Commissioners consisting of ten members and passed an Act providing for a Board of three Commissioners to be elected by the people, and at the first election Jacob A. Paulk, J. E. Howell and John W. Paulk were elected and served until January 1, 1913, when H. T. Fletcher, Jake W. Paulk and Tommy Tucker were elected.

In August, 1913, an Act of the Legislature was approved repealing the Act creating a Board of three Commissioners and passed an Act providing for one Commissioner and naming Warren Fletcher, commissioner, who served until March 5, 1917. Hon L. R. Tucker was elected by the people, county commissioner, who served as such until January 1, 1925, when Warren J. Paulk was elected to said office which position he still holds.

NORMAN STATUM.

Family Bible shows this man was born July 31, 1826; he resides now in Rochelle, Wilcox County, formerly Irwin. His home has been in four counties, Irwin, Dooly, Pulaski and Wilcox, still he has never moved. The reason for this is the creation of new counties, changing his residence when new county was created. At the present time in 1930 he seems to be in splendid health but has lost the use of his legs and is compelled to lie in bed. He has eleven children, thirty-two grandchildren and twenty-nine great-grandchildren.

He served in the Federal Army in 1856. Joined this army in Tampa, Florida. After serving sixteen months he was mustered out, receiving as pay two mules, one large and one small. He sold the large mule and rode the small one home in eight days. When the Civil War broke out he joined the Confederate army, and was in the eighth Georgia Regiment, Company C. Was captured in a hospital during this war and was recognized by General Barron of the Federal forces, who served with him in Indian warfare in Florida. Through the influence of General Barron he was paroled in 1865 and walked all the way back to Poor Robin Spring near his home in Irwin County.

He made a contract with the German Government in 1878 to secure for them one hundred pine ship masts to square twenty-eight inches center. He secured these timbers, put them in rafts and floated them down the Ocmulgee River to Darien where he received $100.00 a stick for the same. In company with one Negro he walked back home.

In 1888, he contracted with the French Government to furnish them forty ship masts which he also delivered in like manner.

He was a steamboat pilot on the Ocmulgee and Altamaha River. In 1907 when he was eighty-one years old he piloted a new boat from Macon to the sea.

Many years ago a company in the sawmill business purchased two large boilers for use in their mills and had them shipped to Hawkinsville, the nearest railroad point to their destination, it being Abbeville, which was twenty-five miles south on the Ocmulgee River. The question of transportation of these heavy boilers was quite a problem. Mr. Statum looked them over and contracted to deliver the boilers at Abbeville for $200.00. He obtained the contract. He secured corks and securely fastened all flue and other openings in the boilers air and water tight and then rolled them into the Ocmulgee

PHYSICIANS.

For many years there was no doctor or lawyer in Irwin County; the nearest physician to Irwin County was Doctor D. F. McCrimmon, who lived in Wilcox County, about three miles from Bowen's mill, now Ben Hill County, which was eighteen miles from Irwinville. He enjoyed a very large practice, traveling on horseback or roadcart over a vast territory. He was a splendid physician, a good citizen and fine gentleman of the old school.

Dr. G. E. White was the first physician I find any record of as living in the county from 1859 to 1865. Other physicians: Dr. S. T. Heard, Dr. M. M. Hill, Dr. W. C. Ashley, Dr. N. Peterson, Dr. A. Griffin, Drs. W. L. & Chas. Julian, Dr. Howell and Dr. Bowen.

AGRICULTURE.

Irwin County as it is today has an area of 378 square miles. The 1930 Census shows a population of 12,199. It is situated in the center of South Georgia, fanned by gentle breezes, musical with the song of pines, where peace and contentment abound and no more favored section can be found. Her wealth lies in her climate, pure water, a fertile soil capable of the highest state of cultivation, ideal ranges for stock raising of all kinds and a people or citizenship than whom no better can be found anywhere.

The average altitude is over 300 feet, in fact it is of greater altitude than the City of Macon.

No malaria is in Irwin County as the water or streams are of such character that the malaria mosquito cannot hatch or thrive. Hence the only malaria we have is imported here from other sections.

Irwin County has less waste lands than almost any county in South Georgia. The soil is Tifton pebbly soil and Tifton sandy loam and responds well in producing all crops cultivated.

One of the money crops raised is flue-cured tobacco. In the year 1914 tobacco was started to be cultivated in the County. J. B. Clements was one of the first to plant it. It is a profitable crop producing about 1600 pounds per acre or around $300 per acre.

Cotton is another money crop producing well, averaging one bale to two acres, oftentimes making one bale per acre.

Ground peas are largely planted as a money crop and to fatten meat for the family larder as well as hogs to market on foot, which always find a ready market. They produce well, making upon an average one ton to two acres.

Watermelons and cantaloupes are another money crop. They grow well, and oftentimes are very satisfactory in prices, as much as $100 to $500 per acre being realized.

Tomatoes and cucumbers are easily grown and when prices are reasonable, good returns are obtained.

Other crops grown successfully in the county are sweet potatoes and Irish potatoes, producing from one to two hundred bushels per acre. Sugar cane grows well, making 400 gallons syrup per acre.

Corn, oats, rye, soy beans, velvet beans, rice, vetch, hay and peas are made upon almost all farms in the county, all of which make wonderful crops if properly cultivated and are blessed with usual seasons. Many things on account of our seasons will produce two crops annually. Peaches, pears, plums, figs and many other fruits thrive in this section.

It is ideal for raising of livestock, having good ranges, well-watered and free from the rigors of cold weather. In short it is an ideal county in which to live and rear a family.
